HOLY COMMUNION

Lord, I am not worthy .... say but the word and my soul shall be healed....
...then there is silence as we wonder: “what will that ‘word’ be? Can I be healed? Will I be healed? Do I want to be healed, freed, ready to meet Jesus face to face?”

Jesus, come to me....

I hope He wants to come to me. I yearn for His mercy....”Just as I am, without one plea, but that thy blood was shed for me, and that thou bids’t me come to thee. O Lamb of God, I come....” I can humbly approach Jesus, unworthy though I may be...and I can only hope He also wants to come to me.

Jesus, live in me....

Bring me back to life just as you brought back your friend Lazarus. Breathe your Spirit into me, fill me with the life you promise. Unwrap my body and free me from sin... unwrap my heart and let it beat with love for you and for all. Allow me to forgive others who have hurt me and for me to forgive myself. Let your blood nourish me as a child in a mother’s womb.

Jesus, speak with my mouth.....

If I have nothing kind to say, please help me keep my mouth shut! If I can bring more joy to the world with your words, give me the courage to be unafraid! If my words reflect jealousy or envy, please forgive me and help me see my sins. When I sing this song to you, let it flow first from my heart, then through my mouth.

See with my eyes....

Let my eyes look with compassion on those who seek help or comfort. Let my eyes see you in every person...including when I look into a mirror. Let my eyes see and hear the desires of those in need, of those in pain, of those who are lost...as only true love can do.

Touch with my hands.....

May I reach out to others as you command. May my touch be a healing balm and never another slap to your sacred face. May my hands do your work now on earth to build your kingdom, one brick at a time. May my hands be worthy to hold you, to accept you, to enthrone you—my Lord and my God.

Jesus, Bread of Life....

I need you. Feed me and be my divine lover. You alone can satisfy my restless heart and soul. You alone can promise me life. You alone can lead me and guide me up Calvary and out of the tomb. You alone know everything hidden in my heart. You alone can take my hand, feel my fears and pain, lighten my crosses. You alone can do all of those things because, Jesus, I trust in you!

Love others through me....

The holy sacrifice renewed at each Mass shows the way. It is never enough for me to receive you and keep you to myself. As your hands were outstretched embracing all of creation, so my whole being must be open to everyone you love, to everyone on earth. If I say ‘I love you, Jesus,’ I must accept this reality—I must love everyone as you would want me to. I must be your vessel on earth to serve the poor and the rich, the educated and the ignorant, the young and the old....to everyone. To receive you in Holy Communion is to accept you on those terms, the terms of unconditional love of every human being to prove my love for you and to be worthy of your love. ‘Love’ is the ‘word’ I will hear from you when you heal me and, then, come to me.

David Krakowski

(The above reflection is based on today’s post-Communion song...Please join in the singing of this prayerful song- the words are in bold type - as we depart from the holy season of Lent and enter that of Easter.)

TAKE THE STONE AWAY, COME OUT! COME OUT! TAKE THE STONE AWAY, COME OUT!

Welcome back, Laz!

On this, the fifth Sunday of Lent, Holy Church directs us to reflect on that time-honored and revered gospel episode wherein Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead.

This was a very memorable and impressive miracle that Jesus performed. But, even more importantly—not only did Jesus restore Lazarus to life, but He caused many people there to believe in Him. Jesus performed miracles to help restore especially the spiritual life in people, that is, to enter in the divine life of God.

The last two Sundays we heard Jesus make some startling I AM statements: “I AM the living water.” “I AM the light of the world.” Today in the gospel reading we hear: “I AM the resurrection and the life.”

These words are just as applicable to us today as they were to Mary and Martha. Death is as disruptive and destructive as it was in their time. This is certainly true when death strikes close to home... family member died of cancer, a young person dies in a car accident, an athlete collapses on the field of play, etc. The media make us aware of people experiencing death being wiped away by tsunamis, earthquakes, mudslides, floods, starvation and disease.

Fr. Albert Cylwicki, CSB writes in his book His Word Resounds: “We experience other forms of death whenever we see marriages end in divorce, religious vocations terminated by departures, and careers cut short by unemployment. We suffer a kind of death every time our environment gets polluted, parochial schools close from a lack of funds, and big cities decay from crime and violence. Indeed, we too need to hear that Jesus is the resurrection and the life.”

Jesus promises that we will be raised unto a glorious kind of life for all eternity. He proved this by his own death and resurrection. How much more proof do we need??

But, after Jesus raises Lazarus back to life, he commands that he be untied and set free. He wants Lazarus to leave that stench-filled tomb and breathe in the Spirit of Life.

How many times have I been, or still am, a Lazarus entombed in the habitual sin of selfishness? Addiction to chemical dependency and alcohol? Excessive desire for lust and viewing of pornography? Ever-present hatred and animosity towards others? Reluctance to forgive those who have offended us, or at least, we think that they did? Regular non-participation in weekend liturgies—celebrations of Christ’s passion, death and resurrection? We need not despair! Jesus left us the gift of the Sacrament of Reconciliation in which he restores us to Himself and His Kingdom.

