CHRISTIAN UNITY

This weekend we are in the midst of the annual period known as a week of prayer for Christian Unity. To many people this might seem like a simple task...just pray a little and everything will come together. Well, if it were that simple, believe me, by now it would have happened. Below I've included a PARTIAL list of the denominations which are considered to fall under the Christian umbrella. To include the entire list would require me using up all the space in this entire bulletin for at least two weeks. So, start praying...it's going to take a while.

Catholics: The Roman or Latin Rite is the largest of the group of Catholic churches with an additional 22 rites which share the same doctrine and sacraments.

Orthodox: Ecumenical, Greek Orthodox Church of Alexandria, Greek Orthodox Church of Antioch, Greek Orthodox Church of Jerusalem, Russian Orthodox Church, Serbian, Macedonian, Romanian, Bulgarian, Georgian, Cypriot, Albanian, Polish, Czech, Slovak. Then there are the Oriental Orthodox Churches: Coptic, Syriac, Armenian, Ethiopian etc...

Anglican: About 40 different national denominations.

Self-identified Catholic Churches: Apostolic, American, Bosnian, Brazilian, Liberal, Mariavite, Old, Palmarian etc...

Oriental: Antiochian, Celtic Orthodox, Sassanid, Malabar.

Assyrian: Ancient Church of the East

Protestant: Lutheran (more than 50 denominations), Reformed (more than 50 denominations), Congregationalist (more than 7 denominations), Anabaptists (more than 10 denominations), Brethren (more than 20 denominations), Methodists (more than 25 denominations), Pietist and Holiness Churches (more than 20), Baptists (more than 100), Pentecostals (more than 100).

Then there are numerous versions of the following: Neo-Charismatic, African Initiated, United, Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), Stone-Campbell Restoration, Millerites, Adventists, Sabbath-Keeping Non-Adventists, Sunday Adventists, Sacred Name groups, British-Israelism, Prairie Saint (Mormons et alia...) Rocky Mountain Denominations etc.....

Then there are those Christian groups who are non-Trinitarian (more than 15), Bible Student Groups, Swedenborgianists.

And we also have Jewish Christians (more than 10 denominations), Syncretistic Religions (incorporating parts of Christianity) (more than 7) and a few other esoteric groups.

What a mosaic...and what a challenge...the body of Christ divided up throughout just this one planet. Many share similar beliefs, many are as far away from each other as night and day...on paper and in practice, belief and actions. Even Jesus must get a migraine reading this list!

ANSWERED PRAYERS

It's been about a week now, and the media still brim with stories telling the great news about the approval for the beatification of Pope John Paul II. This Son of Poland, Gift to the World left a decisive mark on the Church for generations, past and to come. Just as important, he left a mark on the world, which is better for his having been among us as a servant of God, servant of the servants.

Ever since his pastoral visit to Cleveland in 1969, only a few years before being elevated to the papacy, he has been like an old friend of Saint Stanislaus Parish. Just think — the first church outside of Europe he ever said Mass in, it was right here in Saint Stanislaus. The relic of Saint Stanislaus, which he presented to our parish, was given in gratitude to Polonia throughout the United States for its solidarity with Poland through the war and afterward. A gift to the nation, entrusted to our care! Many parishioners still remember his visit to our community, and men my age even remember being altar servers at his Mass.

When Bishop Pilla elevated our status to a shrine, he was not able to be present for the dedication Mass because he was in Rome at the time. Bishops are required to make periodic reports to the pope regarding the status of their diocese, and Bishop Pilla was with Pope John Paul II during the weekend of our shrine celebration. When the bishop shared with the pope what was going on at Saint Stanislaus, His Holiness told Bishop Pilla he certainly remembered his visit long ago and was grateful that the parish was still strong and vibrant, unlike so many other urban Polish parishes throughout the country.

When David Krakowski and I visited Poland, we had a chance for a private audience with Stanisław Dziwisz, the new Archbishop of Kraków and old friend of John Paul II. In fact, Dziwisz was in Cleveland in 1969, along with the rest of the entourage. When we shared with him a copy of an old black-and-white photo of all the clergy assembled in the sanctuary, he said he definitely remembered their visit, and that he and John Paul recalled it from time to time.

