St. Hyacinth

This weekend we dedicate the 'shrine' of our latest family member amongst the saints in the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus, St. Hyacinth. Now his image resides up with the rest of our champions of faith floating on the corbel just a few feet above us. The statue, originally on the high altar of St. Hyacinth Church in Jackowo now rests upon a newly carved pedestal based on the original wood carvings in our church from 1891. Many of you still remember these wonderful masterpieces prior to their being painted gray, then stripped or lost. Much of the woodwork at that point incurred considerable damage due to that stripping process, thus you will notice, here and there, the totally missing or heavily nicked carved pieces of wood. The inspiration for this pedestal came from the one which used to hold the 'pieta' aside the sanctuary. Thanks to some wedding photographs lent to me by Alice Klafczyński, we were able to get a good feeling for what the original carvings looked like, keeping in the spirit of the undiluted Victorian Gothic style which then permeated the church.

St. Hyacinth was born in 1185 in Silesian Poland, slightly more than 100 years after the martyrdom of St. Stanislaus. In 1220 he became one of the first friars to receive the habit of the newly established Order of Friars Preachers from the hands of St. Dominic himself. Subsequently Hyacinth traveled about much of Central and Eastern Europe doing missionary work and founding new communities. His work took him to places as distant as Denmark and Kiev! It was in the latter city where we discover the meaning behind the two items he is clutching in his arms.

While saying Mass one day in Kiev it so happened that the city had come under siege from the Tartars. Upon completing the Mass Hyacinth began to flee the church along with the Blessed Sacrament in one hand. It was at that point that he heard a voice calling him—a voice coming from the statue of Mary! She wanted Hyacinth to save her from the Tartar onslaught as well! Hyacinth turned back and rescued the figure of Mary holding Jesus in his other arm. As the broadcaster Paul Harvey would say: "And that's the rest of the story!"

As Hyacinth moved on in years he spent his final days in the city of Kraków at one of the convents which he had founded. He died there in 1257, just four years after the canonization of our St. Stanislaus. His relics are enshrined in the Dominican Church of the Most Holy Trinity in Kraków up a long flight of steps alongside the sanctuary.

As we enter the season of Lent, perhaps we might dwell on the idea which St. Hyacinth presents us. Since he is holding both the Blessed Sacrament as well as Mary, we might ponder the idea of how we might appreciate the Eucharist more through the eyes of Christ's Mother. How can her example direct us to more fully partake in that great mystery? How might she help us approach the table with a newer, cleaner heart? How might she help free us of the burdens of hatred and indifference to those immediately before our eyes? Let our newest member help inspire our way of the Cross and our journey down the aisle to the altar. As you prepare to receive Jesus today it would be nice if He would like to receive you as well.

David Krakowski

PACKED YET?

People who know me also know that I love to travel. Years ago, when I worked for the Franciscan Order at the United Nations, I was required to visit and work with friars in other countries. What an adventure for a young friar! And every time I got to the airport, I was like a little kid again, ready for the excitement.

Businesspeople who travel a lot often say that they quickly get tired of that lifestyle. That never happened to me. Even just a couple days away on a driving trip can be refreshing, and my favorite form of vacation is taking two weeks away in the car, heading in a general direction but without any goal in mind. I just like to wander the off-roads (avoiding the interstate highways) and see how America lives.

Prior to any trip, however, is the need to pack. I learned early in my U.N. work that when I packed too early before the trip, I ended up taking too much stuff with me. It was better to wait until closer to departure time. It got to the point where I could pack for a three month, multinational trip in about an hour!

Are you ready for taking this trip with the Lord?

We leave next week!!

I'm still pretty good at doing that, but things have gotten more complicated. Whenever I leave the rectory for a trip — whether a short one for work-related reasons, a longer vacation, or just to get away — there are always the last-minute things that delay me. One more e-mail to answer, another set of papers to file, a task list to leave behind, etc. Fr. Cam always jokes about how much later my actual departure is from my estimate! And friends remark how the only time my desk is clear (so that Sue our housekeeper can polish it) is when I leave for a few days.

Next weekend we will all take a trip together. It will be a journey with the Lord. Are you packed yet? All of Lent we have been looking toward this trip, and now that it is time to leave, we will all need to go, ready or not. Don't miss it!

Holy Week will start with the solemn commemoration of the Lord's parade into Jerusalem. Together we will sing out Hosanna as we wave palms and acclaim Jesus as our King. Soon afterward we will kneel in humble recognition of our own betrayals, great and small, that join part of us to that crowd from long ago who also cried out, "Crucify him!"

On Holy Thursday we'll be invited to a meal. It will be a banquet like none other, when our host becomes a servant washer-of-feet, giving his very self as food for the rest of our journey into eternity.

On Friday, the trip turns dark and solemn. Saturday will be kinda quiet, waiting...

