NOVEMBER COMMEMORATION OF THE DEAD

Don't forget to send in the names of the faithful departed whom you would like enlisted in the "Book of Life," which we pray from at the beginning of each Mass in November. The donation you give is applied toward the Eucharistic Day celebration at the end of the month — flowers, music, dinner for priests and religious.

IMPORTANT DATES AND THINGS....

And you thought now that the festival was over you could just sit back and enjoy the heat? Well, forget that idea—We are gearing up for a lot of exciting things over the next month. Yes, it is never too early to let everyone know of events which are important to the life of a parishioner here at the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus.

The month of October will wind down soon leading us into the month during which we commemorate the faithful departed. Have you turned in your list of names yet for our 'Book of the Dead?' we certainly have had more than our fair share of funerals this past year—the names of who you will hear read at the beginning of the month. For those of you who are new to our parish, the custom is to read the names of the faithful departed before each Mass throughout the month of November.

Then, on a lighter note, we have the Father William Gulas Reverse Raffle, proceeds of which fund the scholarship fund in his name at our school. If you have never been to one of these, you are missing out! Everyone has fun and practically everyone leaves a winner of something or another. It's a great time to just get together and spend a relaxing evening with the parishioners and friends of our church and school, eat some great food, moderately drink some good beverages and just enjoy the evening!

Remember to read the ongoing information from the Stewardship Committee! Put on your thinking caps and your prayer shawls and give some serious thought to that to which you are being called. The opportunities for service at our parish are ENDLESS! You cannot think for a moment that you have nothing to contribute to the community and for the glory of God. God gave us much and now much is expected of each of us in return.

On Sunday, November 20th, we will have our annual Eucharistic Day. It's the day we set aside at the end of the liturgical year to reserve a little (or a lot) of time to sit down and speak with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. The gift He left us as nourishment as we fight our own battle against evil in our daily lives. During the clustering process a few years back we reported having approximately 1200 families registered at our parish. I'm not sure if all 1200 families know that, as members of this parish, they are welcome to come into the building now and then (if not regularly) to share their faith with the other 1119 or to even spend some time alone praying with the Blessed Sacrament. If you are reading this, have you already decided that you are coming to church the afternoon of Nov. 20th to spend time praying? Do you have other plans already in place? Bingo? Internet Café? Football game? Television? Shopping? Or will you choose to feed your soul? We don't plan this event for priests, altar servers, choir members and extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist! This is a PARISH event! Believe me—without your participation we are less than if you would be here with us. Why can't the church be as packed for religious activities as it is for concerts? Why can't we have a standing room only problem at the Eucharistic devotion? Is it not a quality event for our parishioners? If it is not important, then why don't we just close this place and sell it to a congregation who might need it to worship God. Oh well, if you haven't been convinced by now to see the point the evangelization and values of the church may have missed you long ago. In that case why not give Jesus another chance? He's here today and He'll be here to listen to you all afternoon on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20th!!! SAVE THE DATE!

I wish there were a kinder way of addressing the 'lack of enthusiasm' and poor attendance at our parish events, liturgical or social. But, if you think you for one moment you are going to get a kinder reception from God you are fooling yourself. When you say the 'Lamb of God' for once and for all get the idea of a little fuzzy wuzzy cuddly lamb out of your mind!! The lamb you need to think of was one which was SLAUGHTERED, not cuddled. That lamb was SACRIFICED, not put on display at a petting zoo! That lamb had its blood poured out onto the altar. There's nothing pretty about it. Jesus, the lamb of God, was sacrificed to conquer evil, not to look pretty. To conquer evil, the only possible lamb that could be sacrificed to God was Jesus....now the lamb of God waits for you to honor Him.

Finally, the last Sunday of November ushers in Advent, the new English translation of the Mass, our commissioning of various liturgical ministers and the Advent devotional schedule (Godzinki and Advent Vespers). Wow...I hope you mark all these things and dates in your calendar...AND COME!

David Krakowski

AS WE PREPARE FOR STEWARDSHIP/COMMITMENT SUNDAY...

Today's Gospel calls us: "Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind." This command is not overwhelmingly impossible to achieve because we can know with certainty God never asks us for anything he has not already first given to us. Our gratitude for all God's gifts causes a need to share with others, those we love and cherish and those who need our help. Only in sharing of ourselves/our abundance do we truly love the Lord, our God.

We all love our parish, but need reminders to help shore up unmet needs by sharing personal gifts, not waiting for the same parishioners to do it all. We hate to see projects fail for lack of participants; don't like waiting to see if enough will volunteer for the festival, donate baskets, sell tickets; are disappointed when the weekly collection fails to meet budget; hope each Mass will have enough ushers, greeters or other ministers needed. The reality is until our dislike of unmet needs and gratitude for our gifts become one in us, needs will continue to be unmet.

Commitment Sunday is about examining gifts we've been sharing and gifts we are willing to increase. This week, take time to reflect and create a list: what are all the things you do for our parish? List the smallest and the largest: prayers said, Masses attended, responses to calls for help, times you volunteered, helped an elderly parishioner, baked for an event, said yes to Fr. Mike's request to be on a committee, stretched your dollar for the weekly collection, etc.