In our Shrine Transept, we hold dearly to three reminders of the pastoral visit granted us by the future pope. The relic of Saint Stanislaus was refurbished eight years ago and given a place of honor to begin a year-long celebration of the 750th jubilee of Saint Stanislaus' canonization. The pope's mitre was given to us a gift from Cardinal Dziwisz six years ago, and this has become a popular focus for prayer and devotion, invoking the prayerful intercession of our beloved pope. An icon of John Paul II and Stanislaus, bishops of Kraków a thousand years apart, was written four years ago in a studio in Kraków, blessed by Cardinal Dziwisz, and installed in a new altar piece specially made to foster devotion.

It's as if Pope John Paul II were still here with us, praying with us and for us — the good pastor. Now the entire Church will officially recognize and celebrate the blessedness of this beloved Son of Poland, this Gift to the World. If you can't make it to Rome on May 1, the only other place to be is right here in Slavic Village! We are already preparing a festive and prayer-filled day, all in the wonderful style unique to us.

Fr. Michael

Ojciec Niebieski

Ponieważ kilka osób powiedziało mi, że nie mogli słyszeć kazania w ostatnią niedzielę, postanowiłem w tej refleksji opowiedzieć w skrócie o tym, co było jego.

Dzięki kazaniu Piotra Pawlukiewicza na drugą niedzielę zwykłą, którą on wygłosił trzy lata temu i które teraz można wysłuchać w Internecie: (<http://www.kazaniaksiedzapiotra.pl/2008/01/20/kazanie-z-20-stycznia-2008r/>), popatrzyłem na czytania z ostatniej niedzieli trochę inaczej. Mówią one pośrednio o naszym powołaniu do wielkości i o wielkości Bożego ojcostwa Pierwsze było wzięte z Księgi Proroka Izajasza. Czytamy tam: Tyś Sługą moim, Izraelu, w tobie się rozślawię. (...) To zbyt mało, iż jesteś Mi Sługą dla podźwignięcia pokoleń Jakuba i sprowadzenia ocalałych z Izraela! Ustanowię cię światłością dla pogan, aby moje zbawienie dotarło aż do krańców ziemi.

Chociaż te słowa skierowane są do Izraela, to jednak z kontekstu wynika, że chodzi nie o naród, ale o indywidualną postać, która zgromadzi rozproszonych z Izraela i będzie także światłem dla pogan. Te słowa spełniły się w Panu Jezusie, który jest „światłością pogan” (por. Łk 2, 32). Któryś z nas nie chciałby usłyszeć takich słów! Słowa Boga Ojca skierowane do Pana Jezusa w czasie chrztu w Jordanie (Ty jesteś Moim Synem umiłowanym. W Tobie mam upodobanie) odnoszą się pośrednio także do nas. Przez chrzest staliśmy się Bożymi dziećmi i jesteśmy kochani przez Boga w taki sam sposób, w jako On kocha swojego Jednorodzonego Syna. Przez chrzest stajemy się w Panu Jezusie Bożymi dziećmi. Podobnie i te słowa mówiące o wielkości Pana są skierowane do nas w sensie, że Pan Bóg chce naszej wielkości. Maryja śpiewa: Wielkie rzeczy uczynił mi Wszchemocny. Św. Stanisław Kostka zwykł powtarzać: Do wielkich rzeczy jestem stworzony.

W drugim czytaniu Apostoł Paweł przedstawia się: wymawia swoje imię i pisze o misji apostołstwa. „Paweł” pochodzi od łacińskiego słowa „paulus”, co oznacza „mały”. Jest to imię, którym nazwali go rodzice i inni ludzie. W Apokalipsie czytamy o tym, że każdy zbawiony otrzymuje imię nowe, którego nikt nie zna oprócz tego, kto je otrzymuje. Niezależnie od imienia, którym jesteśmy nazywani, mamy imię nowe w niebie, które otrzymamy, kiedy osiągniemy zbawienie.

