Do you love me? Feed my sheep!

Today, the feast of Corpus Christi, we carry Jesus through the streets of this city. The body which was given for us in sacrifice and love now remains in our midst through the Holy Eucharist, the gift given to us freely on the night before Jesus died, the gift left on the Cross the day he died, the gift which conquered death at His resurrection. The gift was left here on earth to feed us, his flock, to nourish us and bring us closer and closer to Him and to all His other sheep. Today we will visit four altars and meditate on how the nourishment of Christ's Body and Blood is shared, honored and glorified.

Altar one will take us to the steps of the St. Stanislaus Elementary School. The children of the school are a prime source of evangelization for all of us as we are ordered by Jesus to take care of each one of them, regardless of color, creed or economic status. Those children who are baptized into our Church do get to receive Jesus in the Eucharist, but, because of the Eucharist, we feed all the others as well because of Christ's presence in our hearts when we receive Him in the sacred host. We feed them with the Word of God. We feed them with our love and example. There is no option—if we are true sons and daughters of God, feeding all His flock becomes a natural activity, His love unable to be contained within us, the sharing of that gift a necessity.

Altar two will take us to the other end of life, those years when we await our return to the ultimate banquet of the Lamb. The crosses born along all the earlier years were taken up and shared by our friend and Savior with nary a question or doubt. The Eucharist not only helped us carry those crosses, it shared in all the suffering and helped pick us up as we fell along the road home. All our crosses litter the streets on which we walk today, and Jesus feeds us as we walk, wipes our brows, shares our burdens and lifts us up.

Altar three shows us the Eucharist at work through those who lead us in our parish life. Those chosen by the assembly to lead do so because of their commitment to sharing in the feeding of the sheep. They help direct our hoofs along the road to the pasture in the sanctuary where the Bread of Life awaits each repentant sinner. They are like the dogs who help the shepherd direct the sheep in one direction or another, the safety of the flock utmost on their minds.

In this, the 'year of the priest,' altar four highlights these men to whom Christ has entrusted His flock in an unique way. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, their anointed hands transform the bread and wine we offer into the Body and Blood of Jesus. Because God has chosen these people to serve Him in this sacred manner we are able to be fed the same Body and Blood which walked the streets of Jerusalem and died on Calvary some two thousand years ago. The gift of the Eucharist comes to us from Jesus through the words uttered by these men and through the power poured into them by the Holy Spirit at their ordination.

Do you love Jesus? If the answer is 'yes,' then you must feed both yourself and His sheep. It's all part of the gift. Without that sharing of God's love the Eucharist would mean something less than intended by its essence. Whether to children or the sick and the elderly, whether at the request of the parishioners or the answer from a call to a vocation as a priest, the command is the same: Feed my sheep! The food is the Holy Eucharist. Now, we are the living tabernacles which carry it throughout the world and share the gift with all others...person by person, house to house, street to street, neighborhood to neighborhood...until we complete building the city of God.

Czy mnie milujesz?*Paś baranki moje!

Dzisiaj, w dniu, w którym celebруем święto Bożego Ciała, wynosimy Pana Jezusa z Kościoła na ulice naszego miasta. Ciało, które było wydane za nas w ofierze i zmartwychwstałe w wielkanocny poranek, teraz pozostaje z nami w Eucharystii. Ten Dar został nam dany, aby nas karmić, Jego owieczki, i przez to zbliżyć do siebie i do innych owieczek z Jego trzody. Dzisiaj odwiedzamy cztery ołtarze. Będziemy tam medytować, w jaki sposób Ciało i Krew Chrystusa jest rozdawane i jakiej doznaje czci.

Pierwszy ołtarz będzie usytuowany przed schodami Szkoły Podstawowej św. Stanisława. Dzieci w szkole są pierwszym obiektem naszej ewangelizacji niezależnie od ich koloru skóry, rasy czy stanu majątkowego. Karmimy ich Eucharystią, Słowem Bożym, dobrym przykładem, uśmiechem, życzliwością. Nie ma innej możliwości, jeśli poważnie traktujemy naszą przynależność do Chrystusa i do Kościoła. Musimy to czynić.

