LITANY FOR PRIESTS

Jesus, meek and humble of heart,
 give all priests Thy spirit of humility;
 Jesus, poor and worn out for souls,
 give all priests Thy spirit of zeal;
 Jesus, full of patience and
 mercy for sinners,
 give all priests Thy spirit of compassion;
 Jesus, victim for the sins of the world,
 give all priests Thy spirit of sacrifice;
 Jesus, lover of the little and the poor,
 give all priests Thy spirit of charity.
 Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us;
 and obtain for us numerous and holy priests and religious.
 Amen.

It's a bird! It's a flame! It's...

The HOLY SPIRIT!!! What was I thinking? Is this the kind of image I want to stick in people's minds regarding the third person of the Holy Trinity? Actually, the pope put this topic in my head. While reading his reflection for the feast of Pentecost I came across a passage in which John Paul II referred to the Holy Spirit as Dominum et vivificantem, Lord and life-giver, a term associated with the Holy Spirit at the First Council of Constantinople sixteen centuries ago. Then, the Holy Father expressed his wish to pray to "HIM." To "HIM," not to a dove or to a flame or to wind – to a "HIM."

It's easy for us to pray to Jesus, His human appearance easily being configured in our minds. Even God the Father works for us, probably assisted from early childhood with paintings of an older man creating the world, flooding it, e-mailing commandments and the like. But it just isn't the same with the Holy Spirit, is it? What image is in your mind when you pray to Him? Symbols seem to suggest the essence which we can only contemplate: water, anointing, fire, cloud and light, the seal, the hand, the finger, the dove. Then we have the seven gifts, wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord, all bursting from the seven suspended flames and immense red strokes of energy emanating from the crown of the transept.

In the story of salvation we have celebrated the climax of the resurrection, yet, contrary the classical development of a story we have no denouement, no resolution, at least until the end when Jesus returns in judgement. It is the Holy Spirit now who maintains and extends the climax throughout time. It is He who remains in our world after Jesus ascended to the right hand of the Father. It is He who continues to create, to guide, to enlighten. It is He to Whom we pray to carry us through this life leading us along the path back to Jesus, our final Alleluia.

THANK YOU FOR THE GIFTS

Last weekend was a wonderful celebration! Although the obvious reason for all the activity was the installation of the new pastor (and throw in a birthday and anniversary, to boot!), the real cause for joy was the wonderful enthusiasm and commitment of this entire parish community. Many, many people were extraordinarily generous to me, and for that I am deeply grateful. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I hope always to be worthy of the great gift of trust you have given me.

This weekend, we celebrate an even more generous outpouring of gifts. God has given us gifts of the Holy Spirit, and our celebration of Pentecost is our "thank you" to God. When our eighth grade students are making final preparations for the Sacrament of Confirmation, I always ask them, "Of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit that will be deepened in you, which is the one you would like to receive in the greatest measure?" It is a question that evokes a wonderfully mature and self-aware response from each of our young people. Be assured, they know themselves, and they know how they stand before their God.

Before you read any further — can you name the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit? Just try it! Chances are, you will come up short by one or two. Don't worry too much, though. There is a lot of numbered items to remember in our faith: the oneness of God, the dual nature of Christ, the three theological virtues, the four cardinal moral virtues, the seven deadly sins, the nine choirs of angels, the twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit, etc. Once you memorize the seven gifts, you can move on to the others...

Our church is always decorated splendidly for Pentecost Sunday. Officially, it is the end of the Easter season, and we want to end it the way we began it, with great solemnity and festivity. Radiating from the ceiling of the church are seven symbols, representing the seven gifts. May the Holy Spirit deepen in us the gift each of us needs in order to be more faithful disciples for the rest of the coming year. May we receive:

Wisdom — which enables us to see life from God's point of view, to recognize the real value of persons, events, and things.

Understanding — which gives us insight into the truths of the faith, to know the meaning and consequences of what God tells us.

Right Judgment — which helps us to seek the advice of others and to offer good direction to others.

Knowledge — which helps us to realize the truths of the universe and to experience God in the midst of life events.

Courage — which enables us to stand up for our beliefs, giving us inner strength to do what is right in the face of difficulties and to be of service to God and his people.

Reverence — which opens us deeply to love and worship God, filling us with a sense of sweetness and devotion in prayer and respect for all God has created.

Wonder and Awe — which helps us to recognize the majesty of God and to marvel at his great love for us, our capacity to say, "Wow!"

DUCH ŚWIĘTY

Co roku obchodzimy uroczystość Zesłania Ducha Świętego; modlimy się do Niego: "Przyjdź Duchu Święty, napełnij nas swoimi darami i odnów oblicze ziemi". W jakimś sensie możemy powiedzieć, że zżyliśmy się z Nim, przyzwyczailiśmy się do Jego obecności, ale pewne jest, że ciągle za mało Go znamy.

