A Time for Everything

As this Advent and Christmas season unfolded and continues to unfold I seemed to hear the words from the book of Ecclesiastes many times over, both aurally and internally. I've heard the famous reading 'There is a time for everything' (Ecc. 3) at a number of funerals whether at our church or one of our neighboring churches where I have helped as a substitute organist as time permitted.

It begins with 'a time for giving birth, a time for dying.' Here at the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus we had a number of baptisms during the past few weeks. It's always wonderful to see the joy associated with those occasions. Likewise we've had our share of funerals. In my own life I experienced the loss of my dearest companion, Hercules, after a brief illness. He celebrated Christmas with Jesus and Mary and, no doubt, all the animals who ate from His manger /bed in the stable in Bethlehem. Perhaps Herc even got to see his grandma and had her cook some of his favorite meals once again. Perhaps. However we try to imagine heaven, I have the feeling that God will make it even better than our hearts have the ability to hope for. But, for now, we try to imagine it as great as possible, including our meeting with those we loved here on earth and who loved us so well....including our pets who were our friends, companions, guardians and, at times, consciences.

Over the month many of us experienced other passages as well. "A time for building and a time for tearing down" suits our wonderful team of parishioners who showed up to contribute their talents at decorating our church so wondrously as well as those who will help us retire all the decorations for yet another year. I cannot say 'THANK YOU' enough to all of you who helped with this task! I was quite distracted with my Hercules, so only hoped that everything here regarding decorations would work out well....It certainly did!!!

There's no mention of 'a time for rehearsing and a time for singing,' but we would certainly include that phrase in our particular version. We had a number of rehearsals, including one by candlelight the night the church had no power. Our dedicated choir members stood in the Shrine area of the church and practiced with all their hearts, serenading Jesus and Mary, Stanislaus and John Paul!

There was likewise plenty of 'time for praying and time for rejoicing' as we continued our custom to pray for the beatification of John Paul the Great only to finally hear of his elevation as 'Venerable,' the step preceding official beatification. I know all of our prayers, monthly Masses and personal requests for his intercessions contributed immensely. May he bless us as he becomes numbered among the Saints in the near future.

We experienced 'a time for tears and laughter, a time for embracing and refraining from embracing, a time for mourning and a time for dancing.' The world experienced 'a time for war and a time for peace' as witnessed in the news from around our little globe. We survived it all, never letting evil gain the upper hand, this, all because of God's mercy.

Divine Mercy, descending to earth in the person of the Incarnate Word! Jesus, I trust in You!

Divine Mercy, giving to us the Most Blessed Virgin Mary as Mother of Mercy! Jesus, I trust in You!

Divine Mercy, embracing all the works of His hands! Jesus, I trust in You!

New Year—New Start

Thanks be to God—we have been privileged to enter into a new year. We all remember very vividly many of the events that took place in the past year: some were pleasant and others were not. Nonetheless, here we are at the beginning of 2010.

I remember reading not long ago about a woman who had to move from one house to another. She was earning a satisfactory amount of money to be able to hire a professional mover to pack and transport her household possessions. When the mover asked the woman what she wanted packed, she just waved her arm and replied, “Every-thing!!”

When she arrived at her new home, she stopped, looked and suddenly realized that he had taken her response literally. Along with her furniture and other household items, the mover had packed up all her trash bins. There she was in her beautiful new home staring at all her old garbage—including newspapers, pop bottles, soup cans and orange peels. This little incident doesn’t really sound that earthshaking and relevant to us—or does it?

Could this type of situation possibly refer to each of us, or at least, to me? You know—how we have just moved from the old year to the new year? Like the woman in the story, when we made the move, did we bring into the new year many things that are suitable for disposal and for the landfill? We entered the new year with lots of hope and many dreams, but have we abandoned and left behind all that trash in the old year and start clean in the new?

