THE MOST RECENT POPE TO BE CANONIZED

On May 1, 2011, Ven. John Paul II will be beatified. But, who was the last pope to be canonized? The answer is Pius X. He was beatified in 1952 and then canonized in 1954 by the Church and Pope Pius XII. Of the 'modern day' popes, his remains are the only canonized one to be enshrined beneath an altar in the main basilica of St. Peter's, specifically in the chapel of the Presentation.

Like John Paul II, Pius X was one of those rare popes who actually had a background of having worked in a parish prior to being elevated to some greater position. He too was of a humble background, but from a family which saw the value of a good education. Thus, his parents sacrificed to send him and the rest of his brothers and sisters to good schools. Again, like John Paul II, he excelled in both theology and philosophy.

The similarities go even further as both pontiffs held Mary in extremely high esteem. If John Paul II used as his motto: Totus tuus, taken from the writing of St. Louis de Montfort, placing his deepest trust in Mary as the one through whom prayers are most readily delivered to Her Son, so, too did Pius X who in his encyclical Ad Diem Illum expresses his desire through Mary "to renew all things in Christ." Pius X believed, as did John Paul II, that this was the best avenue for achieving the goal of reaching Jesus.

Another similarity is that both men were patrons of the arts. We all know of John Paul's passion for theatre and his appreciation of all the arts. But Pius X had a special affection for music, specifically Church music, dedicating himself to the reform of that area of sacred art which had drifted a bit too far from the purity of the ideal of the plainchant so richly cultivated for centuries by the church. The result of his efforts and those of Dom Macquero of Solesmes produced a clean edition of both the Mass propers and well as music included within the breviary.

But what Pius X is most remembered for is his devotion to the Holy Eucharist. He was known to say "Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to heaven." He is also known for extending the reception of that sacrament to children who reached the age of reason (about 7 years of age) and encouraged Catholics to frequently receive that sacrament as well as the sacrament of reconciliation. As our own parish continues to spend time focusing on the mystery of the Holy Eucharist it could be curious to go back and compare the writings of Pius X and those of John Paul II, both having written extensively on that topic with barely one century separating their points of view.

Perhaps we will be granted the grace of seeing John Paul II canonized during our own lifetimes! After all, it took only a little over two years after the beatification of Pius X for that to happen. It will all depend on the additional miracle needed to allow this final step for official recognition. Perhaps that miracle will occur in your very own life, in your own relationship with God and with His creatures (including all those in our very own congregation who you might not like). That's why they are called miracles!

“As you know one cannot give to others what one doesn't first possess. In order to be able to give, you must first have something to give. Before we can give we have to be given. This is why we first have to open ourselves to God and His gift that He can fill us. Only then we will be able to give. The Eucharist is about giving. Giving yourself as a gift to others. The Eucharist is about serving others. This is what Jesus teaches us.”

Bishop Anthony Pilla

EVANGELIZED BY THE EUCHARIST

For the past few weeks we have been reading selections from a wonderful talk given by Bishop Pilla to the various ministers who assist in celebrating the Eucharist: Lectors, Choir members, Eucharistic Ministers, Sacristans, Servers, Ushers. Over the next several months we will be spending a lot of time, and writing, on the topic of the Eucharist. Why are we doing this? Isn't the Eucharist so familiar to us that we really don't need to keep learning more about it?

The first impetus comes from the work begun by our parish Evangelization Committee over a year ago. They gathered many of the people who lead in serving the parish and the community in all of our forms of outreach. After a wonderful presentation and some good conversation, they agreed that of all the things we do, we are most centered on our celebration of the liturgies here. In fact, many of the people involved in the activities of the parish felt they'd like a deeper sense of the spirituality of what they do. So, the committee agreed to focus on our experience of the liturgy, beginning with the liturgical ministers.

The next impetus for this focus on the Eucharist comes from the upcoming changes to some of the prayers and responses we use at Mass. As most people are aware, the bishops and the Vatican have been working for many years on updating the “Sacramentary,” or “Missal” as it will be called again. This updating had been anticipated already when the current one was issued in the early 1970s, and the project just completed had actually been called for Pope John Paul II. The new translations will be in effect at the beginning of Advent 2011.