Drugi ołtarz przeniesie nas do innego etapu w naszym życiu; tu będziemy medytować jesień naszego życia - starość. To czas, kiedy krzyż codzienności staje się cięższy, a perspektywa wiecznej uczyt Baranka bliższa. Eucharystia nie tylko sprawia, że dźwigane krzyże stają się lżejsze, a czasem po prostu możliwe do udźwignięcia, ale Ona jest pokarmem na naszej drodze do wieczności. Pan Jezus pochyła się nad nami, ociera pot z czoła, dodaje otuchy.

Trzeci ołtarz ukazuje nam Eucharystię w działaniu przez tych, którzy podejmują decyzje w naszej parafii. Ci, wybrani przez parafialną wspólnotę, aby prowadzić innych, a wszystko to dzięki ich zaangażowaniu dla dobra innych owieczek z Owczarni Pana. Pomagają oni kierować tą częstką Owczarni Pana, którą jest nasza parafia, i prowadzić ich do Chleba Życia, które czeka na każdego pokutującego grzesznika. Można porównać ich do „psów”, które pomagają pasterzowi w utrzymaniu jedności stada, prowadzą ich w jednym kierunku, troszczą się o bezpieczeństwo owieczek.

Ołtarz czwarty poświęcony jest kapłanom - mężom, którym Chrystus powierzył swoją Owczarnię w sposób wyjątkowy. Zostali oni namaszczeni mocą Ducha Świętego. W ich namaszczonych rękach chleb staje się Ciałem Pana na ołtarzu, wino staje Jego Krwią. To sam Pan Bóg wybrał sobie ich, aby służyli Jego Ludowi karmiąc go Ciałem i Krwią Chrystusa. Jest to to samo Ciało, które dwa tysiące lat temu chodziło po ulicach Jerozolimy. Dar Eucharystii przychodzi do nas od Jezusa przez słowa wypowiedane przez kapłanów w mocy Ducha Świętego danego im w ich święceniach.

Czy kochasz Jezusa? Jeśli odpowiedź brzmi „Tak”, to wtedy także Ty MUSISZ karmić owieczki z Owczarni Pana. Wszystko jest częścią tego jednego Daru. Bez dzielenia się miłością Bożą, Eucharystia nie byłaby tym, czym jest Ona w zamyśle Bożym. Niezależnie od tego, czy adresatami są dzieci czy chorzy i starzy, „szeregowi” parafianie, członkowie Rady Parafialnej czy też kapłani, polecenie jest to samo i obowiązuje wszystkich: Karm moje owieczki! I obowiązuje ono, aż zostaje dokończona budowa Bożego miasta.

"Year for Priests" Thought for the Month (June)

Pope Benedict XVI has proclaimed June 19, 2009 to June 19, 2010 as the "Year for Priests." With this in mind, the Pastoral Council offers a final "Thought for the Month" (based on the pamphlet "Five Ways to Support My Parish Priest," published by Our Sunday Visitor and also accessible online).

All of us need encouragement from time to time. Consider some ways of recognizing and affirming all our priests do in service to us and the parish. (The upcoming parish picnic is a perfect opportunity!) Tell them when you like something they did or the way they handled a particular situation. Compliment them on thought-provoking homilies. Write a supportive note or email, or leave a positive message on voice mail. Remember birthdays and anniversaries of ordination. Ask if there are things you can do to make their lives a bit easier. (Sometimes those "small" things are most greatly appreciated.)

Finally, as this Year for Priests draws to a close, remember that Jesus makes himself present to us in a special way through his priests, so that whatever you do for them, you also do for the Lord. We hope these thoughts during the last few months have been helpful and have given you some ideas for making every year a "Year for Priests."

