'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead'
'Jeśli Mojżesza i Proroków nie słuchają, to choćby kto z zmarłych powstał, nie uwierzą.'

The day has come to begin thinking about my return. Usually when someone talks about return he has in his mind the home or some other place where he can feel really good. But what if you have to leave the place with which you feel a part of? And you are afraid that this could be the last time you will see this place?

I think that many people were asking themselves about this, especially those who travel a lot or who went through a 'removal.' Well, I am one of those people. Someone who decides to enter the Order of Friars Minor (Franciscans) has to realize that he will not stay for long in one place. Every few years the friars have to change their houses, usually resulting from the needs of the different friaries, parishes, schools etc.... However each time when we have to move from one place to another we leave some part of ourselves, and in return we receive something new, the thing that disallows us to remain the same as before. One of the friars from Poland, during the time I was preparing myself to go to Italy for studies, told me: "Now you have to sacrifice many things, but later you will receive even more than this, you will see."

These and many similar thoughts were in my head during my reflections regarding the parish of Saint Stanislaus, especially in the last days before my departure to Poland, when I started to realize, that I have to leave this place. Watching the life in the parish, the various types of the ministry of the friars, the presence of the St. Stanislaus school with its long history and relationship with the life in the parish, the trip to Wisconsin with the group of Lil'Bros, general mobilization and help of parishioners for the upcoming Polish Festival and many other occasions have all shown me the beauty of this place. I can say, that after 2 months I feel at home here, surrounded by good people, who feel strongly connected about their church and their school and are taking care of them both. Parishioners who care about their future and in the same time who do not want to lose their identity.

Soon I have to go back to Poland to renew my simple vows, and after that I will return to Verona, to Italy to continue my studies of theology. I want to thank all the people that I met during my visit here in Cleveland, and I can assure you that I will not forget you all. Please, remember me in your prayers.
Pax et Bonum!

Nadszedł czas, aby myśleć o powrocie. Zazwyczaj kiedy mówi się o powrocie, ma się na myśli dom, własny ką, miejsce, z którym czujemy się związani. A co jeśli czujemy się związani również z miejscem, które musimy opuścić? I czujemy obawę, że nie będziemy mogli do tego miejsca powrócić?...

Myślę, że wiele osób, które podróżują bądź przeżyły przeprowadzkę w swoim życiu mogło postawić sobie to pytanie. I przyznaję, że ja jestem jedną z nich. Ktoś, kto decyduje się na wstąpienie do Zakonu Braci Mniejszych (franciszkanów) musi być świadomy, że nie będzie mu dane pozostać długo w jednym miejscu. Zmiana placówki wynika z potrzeb jakie pojawiają się w innych klasztorach naszego zakonu. Jakkolwiek za każdym razem, gdy zmieniamy locum zostawiamy w nim jakąś częśćkę nas samych, i w zamian otrzymujemy coś nowego, coś, co zmienia nas, i nie pozwala nam pozostać takimi samymi. Jeden z moich współbraci z Polski powiedział mi przed moim wyjazdem na studia do Włoch: „Będziesz musiał wiele opuścić, ale to, co potem zyskasz będzie wielkim bogactwem”.

Te oraz im podobne refleksje towarzyszyły mi podczas przemyśleń na temat parafii św. Stanisława w Cleveland a szczególnie od momentu, gdy dotarło do mnie, że muszę ją opuścić. Poprzez obserwacje życia w tutejszej parafii, posługi duszpasterskiej jakiej udzielają bracia ze wspólnoty, obecność szkoły im. świętego Stanisława oraz jej ścisły związek z życiem w parafii już od bardzo wielu lat, wyjazd wakacyjny z młodzieżą z parafii (grupą Małych Braci) do Wisconsin, ogólną mobilizację w ramach przygotowań do zbliżającego się Polskiego Festiwalu oraz przy wielu innych okazjach mogłem się przekonać o pięknie tego miejsca. Zaledwie po nieco ponad dwóch miesiącach czuję się jak u siebie, w otoczeniu dobrych ludzi, którzy dbają o swój kościół oraz o szkołę, którzy są mocno z nimi związani, i którzy starają się aby rozwijały się one nadal, otwierając się na przyszłość i jednocześnie nie tracąc swojej tożsamości.

Na zakończenie chciałbym podziękować z serca wszystkim ludziom, których spotkałem przy okazji mojego pobytu w parafii św. Stanisława w Cleveland. Zapewniam Was, że nie zapomnę o Was. I proszę, pamiętajcie też o mnie w Waszych modlitwach. Z franciszkańskim pozdrowieniem Pokój i Dobro!

From the principal...

When I am given the opportunity to discuss being principal at Saint Stanislaus School, I have developed some key phrases that I use to describe our Slavic Village world, our students, and our school community. As a matter of course, I find that people outside of our immediate circle don't understand why we do what we do. So in general I discuss the firm belief that God walks in the door before we do, the commitment to understanding students' learning needs, and a dedication to grow children in faith, service to the community and responsibility for themselves. And although these are real and valid statements, for those of us in the fabric of the Saint Stanislaus community, I express myself differently. Simply... I am a blessed woman. To be a part of celebrating the history of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth, to be a part of continuing their educational traditions, to see a fourth floor brought back to life, to feel the support of a parish, and experience the joy of a committed school staff... what other word can I use? Our school is blessed. Our church is blessed. Our community is blessed. I am blessed. Thank you.

300! When our school enrollment reached this dream goal, the teachers wrote short responses to: Why I am glad to be part of the Saint Stanislaus Community. Here is the response of Jennifer Krysiak, Third Grade teacher: "I am so thrilled to be a part of the St. Stanislaus community!! I have never worked with such caring, loyal staff members I am blessed and honored to come to work each day. Thank you for all your help and generosity!!"

Another letter of thanks from the Sisters...

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

I cannot begin to express my gratitude to you and your parishioners for ALL that we experienced during yesterday's celebration. I believe that our Mother Foundress and all of our sisters that have ministered with your people are still dancing and singing and praising God in heaven. And I join them right where I am.

Any sister I meet today that was there for the celebration continues to talk about it, cry about it, and offer accolades or gratitude and appreciation. Each component added to the majesty of the total celebration.

Your hospitality committee was extremely attentive to each person's need. Their creativity and pleasant smiles matched the good tasting delicacies. I never saw such variety and plenty all in one place.

The music continues to resonate in my soul; the other sights and sounds and smells serve to remind me of the gracious outpouring of praise to our God. Thank you for this memorable experience.

Our prayers continue to be there for you and your parishioners. The sisters who couldn't make it expressed their sadness and their desire to continue to be there for you. Please, pray for us that we continue to dream a world where families and communities live in unity, love, and hope. Peace!

With gratitude and appreciation,

Sr. Maria Kruszewski, CSFN

Provincial Councillor