Bishop Lennon has been engaging the priests in this preparation for a while already, and he has invited some fine speakers to work with us. One speaker made an interesting point, in response to some objection by a local priest. He said, in effect, that it will probably be good for us priests to get familiar with the Missal all over again. In relearning some prayers, we priests also have to re-encounter the meaning of the Eucharist itself. And, hopefully, to be challenged to deeper growth into its mysteries.

Before we get to the real preparation for those changes later in the year, the Pastoral Council felt the whole parish should spend some time on the basic meaning of the Eucharist in general. One of the goals for the year is stated: “Commit the parish to be evangelized by the liturgy in preparation for the new Sacramentary.” Imagine, letting the Eucharist challenge us, asking God to evangelize us through the very mysteries of salvation!

Ewangelizacja przez Eucharystię

Przez ostatnie kilka tygodni czytaliśmy fragmenty wspaniałego wykładu wygłoszonego przez biskupa Pilla do wszystkich zaangażowanych w sprawowaniu Eucharystii: lektorów, członkowie chóru, szafarzy Eucharystii, zakrystianów, ministrantów, porządkowych. W ciągu najbliższych kilku miesięcy przeznaczymy dużo czasu na pisanie na temat Eucharystii. Dlaczego to robimy? Czyż Eucharystia nie jest nam tak bliska i znana, że nie potrzebujemy wiedzieć więcej na jej temat?

Pierwszy impuls pochodzi z dzieła rozpoczętego przez Komitet Ewangelizacyjny naszej parafii ponad rok temu. Komitet Ewangelizacyjny tworzy wielu ludzi, którzy przewodniczą w posłudze w parafii i we wspólnocie lokalnej we wszystkich formach pomocy potrzebującym. Po wspaniałym wykładzie i rozmowach, które były jego echem, członkowie Komitetu zgodzili się, że centrum wszystkich rodzajów działalności jest celebracja Liturgii. Jak się okazało, wielu ludzi zaangażowanych w różne rodzaje działalności parafii odczuwa potrzebę pogłębienia duchowości tego, co robią. W ten sposób Komisja postanowiła skupić się na doświadczeniu Liturgii, począwszy od tych, którzy są w niej bezpośrednio zaangażowani.

Kolejny impuls do skoncentrowania się na Eucharystii pochodzi z faktu, że przygotowujemy się do odnowienia „sakramentarza”, czyli liturgicznej księgi używanej przez kapłana do odprawiania Mszy św. Jak wielu z nas wie o tym, biskupi i Watykan pracują od wielu lat nad aktualizacją „sakramentarza” lub „mszału”, jak będzie nazywał się ponownie. Niniejsza aktualizacja została przewidziana już przy wydaniu obecnego w roku 1970, a projekt właśnie zakończony został w rzeczywistości rozpoczęty przez papieża Jana Pawła II. Nowe tłumaczenie zostanie wprowadzone w życie na początku Adwentu 2011 roku.

Biskup Lennon włączył kapłanów w proces przygotowania. Zaprosił kilku prelegentów z wykładami na ten temat. Obecność na tych wykładach była obowiązkowa dla księży. Jeden z mówców przedstawiał interesujący punkt widzenia w odpowiedzi na zastrzeżenia jednego z miejscowych księży. Powiedział mianowicie, że prawdopodobnie będzie dobre dla nas, kapłanów, byśmy zaznajomili się z mszałem na nowo. W procesie ponownego przemyślenia modlitw my, kapłani musimy również odnowić nasze rozumienie Eucharystii. I miejmy nadzieję, że przez to zostaniemy pociągnięci do głębszego zrozumienia tej tajemnicy.

Zanim przejdziemy do właściwego przygotowania do tych zmian jeszcze w tym roku, Parafialna Rada Duszpasterska uznała, że cała parafia powinien spędzić trochę czasu na przemyślenie znaczenia Eucharystii w ogóle. Jednym z celów na ten rok brzmi: „Trzeba zaangażować parafię w proces ewangelizacji przez Liturgię w trakcie przygotowań do nowego mszału”. Tak, chodzi o to, aby pozwolić Eucharystii, aby była naszym wyzwaniem, prosząc Pana Boga, aby zmieniał nas przez celebracje sakramentów naszego zbawienia.

