ANOTHER MASS FOR THE CANONIZATION OF BLESSED JOHN PAUL II

This week we will have a number of special evening Masses as we celebrate the Vigil of the Assumption (along with the traditional ‘Dormition’ service and blessing of flowers), the Assumption and the monthly Mass for the canonization of Blessed John Paul II. In case you have not noticed on the previous page the Mass schedule for the evenings of August 14 and 15 show those two Masses being at 6 PM rather than the two Masses, one at 5:30, the other at 7 PM. The reasoning was that even though one was listed as English, half of the people in the pews were Polish. The same situation proved true for the Mass (5:30 pm) listed in Polish. For those who work to schedule the evening Mass too early was not helpful. For those who are retired, there is the option of attending either of those two evening Masses or the Mass on the morning of the holyday at either 7 AM or 8:30 AM. The evening Masses will be bi-lingual as far as possible.

Then we have the ‘Third Thursday’ Mass for the intention of the canonization of Bl. John Paul II. In the photograph above you can see the late pope’s confidante, now Cardinal Stanislaw Dziwisz, praying at the tomb of Bl. John Paul in St. Peter’s Basilica. As is typical, the numbers of faithful praying for this event has dwindled here with many excuses and reasons. “Wheel of Fortune” trumps “Third Thursday Mass” every time, right? Perhaps the words of Cardinal Dziwisz spoken recently at a visit to Orchard Lake will inspire even some of you to attend this coming Thursday and join us in prayer for this special cause.

“Brothers and sisters, it is without any hesitation, that we say that Blessed John Paul was and is the great gift from Jesus Christ to the Church. We know the story of his life, of his vocation and of his service to others. I, myself, received the great grace of being by his side for almost forty years. I was the witness of his prayers and work in Krakow as well as in the Vatican on a daily basis. I was the witness of his holiness, as it turned out to be the most readable and the most visible mark of his priest’s and shepherd’s personality. John Paul II lived his life in constant union with God. God was in the center of all his issues and ideals, and that is how it was from his youth. He gave to God everything, and God—as He always does—sent him to other people, to the world, that he could be the witness of God’s love and mercy, bringing hope and peace to all humanity. He was doing this as the priest and bishop, shepherd and intellectual of the highest scores. He was doing this as the Pope, leading the large Church community, fulfilling his mission in each nation and culture. In the shepherd’s heart of the Holy Father there was a place for everybody. The confirmation of the faithful believe that John Paul was a saint, was last year’s beatification by his successor, Benedict XVI. Touching is the memory of Blessed John Paul II, not only in Poland, but around the world. He accompanies and inspires the modern Church. His apostolic spirituality, his teachings, his attitude toward other men is reaching out to minds and hearts of millions of Christians on all continents.

Responsibilities are associated with the gift which we received in the person of John Paul II. We cannot just admire the Holy Father. We cannot only remember his long and unique pontificate. We have to live this ideal which he was living, Jesus Christ, who is stopping on the path of life of each man and saying “Follow me” was the highest ideal for him. Thus, John Paul from the very beginning was telling us: “Open wide the doors for Christ”. Everyone has to answer the question, what in my life’s situation means to open the doors for Christ, and to follow Him. To totally give myself to Him? He is inviting us to a personal friendship, which feeds on prayers and sacraments; But this friendship with Him must also be mirrored in our attitude to others, in our involvement in the Church’s matters and in our witness to the Gospel.”

Did the above words of Cardinal Dziwisz inspire you even a little? Do you think you can take up the challenge he reiterates from John Paul to “open wide the doors for Christ”? Why not start this journey anew when you join us this Thursday evening at 7 PM as we pray together for the canonization of this great man and implore his intercession for us and for all the thousands of notes which have been deposited beneath his miter in our shrine transept. He listens to everyone and is here to help. Don’t be afraid to ask him for a little help!

David Krakowski

List „do moich Braci i Sióstr—ludzi w podeszłym wieku” napisał w 1999 r. błogosławiony Jan Paweł II. W tym tekście Ojciec św. zwraca się z wielką prostotą i ciepłem do swoich rówieśników.

