Sr. Marie Simon Pierre (Part II)

She had never met John Paul II face to face, only seeing him on television. When she finally arrived at his tomb in the Vatican she knelt down and was unable to hold back her tears. The disease which had taken his life was miraculously taken from her, liberating her to continue her work more vigorously at the hospital's maternity ward where she worked. She would have continued her work even in pain, but God obviously knew her heart and had other plans for her.

Sr. Marie Simon Pierre had always seen John Paul II as a friend who understood her situation and who gave her the strength necessary to go on. Now she prays to him everyday using very intimate and familiar words. She thanks him for the healing and entrusts to him all the sick with whom she now works, particularly the couples unable to have children. We see in Sr. Marie Simon Pierre the fruit of John Paul's encyclical Evangelium Vitae (The Gospel of Life) and the triumph of what he often referred to as the 'culture of life.'

Some might question the necessity of this person's healing. After all, is there not value in suffering? Did not John Paul himself stand before all of us as a symbol of dignity in the face of his own suffering? Didn't we see his suffering as a sharing in the pain we all endure in our lives? Yes, but the reality now is that the process to beatification requires such a miraculous act to have occurred through the intercession of the Servant of God in question. In this case we saw John Paul respond to Sister Marie's prayers, thus opening the door to the first steps to his official recognition in the gallery of Saints. Sister Marie would have continued to work with or without the miracle. But her body was chosen to serve as a vessel to manifest God's love and His goodness through the intercession of her friend, Servant of God John Paul II. Many people who have prayed for his intercession right here at our Shrine know well how willing he has been to listen to their prayers and requests, and how many of their prayers have quietly been answered. No matter how small or how large the request, don't be afraid to ask him to intercede for you! He helped Sr. Marie....he can help you too!

THE GREAT PARDON OF ASSISI

This week Thursday, August 2, is the Feast of Our Lady of the Angels of the Portiuncula. (Portiuncula means "Little Portion.") It refers to a chapel very dear to St. Francis of Assisi. It was located on a piece of land known as the Portiuncula; this name became attached to the chapel erected under Pope Liberius (352-66) by hermits from the Valley of Josaphat, who had brought relics from the grave of the Blessed Virgin. Legend relates that the chapel passed into the possession of St. Benedict in 516. It was known as Our Lady of the Valley of Josaphat or of the Angels -- the latter title referring, according to some, to Our Lady's ascent into heaven accompanied by angels on the Solemnity of the Assumption. However, a better founded opinion attributes the name to the singing of angels which had been frequently heard there.

After a long period of abandonment, it was restored by St. Francis. Here he was given a dear understanding of his vocation. Here he founded the Order of Friars Minor (1209), "establishing here his home", St. Bonaventure tells us, "because of his reverence for the angels, and of his great love of the Mother of Christ" to whom the little church is dedicated. He obtained the use of the land and the chapel from the Benedictines and made this place the center of his new religious family. On March 28, 1211, Saint Clare received the religious habit here from the hands of St. Francis, and thus began the Order of Poor Clares.

In the summer of 1216 while praying in the Portiuncula chapel outside of Assisi, St. Francis was inspired to travel to Rome and ask the Pope for an unheard-of privilege: the granting of a plenary indulgence. Pope Honorius III granted the indulgence as a sign of the greatness of God's love for humanity. August 2nd was established as the date to receive the "Great Pardon of Assisi." Eventually, the Church modified the conditions and said the faithful could obtain the indulgence either on August 2nd or on the following Sunday by visiting any Franciscan parish or chapel throughout the world. The conditions for gaining the indulgence include praying the Our Father and the Creed, as well as receiving the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist, and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father.

The meaning and value of indulgences (look up the excellent explanation at www.newadvent.org/cathen/07783a.htm) have to do with the temporal (meaning, "in time") consequences of sins, even though they have been forgiven. We are able to affect those consequences because we are part of the Communion of Saints, whose prayers and actions produce merit for each other even when we do not know each other directly.