I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU

The 2011 Catholic Charities Appeal begins in earnest this weekend. The theme for the appeal this year comes from the prophet Isaiah: "I will never forget you." How can the words of the prophet be true, unless we help with the remembering?

The economy has affected just about everybody, and our parishioners are not exempt. But no matter how much cutting back you have had to do recently, the poor among us are hurt even worse. We know there are many organizations appealing for your help, but few are more worthy than Catholic Charities. They say, "Charity begins at home." Well, all the funds raised in this diocese stay in this diocese. Our parish and many of our own parishioners and neighbors have received direct help from programs run by Catholic Charities.

Please read the bulletin insert from this weekend, and pray over your response to the people in need in our own community. Next weekend we will spend time after the homily preparing our response cards. Every parish household will be asked to make a response, whether that response is "this is how much I can pledge to help the poor in our midst," or "I Can't right now," or even "I can, but I just don't want to." Even not making a response, is already a response, isn't it?

Nigdy nie zapomnę o Tobie!

Katolicka Akcja Charytatywna 2011 zaczyna się na dobre w ten weekend. Motto tegorocznego apelu pochodzi z proroka Izajasza: „Nigdy cię nie zapomnę”. Słowa proroka stają się prawdziwe w odniesieniu do innych, jeśli my będziemy o nich pamiętać.

Sytuacja gospodarcza ma wpływ prawie na wszystkich, a więc i nasi parafianie nie są wyjątkiem. Ale niezależnie od tego, jak bardzo musimy oszczędzać, obecna sytuacja ekonomiczna dotyka ubogich obecnych wśród nas jeszcze dotkliwiej. Wiemy, że wiele organizacji prosi o pomoc, ale mało która jest więcej warta niż Katolicka Organizacja Charytatywna. Mówią: „Miłość zaczyna się w domu”. To prawda, i dlatego fundusze zebrane w tej diecezji, są używane w granicach tej diecezji. Nasza parafia i wielu naszych parafian i sąsiadów otrzymało bezpośrednią pomoc z programów prowadzonych przez Katolicką Organizację Charytatywną.

Prosimy o zapoznanie się z ogłoszeniem zamieszczonym w dzisiejszym biuletynie. Prosimy o modlitewne rozważenie odpowiedzi na pomoc najuboższym w naszej społeczności. W najbliższy weekend przeznaczymy czas po homilii na danie naszych odpowiedzi. Każda rodzina w parafii będzie poproszona o wybór jednej z odpowiedzi: „Tyle a tyle możemy przeznaczyć na pomoc dla biednych obecnych wśród nas” lub „Obecnie nie możemy pomóc innym”.

TOWER WORK IN PROGRESS

Some people will do anything to save a cat stuck in the belltower! Actually, the scaffolding was put up to replace the stone pinnacle which had been blown off the tower during the massive wind/rain storm last September. If you recall, that pinnacle landed smack dab in the middle of our main entrance steps.

INFANTS / TODDLERS OF SLAVIC VILLAGE

Winner of the 'MARIO'S SPA TEASER' was Mary Therese Stephens! A well-deserved way to spend a day for all the kindness you show to the children of Slavic Village! ENJOY!

All it takes to enter the drawings is a donation of needed food items for God's hungry children. Each donation entitles you to place your name in the drawing box! PLEASE open your hearts to their needs. Next drawing will take place on March 6th—a chance to win a $25 gift card to TJ MAXX!

Feed a hungry child and treat yourself to a little addition to your Spring wardrobe! Fill our baskets....PLEASE!

PALMS FOR ASHES

It is that time of the year again to bring back your old palms for us to burn and use as ashes for Ash Wednesday. Please place them in the red basket in front of the 'grave' .

POPIOŁY

Obiecnie mamy czas poprzedzający Wieli Post. Zaczynamy ten czas Środą Popielcową. W tym dniu kapłan posypuje głowy popiołem. Prosimy o przynoszenie palmy poświęcone w ostatnią Niedzielę Palmową i złożenie ich do czerwonego koszyka przy 'grobie'.

A HAPPY ACOLYTE

Last week our very own Robert Ramser received the order of Acolyte at St. Mary's Seminary. Featured with Rob are his parents Robert and Victoria as well as a few other local celebrities. Congratulations, Rob! Thank you, Rob and Vicki!