I mean, what unsightly habits and attitudes have I brought with me into the new year ... like: my unwillingness to forgive others; my selfishness and greed; my indifference to the needs of the poor, hungry and homeless; my resentment of my immigrant brothers and sisters; my laziness in doing my best at school; my bullying of others; my wasting of time and flirting with the near occasion of sin by spending hours viewing pornographic materials on-line and/or television; my cheating on my employer and company policy; my disrupting family unity and peace; my neglecting of spousal responsibilities; and finally, my lack of attention to the invitation of Christ to hear his Word in the Gospels and receive His Body and Blood at weekend liturgy. Let the New Year be as a new home—clean and pure—filled with promises and dreams—that can only be fulfilled by responding to the invitation of Christ to be the “Light of the World” and “The Salt of the Earth”.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany—the arrival of the Three Wise Men (Three Kings) who traveled from the East to pay homage to the Newly Born King—the Christ Child. When I think of all the time, distance and risks involved in this venture, I feel quite ashamed and guilty that I have done so little in my life time—for God, for Church and others. This is a new year, a new venture—not so much making new resolutions as strengthening our commitment to living the Gospel message of Jesus. It’s time to come to the stable, pick up the Child Jesus into our arms and grow with him in the sight of God. Maybe, when we look into the stable scene, perhaps we will see the shadow of the Cross! Good! Because the Cross is not too far from the Crib!

Nasza Matka

Dwa dni temu zaczęliśmy Nowy Rok 2010. 1 stycznia, pierwszy dzień Nowego Roku to równocześnie ostatni dzień oktawy Bożego Narodzenia. Kościół poświęca ten dzień czci Najświętszej Marii Panny. To przez Nią Syn Boży przyszedł na świat; to z Niej wziął On swoje ludzkie Ciało. Dlatego możemy powiedzieć, że Bóg Ojciec daje nam swojego Syna, a jednocześnie również jest prawdą, że Maryja daje nam swojego Syna. To właśnie dzisiaj, czyli ósmego dnia po Jego narodzeniu, Maryja z Józefem dali Mu imię Jezus.

Przy końcu swego życia Jezus Chrystus umierając na krzyżu dał umiłowanemu uczniowi swoją Matkę za Matkę. Ponieważ w tym fragmencie Ewangelii (J 19, 26-27) nie ma podanego imienia „umiłowanego ucznia”, możemy sądzić, że to odnosi się nie tylko do tego konkretnego ucznia, który stał razem z Maryją pod krzyżem Jezusa, ale do każdego ucznia Jezusa, czyli do każdego, kto czci Jezusa i Jego Matkę. Taki jest umiłowany uczniem. W Ewangelii nie ma przypadków. Nie jest więc przypadkiem, że zaraz po tych słowach: I odtąd uczeń wziął Ją do siebie, w następnym wierszu Ewangelista odnotował, że Jezus był świadom, że wszystko się dokonało.

Ewangelia św. Jana nawiązuje do Księgi Rodzaju. Pierwsze zdanie Ewangelii zaczyna się: Na początku było Słowo, a Słowo było u Boga. Są to te same słowa, którymi zaczyna się Pismo św. Starego Testamentu: Na początku Bóg stworzył niebo i ziemię. Ale to nie koniec podobieństw. Księga Rodzaju opowiada o stwarzaniu przez Boga. Opis stworzenia kończy się ulepieniem z gliny człowieka i danie mu jako odpowiedniej pomocy kobiety. Podobnie Jezus jest świadom, że dzieło Odkupienia na krzyżu dokonało się, że dał umiłowanemu uczniowi, czyli tym, którzy przyjmują Jego samego - inną Kobiętę - swoją Matkę, Maryję za Matkę. Od tego dnia Maryja jest Matką całego Kościoła. Kościół bowiem od początku rozumiał, że słowa Pana wypowiedziane z krzyża do „umiłowanego ucznia” odnoszą się do każdego ucznia Pana.

Pan Jezus w umiowanym uczniu widział każdego z nas, wierzących w Jego. Jan, bo według tradycji, to autor czwartej Ewangelii jest tym umiowanym uczniem, wziął Maryję do swojego domu i do swojego życia, czyli do tego, co było „jego” i dla niego najdroższe. Duchowi autorzy widzieli w słowach Ewangelii zaproszenie skierowane do każdego z chrześcijan, aby przyjął do swojego życia Maryję jako swoją Matkę. Ona chce, abyśmy uciekali się do Niej w naszych potrzebach i pełni ufności powierzali Jej nasze troski. Ona chce, aby wzywali Ją jako Matkę.

