LET THE PEACE OF CHRIST CONTROL YOUR HEARTS

INDEPENDENCE

It seems that before one can be ‘independent’ one has to first be ‘dependant.’ From the time we are born until the time we die the degrees of both vary greatly. As a child we are totally dependant on others for our welfare. At some point we being to be less so. This process then continues throughout life until we begin to lose our independence because of either age or health, sanity or wealth.

This weekend we celebrate the independence of our country, the United States of America. So often we see paintings of the founding fathers sitting around signing the document known as the ‘Declaration of Independence.’ Sure, that did happen, but that was simply a necessary formality preceding an awful lot of bloodshed. To be certain, some of the blood which was spilt was the result of those who may have had little choice other than to fight. But, as in all wars, the strength of the armed forces was led by mainly courageous people who dedicated themselves to fighting for a cause, in this case, the cause of the colonies freedom from British rule. I should be more familiar with the statistics, but it seems that although we were not persecuted as others had been under the rule of tyrants, our people simply felt they were eager to be independent of what had become a situation of being ‘milked’ by an outside force which did not seem to provide reciprocation in an equitable way satisfactory to the residents of the colonies. And so, our forefathers demanded, fought for and received their independent status as a nation.

When we look around the world we can see, even today, the great price nations must pay for the same status. Look in the Middle East where we see the Palestinians fighting for the recognition of their rights to lands taken from them by other sovereign nations and given to another people in the last century—one point of view. There are many who hold a totally different opinion on this matter seeing the Israelis as the true historical owners of that land. Look at the transitions within the former Soviet Union where suddenly numerous countries were ‘born’ out of the former larger republic still not avoiding bloodshed. Then we have the independence won by the many Central and Eastern European bloc countries at the end of the 20th century where we saw many struggles and more blood shed in order that those countries could be relieved of the cloak of Soviet domination and the subsequent dissolving of the artificial iron curtain which suffocated them since the end of the second world war.

National independence most frequently has involved great sacrifice by the people who won it. Sometimes I wonder if we could ever do it again, looking around and seeing the type of citizens which currently inhabit our cities. How many of them would be willing to fight to keep us free or to stop transgressors from depriving us of any of our freedoms. We do know that within our parish family there are many who have fought precisely to protect those hard won freedoms for all of us over many wars. The names on the Sacred Heart altar are only a small sample of those heroes, but that shrine symbolizes the dedication and contributions of all who have served our country. Within this bulletin, as well as in recent publications, you have seen the names of those who are currently doing the same. During this weekend we pray for them and for their safety. During this weekend we must remember the cost of our current freedom. During this weekend we should all thank God that we are citizens of the United States of America and that our country will remain great by realizing the responsibilities which accompany our freedom within our borders and beyond. God bless America!

Freedom—Precious Gift From God

This weekend we celebrate the birthday of our nation—and its God-given gift of freedom for all its citizens. Our nation is founded on faith in a loving and providing God and on the observance of Judeo-Christian moral principles.

In this reflection I rely on the themes presented by Fr. Harold Buetow, a priest in the Diocese of Brooklyn. He indicates many references made to God in various historical and legal documents.

In The Mayflower Compact in 1620 the pilgrims wrote these words in their first written constitution: "In the name of God. Amen." They mention the long and difficult voyage to the new world "undertaken for the glory of God."

The Liberty Bell, cast in 1751, has the words of Moses inscribed, "Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof" (Lev 25:10).

A year before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, on June 12, 1775, the Continental Congress officially called on all citizens to set aside a day "that we may, with united hearts and voices... offer up our supplications to the all-wise, omnipotent Dispenser of all events." What we might call a declaration of dependence - on God.

The words of the Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The American Seal, approved by Congress in 1782, is pictured on every dollar bill. It has the "Eye of God" directly above a pyramid, and the words Annuit Coeptis— meaning "God has favored our undertakings."

Every man who took the oath as President uttered emphatically the petition: "So help me God."

Shortly after his inauguration, George Washington proclaimed an annual day of thanksgiving to render thanks to Almighty God—hence, our national holiday we know as Thanks giving Day in November.

On July 13, 1787 after the First Amendment granting freedom of religion was passed, Congress passed the Northwest Ordinance that stipulated "religion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged."

George Washington issued an order on July 9, 1776 after the Congress approved, that a chaplain be assigned to each regiment, saying, "The blessings and protection of Heaven are at all times necessary, but especially so in times of public distress and danger."

In 1863 the United States Mint in Philadelphia began to inscribe the words "In God We Trust" on all coins.

To the Pledge of Allegiance were legally added the words "under God" on June 14, 1954.

This is overwhelming evidence of our religious heritage, yet, 3 in 100 U.S. citizens are "waging a campaign" denying the existence of a loving and caring God.

Let us acknowledge God—Supreme Being—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—now and forever.

Fr. Len

...Jezus wyznaczył jeszcze innych, siedemdziesięciu dwóch uczniów i wysłał ich po dwóch przed sobą do każdego miasta i miejscowości, dokąd sam przyjsz zamierzał...