As a Shrine Church served by Franciscans, Saint Stanislaus is making available a special opportunity for Confession and Mass on August 2. Please check the bulletin for the schedule. Apply this special grace to yourself or for the sake of a deceased person for whom you are praying. Invite others to join you, and be open to the possibility that God has something wonderful in store for you on this great Franciscan Feast!

Fr. Michael

Modlitwa Abrahama

Dzisiejsze pierwsze czytanie z 18 rozdziału Księgi Rodzaju jest kontynuacją tego słyszanego przed tygodniem. Pan Bóg po wizycie u Abrahama idzie dalej. Wyrusza w stronę Sodomy i Gomory. Jak czytamy „chce iść i zobaczyć, czy [mieszkańcy tych miast] postępują tak, jak głosi oskarżenie, które do Niego doszło” (por. Rdz 18, 21).

Bóg został tu przedstawiony na sposób ludzki. Przybrał postać człowieka (czy raczej trzech ludzi), wyrusza w dalszą drogę, aby przekonać się, czy oskarżenie ludzi z Sodomy jest prawdziwe. Przesłanie tu przedstawione jest bardzo ciepłe dla nas wszystkich. Co to za przesłanie?

Pan Bóg jest wszechwiedzący. Zna nawet to, co jest we wnętrzu człowieka i nie potrzebuje wyruszać w drogę, aby przekonać się, czy coś jest prawdą czy nie. Natchniony autor przedstawia Pana Boga jako człowieka, który nie wierzy bezkrytycznie oskarżeniu, jakie słyszy wobec innych. Sprawdza to osobiście.

Nie jest tak, jak myślą niektórzy, że Pan Bóg tylko czeka na nasze błędy, pomyłki i grzechy, aby nas ukarać. Jest dokładnie odwrotnie. On wierzy w nas. Ufa, że potrafimy zrobić dobry użytek z darów, które w nas złożył. Nie może uwierzyć, kiedy człowiek wybiera zło zamiast dobra.

Potwierdzenie tego możemy wyczytać pomiędzy wierszami, kiedy czytamy opowiadanie o grzechu pierwszych rodziców. „Któż powiedział ci, że jesteś nagi. Czy może zjadłeś z drzewa, z którego ci zakazałem jeszcze?”

Złe się dzieje, kiedy mamy obraz Boga, który tylko czyha na grzech człowieka. Być może jako dzieci słyszelismy: „Pan Bóg przyjdzie i cie ukarze!” Takim argumentem rodzice chcą wychować swoje dzieci w karności. Ten argument jest skuteczny, ale na krótką metę. Ostatecznie wyrządza dzieciom wielką szkodę. Powoduje, że dzieci, które to słyszą, budują w sobie fałszywy obraz Boga: nie jest to kochający Ojciec, ale surowy Sędzia. Taki obraz staje się nierzadko powodem, że dzieci wychowane w takiej atmosferze stają później ateistami - ludźmi, którzy już nie wierzą w Boga.

Drugi wniosek, który z pierwszym jest związany: Pan Bóg chce ocalić człowieka. Jest gotów ocalić całe miasto, jeśli znajdzie tam dziesięciu sprawiedliwych. Abraham „targuje” się z Panem Bogiem. Jest to bardzo wzruszający przykład modlitwy wstawienniczej.

Co to oznacza dla nas praktycznie? Jesteśmy braćmi, w jakiś tajemniczy sposób związani z innymi ludźmi. Modląc się, nie możemy zapominać o innych. I dlatego w modlitwie, której nauczył nas Pan Bóg, poleca nam modlić się w liczbie mnogiej - nie „ja”, ale „my”. Zobaczmy, ile razy w Ojciec nasz jest słowo „nasz”, „naszego”, „nas”.

To prawda, trudno zaprzeczyć, że wokół nas dzieje się wiele zła. Narzekanie jednak nic tu nie pomoże. Choć jest wyrazem, że nie jesteśmy zadowoleni z takiej sytuacji, to samo w sobie to za mało. Potrzeba, żebyśmy sami prowadzili dobre życie. Potrzeba też, abyśmy w modlitwie wstawienniczej modlili się za innych.