The journey of our entire life is taken up in that final journey of Jesus — through the gates of fleeting worldly acclaim, sustained by a sacred meal together, bound up in the march to death itself, and lain hidden and quite in the darkness of the earth.

Until...

Fr. Mike

Prezydent Obama nie chce bronić małżeństwa

24 stycznia tego roku polskojęzyczna Katolicka Agencja Informacyjna podała, że prezydent Obama polecił przedstawicielom Departamentu Sprawiedliwości, by nie bronili już państwowej ustawy definiującej małżeństwo jako związek jednego mężczyzny z jedną kobietą.

Co to znaczy? Jest to otwarcie możliwości do tego, że w świetle państwowego prawa niedługo za „małżeństwo” może zostać uznany związek np. dwóch mężczyzn albo dwóch kobiet. Jeśli tak się stanie, to grozi to ograniczeniem wolności religijnej. W jaki sposób? Bo już nie będzie można powiedzieć (w świetle obowiązującego państwowego prawa), że małżeństwo to jedyny związek kobiety z mężczyzną. Taka wypowiedź byłaby uznana za „dyskryminowanie małżeństw homoseksualnych” i co za tym idzie, mogłaby zostać zaskarżona przed trybunałem sądowym.

Oczywiście, nawet jeśli taka definicja „małżeństwa” zostanie przyjęta, nie ma ona mocy obowiązującej. Dlaczego? Ponieważ małżeństwo nie jest instytucją ustanowienia ludzkiego. To sam Pan Bóg pobłogosławił związek mężczyzny i kobiety, jak o tym czytamy w Księdze Rodzaju: Stworzył więc Bóg człowieka na swój obraz, na obraz Boży go stworzył: mężczyznę i niewiastę stworzył ich. Po czym Bóg im błogosławił... (Rdz 1, 27-28). Dlatego nikt nie będzie związany w sumieniu do uznania takiej definicji, ponieważ jest sprzeczna z prawem naturalnym (które jest odbiciem Bożego prawa). „Trzeba bardziej słuchać Boga niż ludzi” (Dz 5, 29). Nikt nie może zmienić Bożego prawa, nawet prezydent tak potężnego kraju jak Stany Zjednoczone. Równie dobrze prezydent Obama mógłby ogłosić się Bogiem i zażądać boskiego kultu dla siebie, jak zrobił to obecny prezydent Korei Północnej. Miałoby to taki sam skutek czyli żaden – nie stałby się Bogiem i nikt w sumieniu nie byłby zobowiązany do oddawania mu czci boskiej. Raczej dokładnie odwrotnie: każdy pragnący być wiernym Panu Bogu byłby zobowiązany do odmówienia tego, nawet za cenę życia.

Decyzja Obamy jest oznaką niebezpiecznego rozwoju. Pokazuje na kierunek, który może być brzemienny w skutkach dla wierzących w tym kraju. Zawiera też element ironiczny. Nie jest tajemnicą, że obecny prezydent podzielił chrześcijan, w tym także katolików, z których około 50 % oddało głosy na niego. Oni głosują na Obama, a on wytrwale pracuje nad tym, aby ograniczyć ich religijną wolność. Co za niewdzięczność! Jakaż ironia!

Dodatkowym elementem ironii amerykańskiej sytuacji jest to, że nie jest wykluczone, iż obecny prezydent nie jest legalnym prezydentem, ponieważ według prawa tego kraju prezydentem Stanów Zjednoczonych może być tylko człowiek urodzony w tym kraju, a wcale nie to takie pewne, czy Barack Obama urodził się na terenie tego kraju. Oczywiście miejsce urodzenia Obamy ma tylko znaczenie drugorzędne, ale gdyby rzeczywiście okazało się, że nie urodził się w USA, to wszystkie podpisane przez niego akty prawne nie miałyby żadnej mocy prawnej także z punktu widzenia prawa państwowego, przez co ironia całej tej sytuacji wzrosłaby do kwadratu.

Shrine Church of ST. STANISLAUS

DONUT SUNDAY!

It's that time of the year again! The pączki are jumping out of the bubbling tubs of fat just waiting to be eaten! Come join us as we endure this act of mortification just before the Lenten season begins. THIS SUNDAY...AFTER ALL MASSES!!!

FROM THE EVANGELIZATION COMMITTEE...