Zapewne też, z racji dzisiejszej uroczystości w wielu umysłach rodzi się pytanie: Czy potrzebny jest nam jeszcze Duch Święty? Skoro Chrystus nas odkupił i skoro śmiercią i zmartwychwstaniem potwierdził prawdziwość religii chrześcijańskiej, co ma jeszcze do "roboty" Duch Święty?

Jeżeli głębiej zajrzemy do Pisma św. to zauważymy, że Chrystus jakby przeczekał tę trudność i dlatego już podczas Ostatniej Wieczery powiedział: Potrzebne jest dla Was, abym odszedł, bo jeśli nie odejdę Pocieszyciel nie przyjdzie do was. A jeśli odejdę, pošlę Go do was. On zaś gdy przyjdzie przekona świat o grzechu, o sprawiedliwości i o sądzie (J 16, 7 n). Tak więc Duch Święty jest nam potrzebny; najpierw by nas pocieszał, ale także by umiacał naszą wiarę, by wzbogacał nas w nadprzyrodzone życie, by rozjaśniał horyzonty naszego myślenia. Bez Ducha Świętego nasza religijność pozostaje słaba i anemiczna.

Co konkretnie może nam dać Duch Święty? Przede wszystkim umacnia naszą wiarę; najlepszym przykładem jest postawa apostołów po śmierci Jeuzsa. W dzień Zmartwychwstania zamknęli się oni w Wieczerniku z obawy przed Żydami; mimo ukazywania się im, ich wiara w Zmartwychwstałego pozostaje słaba. Chrystus pokazuje im przebite ręce i bok, ale też zapowiada, że ześle im Pocieszyciela, który napełni ich mocą i odwagą oraz pozwoli zrozumieć to wszystko co usłyszeli od Niego. Po swoim Wniebowstąpieniu Jezus mówi do apostołów: Ale gdy Duch Święty zstąpi na was, otrzymacie Jego moc i będziecie moimi świadkami w Jerozolimie, w całej Judei i w Samarii i aż po krańce ziemi. (Dz 1,8). Razem z Duchem Świętym w serca apostołów wstępuje Jego moc. Dzięki niej stali się oni świadkami Jezusowej prawdy i Jezusowej nauki.

Po to właśnie przychodzi także do nas Duch Święty, byśmy zawsze i wszędzie świadczyli o Chrystusie. On dodaje nam odwagi do głoszenia ewangelii i do życia nią na codzień. Czego nie potrafimy zdziałać o własnych siłach, to wszystko spełnimy przy pomocy Ducha Świętego.

Może jest to najbardziej ulotna z Trzech Osób Boskich, najtrudniejsza do określenia, ale nigdy nie można powiedzieć, że niepotrzebna; a swego rodzaju paradoksem jest, że właśnie wtedy możemy mówić o zbędności w naszym życiu Ducha Świętego, jeśli nie chcemy otwierać się na Jego działanie.

Dziś zgromadzeni w Kościele, niby apostołowie w Wieczerniku, przyjmujemy od Chrystusa Ducha Świętego. Wprawdzie Duch działa wszędzie i "tchnie kędy chce", ale szczególnie splywa na nas w kościele. Każdy sakrament niesie ze sobą Ducha Świętego, ale najpełniej otrzymujemy Go zgromadzeni wspólnie na modlitwie. Zaś sakramentem, jakby specjalnie podporządkowanym Duchowi Świętemu jest sakrament bierzmowania zwany też sakramentem dojrzałości chrześcijańskiej.

Wołajmy często, nie tylko dzisiaj słowami dzisiejszej sekcji: Przyjdź Ojczy ubogich, przyjdź Dawco łask drogich, przyjdź światłości sumień. /.../ Daj Twoim wierzącym siedmiorakie dary.

David Krakowski's lyrics for Fr. Michael's Installation sung to the music of Len Cohen "Hallelujah"

*Well I heard there was a secret chord
That David played to please the Lord
Just listen to the music speak right to ya
Well it goes likes this: the 4th the 5th
The minor fall, the major lift
The baffled king composing hallelujah. Hallelujah*

*Well Jesus called Michael to His side
And Francis pushed him to collide
With worlds of love and hey -so what's it to ya?
And Alcuin gave the deacon time
And Willie left a friend behind
To lead a storm-tossed flock still closer to ya. Hallelujah*

*Now bless the meek and bless the poor
Those who hunger and thirst for more
And more and more and (mmmmmmph!) more power to ya
Lord bless the steward of this vine
Beatitudes and bread and wine
Now Christ, our final hallelujah. Hallelujah*