Jest to zachęta dla nas, aby zwracać się do Niej na początku tego nowego czasu danego nam przez Boga, i poświęcić Jej ten Nowy rozpoczynający się dzisiaj Rok 2010. Taki przykład dał nam Jan Paweł Wielki, a słuszność tej drogi zdaje się potwierdzać Kościół uznając heroiczną jego cnót, co otwiera drogę do szybkiej beatyfikacji. Nie wiemy, co nam ten Nowy Rok przyniesie, ale jeśli powierzymy go naszej Matce, możemy być pewni Jej macierzyńskiej opieki.

Shrine Church of ST. STANISLAUS

New Parishioner Registration

Do you attend St. Stanislaus but are not yet registered in your own name? Are you looking for a parish to call your own? If you are an adult Catholic (18 or older) and are not registered at any parish, or if you are registered at another parish but regularly attend here as well, please consider formally registering as a parishioner of the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus. Registration forms (Polish/English) are always available at the parish office, from Manna volunteers, and online at www.ststanislaus.org. Simply fill one out and return it to the parish office!

Easier still, members of the Parish pastoral Council will have registration forms available at all Masses the weekend of January 9-10, and will try to answer any and all questions you might have. Just fill one out and we will take care of the rest!

Zapisy do parafii

Może uczestniczysz w niedzielnych Mszach św., a nie jesteś jeszcze zarejestrowanym członkiem parafii? Może szukasz parafii, o której chcesz mówić, że jest twoja? Jeśli jesteś dorosłym katolikiem (18 lat lub starszym) i jeszcze nie jesteś zarejestrowany w żadnej parafii, lub może należysz do innej parafii, ale regularnie uczestniczysz w nabożeństwach w naszym kościele, prosimy o rozważanie możliwości formalnego zapisania się jako członek parafii św. Stanisława. Formularze rejestracji można otrzymać w biurze parafialnym, przy wyjściu z kościoła u tych, którzy sprzedają karty 'Manna', i także można ściągnąć je z internetu www.ststanislaus.org, wypełnić i złożyć w biurze parafialnym.

Jeszcze łatwiej będzie można to uczynić w sobotę wieczorem i niedzielę 9-10 stycznia przed lub po wszystkich Mszach św. Wtedy członkowie Rady Parafialnej będą do dyspozycji, aby pomóc i odpowiedzieć na ewentualne pytania.

THANK YOU!!!

The friars would like to thank everyone for their generosity over the Christmas season! May God bless everyone a hundred-fold for all the gifts they shared with us!

BÓG ZAPIAĆ!!!

Bracia franciszkanie pragną podziękować wszystkim i każdemu za wszelką życzliwość, a zwłaszcza za hojność wyrażoną dla nas w czasie Bożego Narodzenia. Niech Pan Bóg błogosławi i stokrotnie wynagrodzi Was za wszelkie prezenty dla nas!

"THANK YOU" FROM HEAD START

Dear Saint Stanislaus Parish,

The children of our Head Start program wish to thank all of the kind hearted people who have donated toys and other items to us. We were so excited to see all the beautiful wrappings and bows on them.

Your kindness will always be appreciated. Our parents are pleased. May God bless you on this special holiday.

Sincerely,
St. Stanislaus Head Start Staff and Children

Eucharistic Minister Schedules

Attention! Attention! All extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist! Please pick up your new schedules for 2010 in the sacristy after Masses this weekend! The re-commissioning of ministers will take place throughout the month of January. Those ministers who have yet to attend the workshop regarding changes will do so with Fr. Placyd during the month of January as well.