In the funeral liturgy, celebrated in white vestments and the Paschal Candle conspicuously evident to all present, the presider repeats the words within the Preface: “Lord, for your faithful people life is changed, not ended.”

Our lives built of the solid rock of Scripture and Sacraments will be transformed into a glorious state of existence.

For all the faithful—death is a friend, a gateway into eternity, a gift from God for us to be united with him forever. If I am fearful of dying, then perhaps, I should be better prepared, change my life for the better, get to Confession, make amends with others. Life is too short to delay any changes. Fr. Len

KOMUNIA ŚWIĘTA

Panie, nie jestem godzien .... powiedz słowo a będzie uzdrowiona dusza moja...

...i następuje cisza, kiedy rozważamy: Co to za słowo? Mogę być uzdrowiony? Chcę być uzdrowiony? Uwolniony, gotowy na spotkanie z Panem twarzą w twarz?"

Jeżu, do mnie przyjdź...

Mam nadzieję, że On chce przyjść do mnie. Pragnę Jego miłosierdzia... „Taki, jaki jestem, z jedyną prośbą, aby Twoją Krwią obmyła mnie i abys kazał mi przyjść do Ciebie, Boży Baranku, do Ciebie przychodzę...” Z pokorą przychodzę do Ciebie, niegodny, ale ufając, że Ty chcesz przyjść do mnie.

Jeżu, we mnie żyj...

Odnów we mnie życie, tak do życia na nowo wzbudziłeś Twojego przyjaciela Łazarza. Technij we mnie Twego Ducha; napelnij mnie życiem, które mi obiecałeś. Uwolnij moje ciało od grzechu; uwolnij z więzów moje serce i spraw, niech bije miłością dla Ciebie i wszystkich.

Jeżu, mów przez me usta...

Jeśli nie mogę powiedzieć niczego milego, proszę pomóż mi milczeć! Jeśli mogę wnieść więcej radości do świata Twoimi słowami, dodaj mi odwagi, abym nie zważał na względy ludzkie.

Patrz przez me oczy...

Spraw, abym patrzył z miłosierdziem na tych, którzy szukają pomocy lub pociechy. Pomóż, aby moje oczy widziały Ciebie w każdym człowieku... także kiedy spojłdam w lustro.

Dotykaj moimi rękami...

Obym pomagał innym, jak Ty tego chcesz. Niech moje dotknięcie będzie jak leczący balsam; oby nigdy nie stało się uderzeniem Twojej Twarzy. Niech moje ręce wykonują teraz Twoją pracę na ziemi i kontynuują budowanie Twojego królestwa, cegielka po cegielce.

Jeżu, Chlebie życia...

Potrzebuję Ciebie. Karm mnie i kochaj Twoją boską miłością. Tylko Ty możesz wypełnić pragnienia mojego niespokojnego serca i duszy. Tylko Ty możesz dać mi Życie. Tylko Ty możesz przeprowadzić mnie przez Kalwarię i wyprowadzić z grobu. Tylko Ty znasz wszystkie tajemnice mojego serca.

Kochaj innych przeze mnie.

Ofiara Chrystusa odnawiana w czasie Mszy św. pokazuje nam drogę. To za mało przyjąć Cię i zatrzymać dla siebie. Tak, jak Twoje ręce wyciągały się dla objęcia całego stworzenia, tak całą swoją istotą muszę być otwarty dla tych, których Ty kochasz, czyli dla każdego. Jeśli mówię: „Kocham Cię, Jeżu”, muszę zaakceptować Twój sposób kochania - muszę kochać każdego, bo Ty tak chcesz. Muszę być Twoim narzędziem w spotkaniu z ubogim i bogatym, z wykształconym i człowiekiem prostym, z młodym i w podeszłym wieku... z każdym. Przyjmując Cię w Komunii św. godzę się na Twoje warunki. Tym warunkiem jest bezwarunkowa miłość wobec innych. Kochając w ten sposób potwierdzam, że Cię kocham i jestem godny Twojej miłości. „Miłość” jest tym „słowem”, które Ty mówisz do mnie, kiedy mnie uzdrawiasz i przychodzisz do mnie.

David Krakowski

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. While our neighborhood was settled by Irish, Welsh, Polish, and Czech immigrants, the very first settlers were Native American Indians. Even prior to some Erie and Iroquois related Indian tribes in the area, there were earlier Native American Indians living in the area. There was an ancient Native American Indian ceremonial fort on what is now Mound Avenue, a few blocks from our Church. This fort was bounded by the present Mound School and Mound Avenue. It was bounded to the north by Huss Avenue and East 55 and East 59 Streets, as well as Ackley road to Broadway Avenue. This became mainly a rural area in the early 1870's. Flattening of the fort's earthworks, cliffs, and ravines accompanied the area's urbanization. The fort had a high promontory surrounded by a steep ravine on three sides. There were two earthen walls with two corresponding trenches which encircled the site.
