Timetable For Decorating OUR Church

Day One — Thursday: We will begin our decorating today. Because of our extensive use of living greenery and flowers, it is impossible to start the project any sooner if we'd like the decorations to remain up and safe throughout the Christmas Season. We'll begin after the 8:30 a.m. Mass and continue up until 5:45 when we will need at least quiet down for a Wedding rehearsal. Then, by 6:45 we must break within the church to prepare for our 'Third Thursday Mass for the Beatification of John Paul II'. At 8 we may resume our activities, but must stop by 10 p.m. Volunteers may work quietly in other parts of the church and vestibule where they will not disturb the church services.

Day Two — Friday: OK, here we go...There is an 8:30 Mass followed by a 9:30 Advent Service for the High School until 10:30. We will be able to work within the church until 1:30 when the Grade School will have an Advent Lessons and Carols Service to mark the beginning of their Christmas break. At 2:30 the church is again ours for an hour. Then there is a Wedding scheduled for 4:30 p.m. By 6 the place should be ours again. Sign out time is no later than 10 p.m. (?????) Do you believe in miracles?

Day Three — Saturday: after the 8:30 Mass we may resume our projects until 4 p.m. (confessions), followed by the 5 o'clock Vigil Mass. At 6 we have another 4 hours to tidy things up so that the church is presentable for Sunday.

Day Four — Sunday: Projects may resume throughout the day after the 11:30 Mass with brief intermissions for Godzinki and Vespers. After Vespers, the High Altar and Sanctuary will be decorated and everything will be done by 10 p.m. There will be NO more decorating on Monday save for any minor details that escaped us the previous three days.

N.B. This schedule does not cover the Manger Team (Jeremy Wisniewski, Manger Master) which will manage their own project.

N.B.B. In case of funerals any of those three days, schedules will need to be adjusted.

So, there you have the complicated schedule for decorating our worship space this year. Many parishioners have already offered their help and I'm confident it will all come together despite the scheduled obstacles. After all, it's a living building, not a vacated warehouse, so we must be flexible and patient. Is there anything more important to decorate than the church?

When parishioners and their families and guests come to worship for the Vigil Masses and Christmas Day they'll see the finished project in all its glory, all done for the glory of God.

One final note, I ask that you all loosen up your vocal chords on the way to the Christmas liturgies. The choirs' sizes have diminished (some people have died, others have chosen to drop out, some have health issues) aside from their not being at every Mass, so PLEASE SING THE CAROLS!!!! YOU'VE KNOWN THEM ALL YOUR LIFE!

Merry Christmas to everyone! Thank you for all your help throughout the year! God bless you all!

David Krakowski

BLESS ME, FATHER...

Every Advent we hear the words of John the Baptist proclaim, "Prepare the way of the Lord!" That way can be rough, and the pathway can be difficult with its ups and downs. But the prophet Isaiah promises that the Lord will smooth the way, leveling the hills and filling in the valleys.

Does God still do this? And if so, when does He do it? How will we recognize it? Do I see myself being on that way toward the Lord? Or have I stopped moving altogether? If there are pot-holes in the road I'm walking along, how did they get there? Who can fix them?

Those ups and downs, ruts and holes, are like our sin and its consequences. We are the ones who mess up our own roads. We put the bumps there, and then we complain that the road is so bumpy! We are not able to fix them by ourselves, but God is the master road-builder. God has a repair program already in place — and it doesn't cost you anything to apply, except an hour or so of time. And honesty.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available every Saturday at 4:00 PM, in Polish and in English. This Wednesday, we will also have a special Communal Reconciliation service at 7:00 PM. There will be a brief prayer service to set the tone and ask God to open our hearts to his loving mercy. Then ten priests will be available for private confession, in Polish and English.

There is no perfect person walking the earth right now, so we all need to acknowledge our weakness and yield to God's mercy. Every time we sin, not only do we offend God, but also we hurt another person. It is impossible to apologize to everyone, although it would be nice if we could. And although we know in our minds that God seeks to forgive us, there is a deep human need to hear these words spoken to us again. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the priest stands in the place of Christ, who is ready to embrace the lost and the sinner. He also stands in for the Church, which is the Body of Christ broken by our sinfulness.

In friendship, in marriage, in families — even though we know we love each other, we still like to hear it every now and then. We certainly need to say it. When people who love each other hurt each other, they usually know that forgiveness is theirs in the end. But we still need to seek it and to give it. Out loud. Face to face.

Yet how hard it is for people to own up to their faults. We cover them up with phrases that mask our culpability. How many politicians have said, "Mistakes were made," instead of "I made a mistake?" How much easier it is to say, "Something bad happened," instead of "I did something wrong." We say, "I'm sorry that it happened," instead of "I'm sorry I did that." There is something deeply honest, and human, about the dynamic of the confessional. See you Wednesday.