When you finish, create another list of what you could do more this year, things your health or job or family needs kept you from doing. Things like helping to clean in church, decorate for a holiday, do outside spring cleanup, donate extra plants, join in preparing for the festival, or sell more raffle tickets. Maybe you could invite someone still searching for a permanent parish to come with you and consider us! What other gifts of yourself, time and talents might you share?

Coming next week: more about the Stewardship stance of gratitude and how it leads to deeper love and sharing of time, talents and treasure that draw us all closer to God and each other...

The Stewardship Committee

PRZYGOTOWUJĄC SIĘ DO NIEDZIELI POSŁUGI I ZAANGAŻOWANIA

Dzisiejsza Ewangelia nawołuje: „Miłuj Pana Boga swego z całego swego serca, całej swej duszy i całym umysłem swoim.” To przykazanie nie jest niemożliwe do osiągnięcia ponieważ wiemy, że z pewnością Bóg nigdy nie chce od nas czegoś, czego wcześniej nam nie dał. Nasza wdzięczność za wszystkie Boże dary powoduje potrzebę dzielenia się nimi z innymi, których miłujemy, kochamy i którzy potrzebują naszej pomocy. Tylko poprzez dzielenie się sobą i swymi zasobami, kochamy prawdziwie Pana, naszego Boga.

Wszyscy jesteśmy przywiązani do naszej parafii, ale potrzebujemy przypomnienia aby pomagać w dotarciu do niespełnionych potrzeb poprzez dzielenie się naszymi osobistymi darami, a nie przez czekanie, aż ciągle ci sami parafianie zrobią to za nas. Nie znosimy projektów, które się nie udają z powodu braku uczestników; nie lubimy niepewności czy wystarczająco dużo wolontariuszy pomoże w festiwalu, podaruje kosze obfitości, sprzeda losy; jesteśmy rozczarowani, gdy cotygodniowa kolektka nie dorównuje planowanemu budżetowi; mamy nadzieję, że na każdej Mszy będzie wystarczająco dużo osób do posługi. W rzeczywistości, dopóki będziemy nie lubić niespełnionych potrzeb i paść wdzięcznością za nasze talenty równocześnie, dopóty te potrzeby pozostaną niespełnione.

Niedziela Zaangażowania to sprawdzian jakimi uzdolnieniami dzielimy się i jakie talenty chcemy rozwijać. W tym tygodniu powinniśmy znaleźć czas na refleksję i zrobienie listy rzeczy, które możemy zrobić dla naszej parafii. Wyszczególnij te najmniejsze i największe rzeczy: zmówienie modlitwy, udział we Mszy, odpowiedź na prośbę o pomoc, czas pracy wolontariackiej, pomoc starszym parafianom, wypieki na uroczystości, pozytywna odpowiedź Ojcu Michałowi na prośbę o pracę w określonym Komitecie, większa ofiara na niedzielną tacę, itp.

Po skończeniu tej listy, przygotuj następną z propozycją co więcej możesz zrobić w tym roku, z rzeczami, które trudno Ci wykonać z powodu stanu zdrowia, lub twojej pracy lub potrzeb rodziny. Chodzi o takie rzeczy, jak pomoc w sprzątaniu kościoła, udekorowaniu go na święta, wiosenne porządki wokół kościoła, podarowanie zbędnych sadzonek, praca w przygotowaniu do festiwalu lub sprzedaż większej ilości losów. Może mógłbyś zaprosić do nas kogoś, kto ciągle szuka swojej stałej parafii, aby przyszedł z Tobą i być może pozostał z nami? Jakimi innymi uzdolnieniami, talentami i czasem mógłbyś się podzielić?

W następnym tygodniu: więcej o duszpasterskim znaczeniu wdzięczności i w jaki sposób prowadzi ona do głębszego umiłowania oraz dzielenia się czasem, zdolnościami i skarbami, które przyciągają nas wszystkich do Boga i do swych bliźnich.

SHRINE CHURCH OF ST. STANISLAUS

ATTENTION NEW PARISHIONERS!

The Parish Pastoral Council will hold its third annual Welcoming Social for new parishioners on Sunday, October 23. If you have registered with the parish since last October, you should have recently received an invitation to the social. If we somehow missed you, or if you are simply considering joining the parish, we cordially invite you and your family to attend. Fr. Michael will lead a tour of the church immediately following the 11:30 AM Mass, and then we'll head over to the Social Center for an informal luncheon and fellowship.

UWAGA, NOWI PARAFIANIE!

Rada Parafialna organizuje trzecie już z kolei, doroczne przyjęcie, w czasie którego przywitamy nowych parafian. Będzie ono miało miejsce 23 października tego roku. Jeśli zarejestrowałeś się w czasie ostatniego roku (od października ubiegłego roku do dzisiaj), powinieneś otrzymać zaproszenie na to przyjęcie. Gdyby jednak z jakichś powodów stało się tak, że nie wystaliśmy indywidualnego zaproszenia, proszę przyjąć to zaproszenie wydrukowane w Biuletynie. O. Michael poprowadzi tour w kościele zaraz po Mszy św. o godz. 11:30, i następnie udamy się do budynku Social Center na lunch. Będzie to również okazja do rozmów.