Plany dla szafarzy Eucharystii

Uwaga! Uwaga! Wszyscy nadzwyczajni szafarze Eucharystii! Nowe plany dla szafarzy Eucharystii na rok 2010 są gotowe i można je odebrać w zakrystii po, lub przed Mszami w najbliższą sobotę i niedzielę! Są pewne zmiany w tej posłudze i ks. Biskup wymaga, aby każdy nadzwyczajny szafarz Eucharystii przeszedł szkolenie w tym zakresie. Ci szafarze Eucharystii, którzy nie uczestniczyli w szkoleniu organizowanym przez diecezję w ostatnich miesiącach, mogą uzupełnić to wymagane przez diecezję szkolenie w miesiącu styczniu. Będzie ono prowadzone przez o. Placyda. Czas zostanie podany później.

YARDS OF YARN GOOD YARN URGENTLY NEEDED

The St. Vincent DePaul Society Warmup America Group needs orlon or acrylic yarn for making afghans for the needy. If you can help, please take yarn to the rectory, labeled "Warmup America." To join the group for any questions, call Donna at 216-398-9653.

If you wonder what happens with all of this year, and whether your yarn donation makes any difference, consider that in 2009 this local Warmup America group made 349 afghans (full size and lap), 46 baby afghans, 42 booties, 127 scarves, 2 hats, and 2 shawls — all donated to the poor in our community.

20 + K + M + B + 10

The Feast of the Epiphany means it's time to erase the old chalk marks over our entry ways and write them anew while blessing our homes for the new year! As always, parishioner Chris Luboski, has provided us the chance to take home the little packets containing the chalk, incense and holy cards for this holy tradition. Please visit the manger, say a prayer, take home the little envelopes and bless your home for the new year!

20 + K + M + B + 10

Święto Trzech Króli przypomina nam, że zliża się czas, aby ztrzeć stary napis nad drzwiami i napisać nowy w czasie błogosławieństwa naszych domów na czas Nowego Roku! Jak co roku, nasz parafianin, Chris Lubowski zatroszczył się o koperty z kredą, kadzidło i kartkami z modlitwą. Zapraszamy do odwiedzin i modlitwy przy szopce, oraz do zabrania do domu koperty z poświęconą kredą i kadzidłem, aby pobłogosławić swój dom.

BUS TRIP TO THE ORDINATION IN WISCONSIN

Next January 23, Br. David Kelly OFM and Br. Jason Welle, OFM will be ordained to the priesthood in Wind Lake, Wisconsin, near Milwaukee. We are grateful to God for calling these fine men to serve the People of God in the Church — and to them, for saying “yes” to God. Several parishioners indicated a desire to share this day with them and with the Franciscans, so we will arrange a bus trip for that weekend if enough people indicate an interest. We will leave early Friday morning, January 22, and return Sunday evening January 24. Friday we will tour two beautiful churches in Milwaukee and have dinner together. (Yes, there is a casino in Milwaukee!) Saturday will be the ordination Mass and reception, after which we will leave for an overnight in northwest Indiana. (You guessed it, another casino!) Sunday Mass will be in a stunning and massive new church in St. John, Indiana, which is very close to the Franciscan Novitiate in Cedar Lake. Information about the cost is still be worked out, but if you are interested, please call the rectory no later than this week at 216-341-9091.

Mass for the Beatification of Venerable John Paul the Great

Please remember to mark your calendars for January 21, 2010 @ 7 PM when we will have our next Mass for the Beatification of now Venerable John Paul the Great. As you may have heard, the Vatican elevated our Holy Father John Paul to the level of ‘Venerable,’ the necessary step in proceeding forward to official beatification! See, our prayers are being answered!! All the petitions you have placed at his relic are placed before the altar during that Mass as his intercession on our behalf continues. He loves us!

Prosimy zaznaczyć sobie w kalendarzu datę 21 stycznia 2010 roku o godz. 7:00 wieczorem, kiedy to przypada nasza następna Msza św. w intencji o beatyfikację Sługi Bożego Jana Pawła Wielkiego. Jak podała prasa, Watykan ogłosił heroiczną cnotę Ojca św. Jana Pawła II. Jest to kolejny, konieczny krok na drodze do wyniesienia go na ołtarze jako Błogosławionego. Jest to znak, że nasze modlitwy są wysłuchane zachęta, aby nie ustawać w modlitwie.