W Ewangelii czytamy o Janie Chrzcicielu. Sam Pan Jezus mówi o nim, że: pomiędzy narodzonymi z niewiasty, nie powstał większy niż on. Chrzest Pana Jezusa był zakończeniem jego misji. Wkrótce po tym został uwięziony i skazany na śmierć męczeńską. Jednak zanim został uwięziony, wskazał na Pana: Oto Baranek Boży, który gładzi grzech świata. Co to znaczy, że Pan Jezus jest Barankiem Bożym? Baranek to zwierzę składane w ofierze. Pan Jezus jest „Barankiem Bożym” w sensie, że odda swoje życie w ofierze za zbawienie świata. Pan Bóg, Ojciec Pana Jezusa kocha swojego Syna. Ale kocha także nas. I to właśnie za nas oddał swojego Syna. Jeśli to byłoby możliwe, to trzeba byłoby powiedzieć, że Bóg Ojciec kocha nas bardziej niż swojego Jednorodzonego Syna.

Nawet jeśli nasz ziemski ojciec nie stanął na wysokości zadania, to musimy pamiętać, że mamy Ojca w niebie, który jest wszchemocny i kocha nas miłością nieskończoną.

o. Placyd

DON'T FORGET YOUR MANNA CARDS

Manna gift cards include such great stores as Dave's, Giant Eagle, Panera, BP, Kohl's, Heinen's, Bob Evans and many more!! Check out the vast array of gift cards available from one of our manna reps (one looks just like Frank Greczanik, but younger) in the vestibule after each Mass. In a future bulletin publication we will include a complete list of available Manna Cards—you will be surprised how many places participate in this helpful program.

PASTORAL VISITS

The friars of the parish are always ready and happy to visit parishioners while they are in the hospital, residing in a nursing home or rehab center, or confined to their homes. We already have a large list of people we visit on a regular basis. However, sometimes there are people who would like a visit, but nobody contacts the rectory to let us know. Please remember: Hospitals are not allowed to tell us who is there as a patient. If you have a family member or friend who would like to be visited by one of the friars, either in the hospital, nursing home, or their own home, please call the rectory.

WIZYTY DUSZPASTERSKIE W SZPITALACH

Bracia pracujący przy parafii zawsze są gotowi i chętnie odwiedzają parafian, gdy są w szpitalu lub przebywają w domu opieki lub ośrodku rehabilitacyjnym, czy też nie wychodzą z domów. Mamy już długą listę osób, które odwiedzamy regularnie. Czasami jednak są ludzie, którzy chcieliby odwiedzin, ale nikt nie przekazuje nam informacji o tym. Proszę pamiętać: Szpitale nie mogą powiadamiać nas, kto jest tam jako pacjent. Jeśli masz członka rodziny lub znajomego, którzy chcieliby być odwiedzani przez jednego z braci, czy to w szpitalu, w domu opieki lub domu własnym, proszę dzwonić na plebanie.

SAVE THE TREE? The massive September wind storm that damaged so much property in Slavic Village last Fall also severely damaged the large sycamore tree in the front yard of the rectory. The limbs shorn off by the wind left the tree badly out of balance and presenting a danger to the church and rectory buildings. Last week the tree was removed by the Sky Line Tree Service, a small firm owned by parishioner Dean Denham.

ALUMNI CHILI COOK-OFF. The St. Stanislaus Alumni Association will hold a Chili Cook-Off on January 29, 2011 to celebrate Catholic Schools Week. The festivities begin with the 5:00 PM Saturday Mass. The Chili Cook-Off will be held in the Social Center beginning after Mass. Alumni and or friends of St. Stanislaus Elementary and High Schools are invited to bring along their Chili to compete for being voted the Best of the Chili at this event. Alumni are also asked to bring along a dessert to share. Beverages will be provided. Call the rectory at 216-341-9091 or Rita at 330-659-3778 for more information.

300! When our school enrollment reached this dream goal, the teachers wrote short responses to: Why I am glad to be part of the Saint Stanislaus Community. Here is the response of Chuck Hinz, Kindergarten teacher: "(This is a place...)where I am able to share God's love daily, as well as my love of learning. In turn, my students share God's love and their learning at home and in the community."