YOU'RE INVITED

Our own seminarian, Rob Ramser, wrote to us that the men of II Theology at St. Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology invite you to an Easter Vigil Enactment. Come to St. Christopher's Parish in Rocky River on November 11th at 7:00 PM to help them practice the Easter Vigil - from the blessing of the fire through the liturgy of the Word and up to the Prayer over the Gifts, including full immersion baptisms and confirmations. This enactment serves as the culminating point of their class on Baptism and Confirmation.

Fr. Artur is all smiles as kindergarten students welcome him to the church on his first morning at Saint Stanislaus. Fr. Artur is here for three months to care for the Polish ministry while we prepare the visa for the priest who will work here more permanently.

We pray Morning Prayer every day at 8:00, and on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday the school children come for Mass. Why not come some time and join us?

FROM PRAYERS TO PUSH-UPS...

Last week, the elementary school had its first all-school retreat of the school year. Held each quarter, these retreats focus on different aspects of our school's mission. This quarter's theme was community, bringing in a fireman, detective, councilman, nurse, accountant, community center director, and athletic coach. The day ended with a prayer service on the fourth floor. This week, we continued our whole child approach of education with a Let's Get Physical day. Obstacle courses, long jumps, mazes, and calisthenics filled the morning. Everyone had great appetites at lunch that day!

REVERSE RAFFLE

For the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the ordination of Fr. William Gulas, OFM, the parish established a scholarship fund in his name. This scholarship still exists to help parishioners to attend Saint Stanislaus Elementary School by assisting with tuition.

So, mark your Calendar! The Father William Gulas Scholarship Fund REVERSE RAFFLE will be held on Saturday, November 5th at 6:00PM. Tickets are $35.00 and include a chance to win $1500.00, dinner, beer, wine & pop. For more information or tickets, please call Denise Siemborski 216-398-5764, Rick Sutich 216-883-4904, Frank Greczanik 216-441-0552 or John Heyink 216-341-2019.

VETERANS DAY REMEMBRANCE

To celebrate Veterans Day this year, we were given an idea by Parish Receptionist Patricia Murray that we invite parishioners to submit names of military veterans (living and deceased) to acknowledge in the parish bulletin. Please send by e-mail, mail, or in next week's collection the name and service branch of veterans you want to acknowledge. If the veteran is deceased, please indicate that as well. Names received by November 2 will be included in the bulletin the following weekend.

THANK-YOU FROM A GRATEFUL POLISH FESTIVAL GUEST

This last weekend you had the Polish Festival. As a semi-last minute trip, my Mother and I decided to come up to it. I live in Mt. Vernon Ohio and my Mom lives in Cambridge. I drove over to pick her up and we came up to the Festival.

My Dad's parents were Hungarian and Polish, so we obviously ate a lot of the food items you had at the Festival. My Grandparents died over 30 years ago and my Father over 20 years ago. My Mother, who is not Slovak but loves and misses the food, and I were very anxious to attend.

When we got there it was so much more than we expected. Yes....the food was great, but what was really wonderful was the atmosphere. Everyone was so nice and friendly. We both felt so comfortable and at home. We didn't want to leave. The church, the community, the people, and just everything was perfect. It has been a long time since she and I both have felt this way.

Thank you so very much for that brief time of peace and contentment in such a hectic life.

We WILL be back next year....and I will keep my eyes open for any other activities you have going on that we can drive up to.

Thanks again for such a wonderful experience.

R.C.I.A. STARTS THIS WEEKEND

If you know any adult who is not yet baptized; was baptized in another Christian church and wants to become Catholic; or who was baptized Catholic but has not made First Communion or Confirmation yet, then please let them know we will begin the R.C.I.A. classes this Sunday, October 23, in the rectory conference room. The first sessions are mostly introductory, and they don't have to make a commitment to follow through until much later in the year. Once we get into the swing of things, all classes are open to all parishioners as a way of ongoing adult faith formation.

TETELESTAI AUDITIONS

Do you find yourself looking for some interesting activity this coming Lent? How about joining the Tetelestai team and partake in the annual re-enactment of the passion and death of Jesus. Those interested can visit the group online at www.tetelestai-cpam.org to download an audition packet. Or you can call 44 944 0635 for details. Please contact them before October 30th to schedule your date and time!

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. When our Parish was formed in 1873, our parishioners worshiped at St. Mary's On The Flats or Our Lady of the Lakes which was located in the Flats at the corner of Columbus and Girard Streets. The wood frame structure was used by many of Cleveland's various ethnic groups for worship services until they built their own church. Our parishioners used St. Mary's from 1873– 1879 while they were ministered to by Father Victor Zareczny from St. Adalbert in Berea. In 1879 the care of our Parishioners was transferred to Father Wolfgang Janietz OFM. He lived at St. Joseph's Friary on Woodland Avenue and our parishioners attended worship services at that location until they built their own two story wood church in 1881. St. Joseph's Church was located near where Cuyahoga Community College's Metro Campus currently sits.

DON'T FORGET YOUR GIFT CARDS