Kto ma wpływ na osobę? Ten, kto ma jakiś wewnętrzny urok, kto ma pokój serca. Ten, kto szuka prawdy, dobra i piękna, szanuje godność. Taki powinien być chrześcijanin, chcący być posłanym. Usłyszymy w dzisiejszej w Ewangelii: „Proście Pana zniwa, żeby wyprawił robotników na swoje żniwo”.

Teksty dzisiejszych czytań, obfitujące w barwny język przenośni, są często dobrze znane dla słuchacza, ale niestety nie zawsze zrozumiałe. Wymagają pomocy w dotarciu do przesłania.

Pewnego dnia sygnalizacja świetlna, która znajduje się w Mediolanie na Placu Katedralnym, zachowywała się dziwnie. Wszystkie jej światła w pewnym momencie zabarwiły się na niebiesko i ludzie nie wiedzieli, jak się mają zachować. We wszystkich kierunkach rozsiewała niebieskie sygnały, o kolorze tak intensywnie błękitnym, jakiego niebo Mediolanu nigdy nie miało.

Czekając na wyjaśnienie sytuacji, prowadzący samochody pokrzykiwali i trąbili, a piesi denerwowali się i głośno rozmawiali. W końcu zjawił się policjant i stanął pośrodku, by kierować ruchem. Inny policjant odszukał skrzynkę rozdzielczą i wyłączył prąd, by naprawić sygnalizację świetlną. Niebieskie światło, zanim zgasiło zupełnie, zdążyło jeszcze pomyśleć: Dałem sygnał „wolna droga” do nieba. Dlaczego mnie nie rozumiano? (por. B. Ferrero, Historie).

Pan Jezus wyznaczył niezwykle trudne zadanie siedemdziesięciu dwóm uczniom. Porozysłał ich do miast i wiosek, jak „owce między wilki”. Groźny, szarobrzowy wilk, który zawsze ma spuszczoney ogon, ukośnie osadzone oczy i sterzące do góry uszy, jest bardzo ucieszony i zadowolony ze spotkania z łagodną owieczką. Możemy sobie wyobrazić, na jakie przeciwności byli narażeni uczniowie. Być może Chrystus dlatego wysłał ich po dwóch, by łatwiej im było uzdrawiać chorych, wypędzać złe duchy i głosić bliskość królestwa Bożego.

Będąc Jego uczniami, idąc przez życie czy nie powinniśmy pamiętać, że za nami kroczy Chrystus? Będąc ojcem, czy matką, nauczycielem czy zwyczajnym sąsiadem, nie powinniśmy przygotować gruntu pod Słowo Boże. To wielka, nieświadomiona odpowiedzialność. Mamy nieść pokój temu domowi, w którym przyszło nam żyć.

Jeżeli chcemy jak najlepiej spełnić powierzoną nam misję przybliżania innych do Chrystusa, musimy spełniać dobre uczynki, pomagać potrzebującym, modlić się za tych, którzy naszej modlitwy bardzo potrzebują. W swoich działaniach kierujemy się wiarą, nadzieją i miłością. Zaufajmy Mu. Chciejmy się z Nim spotykać w sakramencie pokuty i w Eucharystii. Przyjmujemy Go jak najczęściej w Komunii świętej. Wtedy ujrzemy niebieskie światło w naszej codzienności, odkryjemy nowy wymiar naszych działań i właściwie odczytamy sygnał „wolnej drogi” do nieba.

Uświadamiając sobie, że każdy z nas jest posłany przez Jezusa, jest z powołania misjonarzem pokoju. Zwłaszcza w rodzinie, wśród swoich, a także na wakacjach wśród obcych.

Prośmy o pokój serca, oczyszczajmy je u źródła miłosierdzia. Zachęca do tego Pan Jezus słowami siostry Faustyny:

Choćby dusza była jak trup rozkładająca się i choćby po ludzku już nie było wskrzeszenia i wszystko już stracone, nie tak jest po Bożemu. Cud miłosierdzia Bożego wskrzesza tę duszę w całej pełni (Dz 1448).

Sukces doczesny nie jest celem naszego życia. Jest nim natomiast udział w szczęściu wiecznym. Nie cieszymy się z sukcesów, lecz z tego, że imiona nasze są zapisane w niebie.

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

by Rob Jagelewski.

In the year 1873, the year in which our Parish Community was formed, there was great public discussion of public versus private education. Most public schools at that time were thought to be organized and managed in the interest of Protestantism. Bishop of Cleveland, Richard Gilmour told Catholic parents that they could not send their children to the public schools without endangering their faith. If Parish funds were insufficient for building a church and a school than it was more important for a Parish to have a Parochial school. Our Parish split the difference and built a wood structure that contained a church and a school in 1881. Every Parish by the Bishop's orders was to establish and maintain a school and all Catholic parents were in conscience bound to send their children to them under penalty of denial of the sacraments except in cases where there existed a very serious reason to the contrary. After the present church building was finished in 1891 the original church/ school building was cut into two parts and sold. A house and a lot was purchased for use as a school. The present elementary school building was completed in 1907.