CYO NITE AT THE RACES

Well, at least SOMEONE won at last Saturday's 'Nite at the races'!!! Can you guess who? Which one of these lovely women is the winner and which are the jockeys? All in all, everyone had a great time at the event. The house was packed, the food was good and we fed the horses. 'Lucky Lynn's Loans, Inc.' was a major sponsor of that activity.

Reflection On Stewardship...

"Just as the apostles were called by Jesus, we are called by name to bring the Good News to the world. As stewards, we welcome the opportunity to give our time to build the kingdom of God. We are called to be collaborators in the work of creation" ... How do we share the Good News, build the kingdom, contribute to the work of creation? The best place to start is in our personal and family life – thanking God and showing our gratitude by cherishing and nurturing our own and our family's gifts and spirituality.

"BUILDING FUND"

You might have noticed a slight change in your monthly envelopes. The green envelope that had been called "Restoration Fund" is now renamed "Building Fund." The church has been restored for almost 13 years now, and ongoing collection of funds has been used since then for various repair and improvements. The biggest priorities now: CHURCH FRONT STEPS AND WINDOW FRAMES.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. Now that Major League Baseball teams are heading into spring training, baseball is on the mind. The first "Polish Night" was held at a Cleveland Indians game at the old Cleveland Municipal Stadium on September 15, 1986. A small group of our parishioners wanted to salute Indians' pitcher, and Hall of Famer, Phil Niekro, who was of Polish descent. The Indians preferred to have a broader Polish Night and offered discount group tickets. This turned out to be one of the biggest group nights for the Indians. Niekro was saluted before the game. Pastor of St. Stanislaus Parish, Father Frank Kordek OFM threw out the first pitch. Our choir from the church sang the National Anthem. A polka band played between innings. The Indians defeated the Minnesota Twins, 5-4.

PEACE GARDEN MEMORIAL BRICKS

After Easter we will have another installation of memorial bricks in the parish peace garden. If you would like to include the names of your family or friends in this project please contact the rectory. Cost of each memorial brick is $100.

PAMIĄTKOWE CEGIELKI

Po Wielkanocy w naszym ogrodzie pomiędzy kościołem a klasztorem będziemy instalować pamiątkowe cegielki. Jeśli ktoś pragnie włączyć w ten projekt imiona swoich bliskich, proszę dzwonić do biura parafialnego.

FOUR EAGLE DATE

There are only 75 days until the Ninth Annual Four Eagle Banquet and Silent Auction. Save the date of Friday, May 6, 2011. The committee has not finalized the recipients this year, but this event promises to be filled with wonderful food, great silent auction items, and the camaraderie of parishioners and friends. You will want to make sure you are there. More information will be forthcoming.

TRANSFIGURATION SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Transfiguration Scholarship Fund was established in 1992 following the close of Transfiguration parish. Parishioners decided that proceeds from the sale of the transfiguration property would be used to establish an endowment for scholarship assistance for Catholic students to attend a Catholic elementary school or a Catholic high school within the Cleveland Diocese, or a Catholic college anywhere. Parishes eligible for this program are Immaculate Heart of Mary or St. Stanislaus. For guideline information and an application, please contact the rectory.

ENERGY ASSISTANCE

If you need some financial assistance in paying your energy bills, there is a program called "HEAP" that can help. Applications are now available at the rectory. This program is highly recommended for all qualifying individuals.

OGŁOSZENIE

Jeśli potrzebujesz pomocy finansowej w płaceniu rachunków za energię, jest możliwość skorzystania z programu o nazwie "HEAP", który się tym zajmuje. Wnioski są do pobrania na plebanii. Bardzo polecamy skorzystanie z tego programu wszystkim osobom, które kwalifikują się do tego.

300! When our school enrollment reached this dream goal, the teachers wrote short responses to: Why I am glad to be part of the Saint Stanislaus Community. Here is the response of , Chris Vassanelli, Athletic Director : "I am proud to work in a community that supports itself through faith and dedication. Every day is rewarding due to the unselfish devotion of those who are committed to the growing population and the unmistakable spiritual identity that is St. Stanislaus."