If you cannot bring any items to the vestibule to contribute please know that all monetary donations go toward the purchasing of the items needed by the children.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. Streamer Day for the eighth graders in our elementary school was a much more festive occasion in the late 1950's and 1960's than it is now. Streamer Day occurred about one month prior to graduation. At that time the entire school attended daily Mass. The eighth graders, who usually sat at the rear of the church marched into the church and sat in the front. The entire school population was present. The eighth graders usually spent the rest of the day partying and getting their streamers signed by classmates and teachers. Graduation was usually in the first week of June at a Sunday Mass. The celebrant of the Mass, probably the pastor, distributed the diplomas to the graduates.

Four Eagle Followup
The money has been counted, the expenses have been added, and the bills have been paid. The 2010 Four Eagle Banquet of Honor and Silent Auction has shown a profit of $12,500. A huge 'thank you' goes out to all the parishioners and friends of our parish who have touched this event in any way, thus making it a success. Save the date for next year: May 6, 2011. It's only 334 days away!

Coming Soon – Annual Parish Picnic
Save the date! The annual parish picnic will be held in the rectory garden on Sunday, June 13, from 11:00 AM until 2:00 PM. The friars are generously providing hot dogs, hamburgers, Polish sausage, and beverages. Parishioners who attend are asked to bring a salad, side dish or dessert to share. There will be coloring and games for the kids, plenty of food, and lots of time for fellowship.
This year's picnic falls very close to the conclusion of the "Year for Priests" (June 19). You are invited to write an appreciative note to any or all of the priests as a way of affirming everything they do in service to our parish. The notes will be collected at the picnic. Hope to see you there!

SENIOR CORNER

The Golden Agers Meeting will be on Thursday, June 10, 2010 at 11:00AM (note time change). We will be serving pizza and ice-cream for lunch. Come join us for great fellowship!

In July the Golden Agers Club will be celebrating their 44th year in existence. We will be making plans to celebrate this special day.

DRUGA SKŁADKA

Dzisiaj będzie druga składka przeznaczona dla wsparcia rodzin dotkniętych klęską powodzi w Polsce.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

This weekend we will have a special second collection at all the weekend Masses to help those people in Poland who have been the victims of the severe flooding of recent days. Many homes, farms and villages along the Wisła have been affected including such major cities as Waszawa and Kraków. Please help!

PIPEDREAMS

On Saturday evening, June 12th, you will have the opportunity to hear Polish organist, Bogna McGarrigle, give a wonderful recital on our 100 year old pipe organ. The concert, sponsored by the Kościuszko Foundation, is being given to help fund the foundations scholarship programs as well as other cultural endeavors, thus the charge for admission ($15, adults, $10 members, $5 students).

The program will include works by Johann Sebastian Bach, Max Reger, Charles Marie Widor, Franz Liszt and Marian Sawa, spanning 3 centuries of great organ literature.

Our Schulke pipe organ was installed one hundred years ago after the tragic damage caused by the Palm Sunday tornado of 1909. It has undergone a number of rehabilitations including by members of the Dad's Club back in the 1980's. It is currently under the ongoing and urgently needed care of James Leek of Oberlin, a noted organ-builder and technician whose family began their trade in the Netherlands generations ago.

Please come and enjoy an evening of music in our great church and help a great cause!

Slavic Village Needs Your Help!

Slavic Village Development has applied for a $250,000 grant to create a new park and playground. The funds come out of the Pepsi Refresh Project, a new initiative to support ideas that will have a positive impact on the world. The grant request is a little different than most: grant awards are based solely on votes.

That's where you come in!

We need YOU to vote every day in the month of June at RefreshEverything.com. The project is titled "Build a Community Park and Playground in Cleveland Ohio" and is in the $250K category. The new park will transform an empty lot into a greenspace and playground for the children and residents of the community.

Visit www.SlavicVillage.org/Pepsi for a direct link to vote and to sign-up for weekly reminders.