Fr. Michael

Wy jesteście przyjaciółmi Moimi...

Zaprawdę, powiadam wam: Miedzy narodzonymi z niewiast nie powstał wiekszy od Jana Chrzciciela. Lecz najmniej w królestwie niebieskim wiekszy jest niz on - tak o swoim poprzedniku powiedział Pan Jezus (Mt 11, 11). Wielka pochwała. Nawet o swojej Matce Jezus nie wypowiedział publicznie takich słów.

Pana Jezusa i Jana Chrzciciela łączyło wiele: pokrewienstwo, bo Maryja i Elzbieta były kuzynkami; łączyła ich także wspólna misja - Jan został posłany, aby przygotować drogę dla Pana. Jan wypełnił swoją misję dobrze, bo u końca jego dni Pan wypowiedział bardzo ciepłe i pochlebne słowa, które cytowaliśmy wcześniej: Miedzy narodzonymi z niewiast nie powstał wiekszy niz on. Jan poprzedzał Jezusa wypełniając swoją misję, poprzedził Go też w m e c z e n s k i e j s m i e r c i - wielki poprzednik największego spośród ludzi. Chyba nie będzie przesada, gdy się doda, że łączyła ich przyjaźń. O tej przyjaźni wiedział św. Jan Apostoł; wiedział i pośrednio daje o niej świadectwo pomiędzy wierszami Ewangelii, której jest autorem.

Jan był wielki, ale we własnych oczach pozostał pokorny. Kiedy jego uczniowie donoszą mu, że ludzie go opuszczają i chodzą teraz za Jezusem, odpowiada: Ja nie jestem Mesjaszem, ale zostałem przed Nim posłany. Ten, kto ma oblubienice, jest oblubieniec; a przyjaciel oblubienca, który stoi i słucha go, doznaje najwyższej radości na głos oblubienca. Ta zaś moja radość doszła do szczytu. Potrzeba, by On wzrastał, a ja się umniejszał. Kto przychodzi z wysoka, panuje nad wszystkimi, a kto z ziemi pochodzi, należy do ziemi i po ziemsku przemawia. Kto z nieba pochodzi, Ten jest ponad wszystkim (J 3, 28-31).

Mysle, że te słowa Jana mogą być przesłanką do wyciągnięcia następującego wniosku: przyjaźń oparta jest na prawdzie. Inaczej mówiąc, nie ma prawdziwej przyjaźni tam, gdzie jest jakieś niedomówienie, a na pewno nie ma jej tam, gdzie brakuje prawdy. W tym miejscu można wskazać na zasadniczą różnicę między miłością rozumianą jako zakochanie, a przyjaźnią. Miłości grozi niebezpieczeństwo egoizmu we dwoje. Dzieje się tak wtedy, kiedy miłość dwojga ludzi czyni ich ślepymi na innych. „Oni poza sobą świata nie widzą” - mówimy w takim przypadku. Do pewnego stopnia jest to dobre, ale staje się złem, kiedy owa miłość przeszkadza zobaczyc innym.

W przyjaźni jest także ten pewien rodzaj wzajemnej adoracji dla drugiego, tzn. dla przyjaciela właśnie, ale ponad tym jest wpatrzenie się we wspólny cel czyli gotowość do wzajemnej pomocy, która nie wyklucza innych ludzi. Przyjaciele nie są zapatrzeni w siebie, ale w zadania, które mają do wykonania. Mówiąc inaczej, bardziej obrazowo, dwoje ludzi w miłości zapatrzonych jest w siebie; w przyjaźni stoją oni ramie w ramie; patrzą we wspólnym kierunku, łączy ich wspólny cel.

Niech wielki Patron Adwentu - św. Jan Chrzciciel - pomoże nam łączyć pozytywne cechy przyjaźni i miłości.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY of Fr. William's burial in Pulaski, Wisconsin Dec 16, 2002

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski.

Most of our parishioners worked in the Rolling Steel Mill in Newburgh at the end of the nineteenth century. In 1882 the mill ownership changed and wages were greatly reduced for the largely Irish, Welsh, and Bohemian workforce. At this time some Poles worked in the mill. The workers went on strike. The strike was violent at times. Mill management recruited new workers in Poland. The mill contracted to import 500-1500 Poles to come to Cleveland to work here. These were mostly experienced iron workers. As these new workers established themselves they sent for family members from Poland. This accelerated the growth of the Warszawa neighborhood and the Parish of St. Stanislaus. The Poles would also go on strike against the mill management in later years. The history of the Warszawa neighborhood had begun.
