*“Blessed are You Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
 for You have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”*

The above words are those we have heard preceding today’s Gospel, the ‘Alleluia’ verse. We also heard these same words last Sunday as well as three Sundays ago. Have you ever wondered what this phrase is getting at? What is it that ‘little ones’ seem to grasp or know or feel or experience that those of us who are more jaded seem to not understand.

*“Blessed are You Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
 for You have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”*

A child playing on the beach...digging a little hole....trying to fit the entire ocean into it. A child blowing bubbles....chasing them in the sky.....amazed by the colors and lightness and movement of the bubble. A child picking a flower and running through the yard with it held high....taking it to its mother. A child playing with a puppy twice its size.....trying to ride it..... pulling its ears and tail....not afraid!!!

*“Blessed are You Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
 for You have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”*

A child at a funeral wondering why everyone looks so sad.....seeing grandma or grandpa sleeping in a big box....checking out all the beautiful flowers.....seeing strangers and cousins and neighbors huggingand wondering when the clowns will show up with the balloons....and when the cake will be served....and will grandma or grandpa give me their icing? Why are they still in that box?

*“Blessed are You Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
 for You have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”*

Mustard seeds.....Big trees.... Big weeds.....Treasure buried in a fieldPearls!!! FINE pearls!!!!???.All kinds of fish!! Buckets of fish....and hamburgers...and candy...and popcorn. The child’s eyes care barely take in everything It is time to rest from all the excitement, crawling onto mommy’s or daddy’s lap....content...without worry....protected and secure.....

*“Blessed are You Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
 for You have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.”*

The lilies of the field, the birds of the air....beauty surrounds the child. God is beauty. Somehow everything is taken care of and happy to live for no special reason...no reason is necessary...meek, humble of heart....the shared yoke makes it all seem that way to the child. God is the reason. The mystery of the kingdom of heaven is in the child’s simple, pure heart.

Time—God's Precious Gift To Us

Often we look at the clock hanging on the wall; we look at the wristwatch; we look at the digitally-designed clock constantly flashing minute after minute. We are constantly keeping ourselves of the time—essentially defined as “the succession of moments.”

An anonymous author penned these words as they relate to time.

A hunter in India with a sling had come to the end of his stones and wanted one to sling at a bird on a tree. He saw some fine stones lying near, and took a handful to hurl one by one with his sling. Without very much success, however, for the bird flew gaily off, and the stones fell into the river, only one remaining of the handful he had taken. He was going to throw it away, but seeing it was pretty, he saved it as a plaything for his little daughter. On the way home, he met a diamond merchant, and showed him the stone. The merchant saw at once that it was a diamond, and offered a large sum for it. The hunter started lamenting his bad fortune, and on being asked why he was so disconsolate, he explained that it was because he had not realized the value of the stones he had thrown into the river. Had he but saved them, a fortune might have been his. They were now lost to him forever.

So is everyday of life precious — it can never be recovered. I recall the words of the great Saint Augustine: “Time is a three-fold present: the present as we experience it, the past as present memory and the future as a present expectation.” Every moment of our life should be overflowing with gratitude and thanksgiving to Almighty God. Every moment of our life is a God-given opportunity and blessing, which can accept and utilize, or reject and someday, consequently, be oppressed with that fearful onslaught of remorse. Every moment of time offers us the opportunity to make good and fruitful decisions; to reach out to others, especially, in time of need, misfortune, sickness or rejection. The Sacred Scriptures divide for us very clearly the days of creation — God's timetable in establishing the categories of beings — human beings and all the other lower forms of animals. Even for himself God reserved a day — segment of time — in which to rest. That model and use time has been given to us to observe on every Sunday.

The Irish have a beautiful saying that goes like this: Take time to work ... it is the price of success. Take time to think ... it is the source of power. Take time to play ... it is the secret of perpetual youth. Take time to read ... it is the foundation of wisdom. Take time to be friendly ... it is the road to happiness. Take time to dream ... it is hitching your wagon to a star. Take time to love and be loved ... it is the privilege of the gods. Take time to look around ... the day is too short to be selfish. Take time to laugh ... it is the music of the soul.

We are very familiar with the brief adage: Time is of the essential. Time is essential in the matter of saving one's life or that of another. Time is important in the process of healing. Time dictates the opportunities that one team may have in win—a major competitive event. To run out of time in sports often means losing fame and fortune. If the element of time so important in the sports world, how much more for you and me — indeed, every human being to use time to reconcile with neighbor and to prepare well for the coming of Christ at the end of life.

Father Len

W poszukiwaniu wiecznego skarbu i szczęścia!

Gdziekolwiek pojawia się prawdziwie szczęśliwy człowiek prawie natychmiast obok niego zjawia się ktoś, kto zazdrości mu tego szczęścia. Zazdrość to straszna wada, bo zmierza do zniszczenia szczęścia, do zamienienia człowieka szczęśliwego w nieszczęśliwego. Celem zazdrości jest zawsze okradzenie drugiego ze szczęścia.

Jezus wiedząc o tym, bo sam był otoczony zazdrosną gwardią faryzeuszów i uczonych w Piśmie, wzywa nie tylko do szukania skarbu, nie tylko do jego nabycia, ale i do jego ukrycia. Niewielu czytelników Ewangelii dostrzega to mądre wskazanie Jezusa. „Podobne jest Królestwo niebieskie do skarbu ukrytego w roli. Znalazł go pewien człowiek i ukrył ponownie. Uradowany poszedł, sprzedał wszystko, co miał i kupił tę rolę”. Otoczenie zna jedynie transakcję dotyczącą roli, nic nie wie, i nie może wiedzieć, o ukrytym w niej skarbie. Tymczasem źródłem szczęścia człowieka jest nie rola, lecz skarb.

