WELCOME! To all our friends visiting our church during this Joyous Christmas Season. The Parishioners of St. Stanislaus pride themselves in our outreach and service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. If you can find it in your means, please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

Blue and White

Another Christmas has arrived and, again, our church is decorated from floors to rafters. You will already have noticed that this year there is a preponderance of blue and white decorations incorporated into the total design. The reason for this is connected to another celebration of this past year, the addition of our latest parishioner...John Paul II.

While we were in Krakow last month Fr. Michael and I noticed blue and white decorations and flags all around the city. When we inquired we were told those two colors were representative of Krakow's beloved 'Lolek.' The late Holy Father's intense love and respect for our Blessed Lady was represented by the blue while his office of Pope was represented by the white.

This year the late Holy Father celebrates this feast as never before, as one of the multitudes of angels and saints surrounding the Lamb of God on His eternal throne. This year he joins us here at our Shrine as never before, as one of many voices who can intercede for us in heaven. And, this year as never before, he has become a part of our Shrine as his friend, Archbishop Dziwisz, intimately made that sacred connection for all time with the bestowal of his sacred relic, the holy mitre.

So, we have so much to celebrate this Christmas. Once again, God reached out to us uniquely and blessed us with our new friend in heaven. Now, as we continue to pray for his intercession, may those prayers be answered, may blessings be abundant, and may our hearts be opened to God's invitation to love.

WELCOME HOME

My Dad can't climb ladders as well as he used to. This means that the outside of their house is not as lavishly lit at Christmastime as it used to be. But in my memory, the house will always be the brightest on the block.

Several years ago, while stationed at a friary in Wisconsin, I was able to use a friary car and drive to Mom & Dad's for Christmas. But I couldn't leave until after Midnight Mass, which meant an arrival well into the very early morning. When I turned the corner on to our street, I could see the glow from the lights of home shining like a runway beacon. It said, "Here is home."

When you enter the beautiful sanctuary of our Shrine Church, you will be greeted with a heavenly assault on the senses. Twinkling lights, the scent of pine and incense, the sound of bells and pipe organ — all will conspire to lift your spirit to a different kind of place. Once again, you are home. Welcome!

Welcome home — where God is glorified, where Jesus is found, and where the saints and angels assemble. Welcome home — where families and strangers embrace, where children are taught to know the world and to love God, and where the elderly recall their own childhood joy. Welcome home — where the poor find comfort, the grieving find solace, and the lonely find companionship. Welcome home — where tradition lives, where roots are deep, and where the future is now. Welcome home — where peace is real, where hope abounds, and where trust is sure. Welcome home — where goodness is tasted, where truth is sought, and where beauty is a gift. Welcome home — where lives tested by struggle meet the Gospel, where shame meets mercy, and where sin meets grace. Welcome home — where the Word becomes flesh in our flesh, where the Light is light in our hearts, and where Emmanuel is God-With-Us. Welcome home — where God has pitched his tent among us and lives with us as a neighbor in the 'hood.

May God continue to bless the home which is our shrine parish. May God bless the home where you live and where those you love lay their heads. May God bless the home which is your own heart, and may you find the Christ within. May God bless the home which is the city or town where you live, granting peace and providing generously. May God bless the home which is our nation, granting us strength and compassion. May God bless the homes of the poor, the forgotten, the oppressed, the ill, of those on the margins of society. May God bless those who have no home, those whose homes are not adequate, those who are refugees from the violent storms of nature and the politics of greed. May God bless the homes of those who are generous and of those who are miserly. May God bless the homes of those who are good to us and of those who hurt us. And may God lead safely home all who will be called away from this life.

On behalf of your priests, the residents of the friary, and the parish staff, I wish all of you a blessed and happy Christmas. May your new year be filled with every goodness which comes from God. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers, and that you are welcome home any time!

Fr. Michael

BOZE NARODZENIE

W Uroczystosc Narodzenia Jezusa Chrystusa, Kosciól w sposób szczególny kontempluje Boga, który jest Emmanuelem, czyli Bogiem z nami, a nie jakimś abstrakcyjnym i dalekim od naszego ludzkiego życia. Przede wszystkim powinniśmy uznać, że chodzi w tym przypadku o jakieś szczególne i wyjątkowe urodziny, gdyż o tym wydarzeniu mówimy ciągle pomimo tego, iż upłynęło już 20 wieków od tamtej nocy. Ilekroć to wielkich wydarzeń pokrył kurz historii, bo po siedmiu cudach świata, którymi zachwycała się starożytność, prawie już nic nie pozostało, rozleciało się imperium rzymskie i cesarstwo Napoleona, a przecież o narodzeniu Jezusa nigdy nie przestajemy mówić i nie przestajemy wspominać tego wielkiego wydarzenia.