As a follow-up to Bishop Pilla's recent presentation on the Eucharist, sessions for the various liturgical ministry groups have been scheduled for three weekends this month. Guest presenters will address both the spiritual and practical aspects of performing the different ministries. All current ministers AND those who expressed an interest at the Ministry Fair in November are encouraged to attend. Please meet in church. Following is a list of the dates and times for the sessions:

- * March 13, 1:00 PM, Ushers & Greeters
- * March 20, 1:00 PM, Eucharistic Ministers
- * March 20, 2:00 PM, Choirs & Cantors
- * March 27, 1:00 PM, Lectors
- * March 27, 1:00 PM, Sacristans

OGŁOSZENIE KOMITETU EWANGELIZACYJNEGO

Kontynuacją prezentacji biskupa Pilly na temat Eucharystii, na bieżący miesiąc ustaliliśmy kolejne spotkania dla różnych grup zaangażowanych w sprawowanie Eucharystii. Zaproszeni prelegenci będą mówić zarówno o duchowym, jak i praktyczny aspekt poszczególnych służ liturgicznych. Wszyscy już zaangażowani, ORAZ ci, którzy wyrazili swoje pragnienie uczestnictwa w różnych posługach liturgicznych, są zaproszeni do wzięcia udziału w tych spotkaniach. Oto lista:

- * 13 marca, 1:00 PM, porządkowi (Ushers & Greeters)
- * 20 marca, 1:00 PM, szafarze Eucharystii
- * 20 marca, 2:00 PM, członkowie chóru
- * 27 marca, 1:00 PM, lektorzy

INFANTS AND TODDLERS OF SLAVIC VILLAGE

Remember me...when you donate needed food items, clothing, etc...to the hungry children of Slavic Village... Remember me! Lent is upon us—Put aside something you enjoy and turn it into a gift of compassion. A single donation of baby food. A can of ravioli. A pack of mac' and chee—it all means something to those who have nothing! Your donations are GREATLY APPRECIATED and are put to use RIGHT HERE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD! Remember me...until we meet again.

Next drawing in April 17th—"Mertie's Strudels" for your Easter festivities.

CITYMUSIC CLEVELAND CONCERT MARCH 19th

Come hear some of the world's most beautiful music on Saturday, March 19th at 7:30 PM when CityMusic Cleveland performs two magnificent works:

Tchaikovsky: Violin Concerto in D

Dylana Jensen, Violinist

Bizet: Symphony in C

Joel Smirnoff, Conductor

CityMusic Cleveland is a professional Chamber Orchestra dedicated to performing concerts of the highest quality for FREE to audiences throughout the region at accessible venues.

The organization also sponsors special music classes in our school open to all children of Slavic Village! The children of the youth orchestra will perform in a special intergenerational concert this May! Please come, support and enjoy!

REGUŁY POSTU NA WIELKI POST

Środa Popielcowa i Wielki Piątek są dniami wstrzemięźliwości od mięsa oraz postu ścisłego (jeden posiłek do syta). Wstrzemięźliwość od mięsa obowiązuje od ukończonego 14 roku życia. Post zupełny obowiązuje od ukończonego 18 roku aż do 59 roku życia. We wszystkie pozostałe piątki Wielkiego Postu obowiązuje post od mięsa.

LENTEN FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat and also days of fast (i.e., one moderate major meal). The law regarding abstinence applies to all Catholics over the age of 14. The law regarding fasting applies to all Catholics over the age of 18 until their 59th birthday.

All remaining Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence from meat. Of course, all-you-can-eat fish fries or dining on lobster tails really have no place during this season. Please take this small act of mortification seriously as we enter the HOLY season of Lent. A little moderation never killed anyone.

GIFT CARDS

If everyone purchased one gift card each month this 'fund raiser' would be quite a success! If you have not yet taken advantage of this resource, please consider giving it a try! It will only help!

GIFT CARDS

Jeśli każdy parafianin kupiłby jedną kartę każdego miesiąca, w ten sposób przyczynił się do sukcesu tego przedsięwzięcia, którego celem jest finansowa pomoc parafii. Jeśli do tej pory nie skorzystałeś z tej możliwości, spróbuj teraz!

Scott Hahn in Cleveland

Dr. Scott Hahn is giving a presentation at St. Raphael Parish in Bay Village on April 6th, 7:00 PM. For more information and reservation of the tickets please call parish office: 440-871-1100.

The St. Paul Center's Journey Through Scripture

"The Bible and the Virgin Mary" is the title of a Scripture study that is going to be presented at St. Vitus Catholic Church, 6019 Lausche Ave, Cleveland. The presenter will be Gregory J. Miller. Time: 6 Saturday evenings 5:00pm - 7:00pm. For further information and registration please call Gregory J. Miller (216) 289-7050 or email: GJMILLER@gmail.com

"The Perfect Pastor"

The perfect pastor preaches exactly 7 minutes. He condemns sin but never hurts anyone's feelings. He works from 8am until midnight and is also the church janitor. The perfect pastor makes $40 a week, wears good clothes, drives a good car, buys good books, and donates $30 a week to the church. He is 29 years old and has 40 years experience. Above all, he is handsome. The perfect pastor has a burning desire to work with teenagers, and he spends most of his time with the senior citizens. He smiles all the time but with a straight face because he has a sense of humor that keeps him seriously dedicated to his church. He makes 15 home visits a day and is always in his office to be handy when needed. The perfect pastor always has time for church council and all of its committees, never misses the meeting of any church organization and is always busy evangelizing the unchurched. The perfect pastor is always in the next church over!