To wezwanie Jezusa stanowi część mądrości obowiązującej w podejściu do wszystkich „skarbów” — począwszy od materialnych, przez duchowe aż do nadprzyrodzonych.

Lekarz chwali się wśród kolegów, co w spadku po zmarłej w Kanadzie matce otrzymała jego żona. Szczęśliwy ujawnia skarby zamknięte w szafie jego mieszkania. Nie upłynęły dwa tygodnie skarb ten staje się łupem złodziei. Nie umiał ukryć skarbu.

Podobnie jest i z głębszym życiem religijnym. Ono zawsze stanowi skarb uszczęśliwiający człowieka, lecz jego tajemnica musi być ukryta. Wielu nie potrafi rozwijać swego życia religijnego tylko dlatego, że nie umie ukryć skarbu, jaki znajdują. Zamiast dostosować się do instrukcji Jezusa i zakopać skarb w ziemi, następnie sprzedać wszystko i nabyć ziemię ze skarbem, ujmują skarb w ręce i zwołują innych, by się nim chwalić. A kiedy to uczynią, nagle odkrywają, że zostali tego skarbu pozbawieni.

Nie wystarczy szukać tego, co człowieka uszczęśliwia, nie wystarczy znaleźć skarb. Tu na ziemi skarb jest ciągle zagrożony. Trzeba umieć go ukryć.

Chrześcijanin nie musi się obawiać złodziei tego świata, bo w imię Ewangelii nie powinien gromadzić zbyt wielkich skarbów doczesnych, które stają się łupem złodziei. Musi jednak ciągle mieć na uwadze znacznie niebezpieczniejszych złodziei duchowych, którym przewodzi książę tego świata, od początku zazdrośny o szczęście człowieka. To przed tymi złodziejami trzeba się mieć na baczności. Jest ich wielu i żaden z nich za kradzież skarbu duchowych nie trafia do więzienia. Działają bezkarnie. Jedynie mądrość Ewangelii i wierne stosowanie się do instrukcji, jaką podaje Jezus, może uchronić przed ich zgubnym działaniem. Umiejętność ukrywania skarbu i odpowiedzialność za tajemnicę stanowi jeden z ważniejszych wykładników mądrości człowieka.

YES, WE ARE HAVING A POLISH FESTIVAL THIS YEAR!

Preparations are finally underway for the annual Saint Stanislaus Polish Festival, which will be held October 3-5 this year. The start for all our cooking began later than usual this summer, but we will certainly be ready for the thousands of guests when they arrive.

As most people already know, we have been searching for a coordinator for all the cooking and work in the kitchen. We are happy announce that Rick Skłodowski has agreed to take on the tasks of coordinating the food preparation before the festival and running the kitchen during the festival. Rick has extensive experience in this area, serving as manager of the catering at St. Josaphat Ukrainian Catholic Hall in Parma and as chef for our recent Four Eagle Award Dinner. Parishioners are familiar with the hard work the entire Skłodowski Family does for the sake of the parish. Thanks, Rick!

Rick will work with Marilyn Mosinski, who will continue to serve as Co-Chair of the festival. Together they will invest many long hours. But this cannot succeed without the help of every parishioner. The profit from our festival pays our winter heating bill, and this year the bill is expected to double. If we want a warm church this winter...

Nobody can do everything, but everybody can do something. Please make sure to participate in your parish festival this year!

TAK, FESTIWAL ODBĘDZIE SIĘ TEGO ROKU!

Rozpoczęliśmy przygotowania do dorocznego Polskiego Festiwalu przy parafii św. Stanisława. Odbędzie się on w dniach od 3 do 5 października. Początek przygotowywania potraw zaczął się tego roku później niż zwykle, ale wciąż jest dosyć czasu, aby zdążyć i być gotowym na przyjęcie tysięcy gości, kiedy przyjadą.

Jak większość już wie, szukaliśmy kogoś, kto zechciałby koordynatora wszelkich działań mających na celu przygotowanie potraw i koordynowani prac w kuchni. Z radością ogłaszamy, że Rick Skłodowski zgodził się przyjąć tę rolę. Rick ma rozległe doświadczenie w tej dziedzinie, udzielając się jako menager Catholic Hall przy Ukraińsko-Katolickiej Parafii św. Józafata w Parmie. Był on także szefem kuchni w czasie ostatniego bankietu Four Eagle Award Dinner. Parafianom jest znana ciężka praca na rzecz parafii całej rodziny Skłodowskich. Dzięki, Rick!

Rick będzie współpracował z Marylin Mosiński, która będzie jak do tej pory „Co-Chair” organizowania festiwalu. Razem poświęcą na ten cel wiele długich godzin. Jednak ich wysiłki nie zostaną uwieńczone sukcesem bez pomocy każdego parafianina. Dochód z festiwalu pokrywa koszty zimowego ogrzewania kościoła, a w tym roku wzrosły one dwukrotnie. Jeśli chcemy w najbliższą zimę przychodzić do ogrzewanego kościoła...

Nikt nie może robić wszystkiego, ale wszyscy mogą zrobić coś. Proszę wszystkich parafian o współpracę w przygotowaniu i o uczestnictwo w tegorocznym Waszym festiwalu!

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

by Rob Jagelewski

A Cleveland Press newspaper article from the early 1930's states, "Father Theobald Kalamaja OFM, pastor of St. Stanislaus Parish, oversees seven priests and three brothers of the Franciscan Order as well as 50 Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth as teachers in the school. The Church, rectory, school, power plant, and supplementary buildings cover a city block in the Heart of Little Poland. These elements including staff, parishioners, and equipment constitute one of the largest religious enterprises of any Church in the City...Nine Masses are said at the Church on Sundays in almost continuous services beginning at 6:30 AM and continuing until noon."