Dlaczegoż to Bóg stał się człowiekiem? Dlaczego przyszedł On do nas i dlaczego w swojej odwiecznej mądrości zechciał urodzić się w ubóstwie, a nie w splendorze pałacu królewskiego? Oto pytania, które stawiamy sobie dzisiaj, w Uroczystosc Bozego Narodzenia. Ewangelia daje nam tutaj bardzo jasną odpowiedź, gdyż mówi ona, iż Bóg stał się jednym z nas, ponieważ nas umiłował. Bóg bowiem tak bardzo umiłował świat - a więc przede wszystkim nas ludzi - że, zesłał Syna swego Jednorodzonego, aby każdy, kto w Niego wierzy, nie zginął, ale miał życie wieczne (J 3, 16). Tak więc Bóg stał się człowiekiem, aby człowiek z Jego łaski stał się uczestnikiem Bozego życia. Miłość szuka bliskości z ukochaną osobą - o czym świadczy najlepiej ból rozstania osób, które się kochają - i dlatego też Bóg maksymalnie zbliżył się do nas, byśmy i my zbliżyli się do Niego.

Czego uczy nas to wielkie wydarzenie? Otóż Bóg przyszedł do nas, byśmy uczyli się szanować ludzkie życie od momentu poczęcia, aż po naturalną śmierć. Tyle razy zdobywanie rzeczy materialnych tak bardzo nas pochłania, że zapominamy o ważności rozmowy i dialogu w naszych rodzinach, tymczasem przecież osoba jest ważniejsza niż cały świat materialnych rzeczy. Dlatego między innymi Bóg przyszedł do nas, abysmy właśnie bardziej cenili osoby niż rzeczy.

Czego uczy nas jeszcze ta wielka Uroczystosc? Oto Jezus przyszedł do nas, byśmy częściej rozważali w naszych sercach wielkie sprawy Boże, a zarazem tajemnice naszej wiary. Przyszedł On również i do człowieka naszych czasów, który pracuje niekiedy po 12 godzin dziennie, by móc kupować nowe rzeczy, które nie zawsze są konieczne do życia. To prawda, że życie bez środków materialnych może być nawet tragiczne, ale cóż powiedzieć o kulturze współczesnej, która nie pozostawia człowiekowi czasu na medytację i dialog z bliźnim.

Czego uczy nas jeszcze przyjscie do nas naszego Pana Jezusa Chrystusa? Oto chwala człowieka jest sam Bóg. Kiedy więc odrzuca się Jezusa i Jego Ewangelie, to tym samym człowiek wpada w nielad moralny, grzech, występek, w przemoc, a nawet nienawiść. To prawda, że istnieje czasami tyle zła na świecie, ale unieszczęśliwia ono przede wszystkim tych, którzy są jego sprawcami, gdyż jedynie dobro może człowieka uszczęśliwić. W tym sensie już na tym świecie istnieje pewna sprawiedliwość.

Niech więc miłość, dobro, pokój oraz poczucie bliskości drugiego człowieka towarzysza nam mocniej niż zwykle w te Święta Bozego Narodzenia.

Niech plyną te zyczenia ku naszym bliskim, dzieciom, starszym, chorym, samotnym i do kazdego czlowieka wokół nas. Radosnych, pogodnych i błogosławionych Świat Bozego Narodzenia!

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT. Longtime St. Stanislaus sacristan, Brother Fidelis Veselak OFM died on Christmas Eve in 1980. "Brother," as he was affectionately known by parishioners, set up the Christmas crib, went to bed, and passed away quietly. Brother Fidelis was always in the church doing his sacristan duties. Many younger parishioners have fond memories of helping "Brother" make hosts for Mass and receiving a bag of wafer scraps to take home. Many of our parishioners have good memories of this quiet and saintly Franciscan. He is still in our prayers and our memories.

GOOD LUCK AND A HAPPY RETIREMENT ANNA MAE

Anna Mae Kostura has hung up her mop and put away her scrub brush at St. Stanislaus School and is preparing to live a life of leisure. After 22 years and 5 Pastors she is looking forward to her time off. She is living proof that dynamos come in small packages. The kids and Staff of St. Stanislaus will miss you! She is pictured above with Alice Torrence (Principal), Fr. Mike and Fr. Howard.

MANNA PROGRAM

Od pewnego czasu w naszej parafii funkcjonuje tak zwany Manna Program. Polega on na tym, że nasza parafia Sw. Stanisława współpracuje z wieloma instytucjami handlowymi typu sklepy, restauracje czy stacje paliwowe itp.. Współpraca ta jest bardzo korzystna dla parafii, ponieważ od każdego zakupu dokonanego w tych jednostkach handlowych do parafii trafia procent od wydanej sumy pieniędzy. Jednak, aby tak się stawało konieczny jest jeden warunek: przy dokonywaniu zakupu musimy posługiwać się specjalną kartą, zakupioną w naszej parafii. Taką kartę możemy nabyć w każdą niedzielę po Mszy św. przy wyjściu z kościoła lub w tygodniu w kancelarii parafialnej. Czyli krótko: wystarczy czek lub gotówkę przeznaczona na zakupy zamienić na kartę oferowaną w naszej parafii, a przyniesie to wymierną korzyść dla parafialnego budżetu.