So if your pastor does not measure up, simply send this notice to six other churches that are tired of their pastor, too. Then bundle up your pastor and send him to the church at the top of the list. If everyone cooperates, in one week you will receive 1,643 pastors.

One of them should be perfect. Have faith in this letter. One church broke the chain and got its old pastor back in less than three months.

FOUR EAGLE BANQUET

On Friday, May 6, 2011, The Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus will be hosting its ninth annual Four Eagle Award Banquet and Silent Auction. The cost of a ticket is only $65 per person and includes fabulous food, a generous bar, and a chance to bid on a fantastic array of silent auction items. Won't you consider attending this year? This fundraiser helps to support our various ministries at St. Stanislaus. Gather your family, friends, and acquaintances and reserve a table this year. More information will be forthcoming. Save the date!

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski.

Our parish and St. Adalbert parish in Berea have had some parallel development and shared historical circumstances. Both parishes were formed in 1873 and were formed by Bishop Richard Gilmour, the second Bishop of the Cleveland Diocese. The first priest to minister to our Parish was Father Victor Zareczny from St. Adalbert. Father Zareczny ministered to our community from 1873– 1877. Both Parishes were founded by immigrants from Poland. Those immigrants in Berea came to work primarily in the sandstone quarries. Our parishioners primarily came to work in the steel mills. Father Benedict Rosinski was Pastor of St. Adalbert from 1890– 1892. He was Pastor of St. Stanislaus from 1892– 1905. He was the last diocesan priest to have served as pastor at our parish before the arrival of the Franciscans in 1906. One of our stained glass windows ( first after the baptistery on the rectory side) is a depiction of St. Adalbert, a missionary to the Slavic peoples. Part of the reason why there is a window to St. Adalbert is because of our shared history with his namesake Parish.

„Idealny proboszcz”

Idealny proboszcz ma kazania trwające dokładnie 7 minut. Potępia grzech, ale nie rani przy tym niczyich uczuć. Pracuje od 8 rano do północy, w tym także jako kościelny. Idealny proboszcz dostaje 40 dolarów tygodniowo, nosi dobre ubrania, używa dobry samochód, kupuje dobre książki i przekazuje do kościoła 30 dolarów na tydzień . Ma 29 lat życia, ale 40 lat doświadczenia. Przede wszystkim, jest przystojny. Idealny proboszcz jest gorliwy w pracy z młodzieżą i spędza większość czasu z seniorami. Uśmiecha się cały czas, ale poważnie, bo ma poczucie humoru, które pozwala mu być poważnym i oddanym kościołowi kapłanem. Odwiedza 15 domów dziennie i zawsze w razie potrzeby można go zastać w jego parafialnym biurze. Idealny pastor zawsze ma czas dla Rady Parafialnej i wszystkich komitetów i organizacji parafialnych, i jest zawsze zajęty pracą ewangelizacyjną tych, którzy nie chodzą do kościoła.

Idealny pastor jest zawsze w parafii obok! Więc jeśli twój proboszcz nie dorównuje temu wzorowi, wystarczy wysłać zawiadomienie do sześciu innych kościołów, w których parafianie tak samo mają dość ich proboszcza. Następnie weź twój proboszcza i wyślij go do kościoła na początku sporządzonej przez siebie listy. Jeśli także w innych parafiach będą zgodnie współpracować, w jednym tygodniu dostaniesz 1643 proboszczów. Jeden z nich powinien być idealny. Uwierz w to!

Jeden parafia zaczęła ten łańcuszek i dostała swojego starego proboszcza zanim upłynęły 3 miesiące.

ZAREZERWUJ CZAS

Zostało jeszcze 75 dni do dziewiątego już dorocznego bankietu Four Eagle ii Silent Auction. Zarezerwuj zatem wieczór w piątek 6. maja 2011 r. Komitet organizacyjny jeszcze nie podjął ostatecznej decyzji, kto w tym roku otrzyma order, ale jesteśmy pewni tego, że ten wieczór zapowiada dobrą atmosferę, znakomite jedzenie. Serdecznie zapraszamy!

ST. HYACINTH IN PLACE

Thanks to the hard work of Master Carver Timothy Riffle with the assistance of Charles Gliha and the strength and precision of Bob Molinski, the St. Hyacinth statue is up beside the altar of Mary forever! Next project...the Infant of Prague shrine! The work never ends, but these things keep our shrine special!!! Welcome, St.Hyacinth, to your new home!

Św. Jacku, módl się za nami!