Życzenia na dalsze lata życia

17. Życząc wam w tym duchu, drodzy Bracia i Siostry w podeszłym wieku, abyście pogodnie przeżywali lata, które Bóg przeznaczył każdemu z was, pragnę zarazem bardzo otwarcie podzielić się z wami uczuciami, jakich doznaję u schyłku mego życia, po ponad dwudziestu latach posługi na Stolicy Piotrowej i w oczekiwaniu na bliskie już trzecie tysiąclecie. Mimo ograniczeń mego wieku bardzo wysoko cenię sobie życie i umiem się nim cieszyć. Dziękuję za to Bogu! Pięknie jest służyć aż do końca sprawie Królestwa Bożego.

Zarazem jednak głębokim pokojem napełnia mnie myśl o chwili, w której Bóg wezwie mnie do siebie — z życia do życia! Dlatego wypowiadam często — i bez najmniejszego odcienia smutku — modlitwę, którą kapłan odmawia po liturgii eucharystycznej: In hora mortis meae voca me, et iube me venire ad te — w godzinie śmierci wezwij mnie i każ mi przyjść do Ciebie. Jest to modlitwa chrześcijańskiej nadziei, która w niczym nie umniejsza radości obecnej chwili, a przyszłość zawiera opiece Bożej dobroci.

18. Iube me venire ad te: jest to najgłębsze pragnienie ludzkiego serca, nawet wówczas, gdy człowiek nie jest tego świadomy.

Pozwól, o Panie życia, abyśmy to sobie wyraźnie uświadomili i umieli cieszyć się każdym etapem naszego życia jako darem niosącym bogate obietnice na przyszłość.

Spraw, byśmy z miłością przyjmowali Twoją wolę, zawierając się każdego dnia Twoim miłosiernym dłońmi.

Gdy zaś nadejdzie chwila ostatecznego «przejścia», pozwól, abyśmy umieli ją powitać z pokojem w sercu, nie żałując niczego, co przyjdzie nam porzucić. Kiedy bowiem po długim poszukiwaniu spotkamy Ciebie, odnajdziemy też wszystkie prawdziwe wartości, jakich zazналиśmy na ziemi, a także tych, którzy poprzedzili nas w znaku wiary i nadziei.

Maryjo, Matko ludzkości pielgrzymującej, módl się za nami «teraz i w godzinie śmierci naszej». Spraw, byśmy byli zawsze blisko Jezusa, Twojego umiłowanego Syna, a naszego Brata, Pana życia i chwały. Amen!

Watykan, dnia 1 października 1999, w dwudziestym pierwszym roku mego Pontyfikatu.

ST HYACINTH FEASTDAY

On Sunday, August 19th we will be celebrating the Feast of St. Hyacinth at the conclusion of 8:30 a.m. mass on Sunday August 19th. Immediately following the Mass we are inviting all former St. Hyacinth Parishioners, family and friends to gather for fellowship, coffee and donuts in the Utility Room in the school. Hope to see you there!

Poświęcenia kwiatów.....Wtorek wieczorem po mszy św.

Blessing of flowers after the vigil Mass on Tuesday evening! Join us as we cover the image of Mary with rose petals in honor of her dormition.

An encouragement to live life to the full

17. In this spirit, dear elderly brothers and sisters, as I encourage each of you to live with serenity the years that the Lord has granted you, I feel a spontaneous desire to share fully with you my own feelings at this point of my life, after more than twenty years of ministry on the throne of Peter and as we await the arrival, now imminent, of the Third Millennium. Despite the limitations brought on by age, I continue to enjoy life. For this I thank the Lord. It is wonderful to be able to give oneself to the very end for the sake of the Kingdom of God!

At the same time, I find great peace in thinking of the time when the Lord will call me: from life to life! And so I often find myself saying, with no trace of melancholy, a prayer recited by priests after the celebration of the Eucharist: In hora mortis meae voca me, et iube me venire ad te – at the hour of my death, call me and bid me come to you. This is the prayer of Christian hope, which in no way detracts from the joy of the present, while entrusting the future to God's gracious and loving care.

18. “Iube me venire ad te!”: this is the deepest yearning of the human heart, even in those who are not conscious of it.

Grant, O Lord of life, that we may be ever vividly aware of this and that we may savour every season of our lives as a gift filled with promise for the future.

Grant that we may lovingly accept your will, and place ourselves each day in your merciful hands.

And when the moment of our definitive “passage” comes, grant that we may face it with serenity, without regret for what we shall leave behind. For in meeting you, after having sought you for so long, we shall find once more every authentic good which we have known here on earth, in the company of all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith and hope.

Mary, Mother of pilgrim humanity, pray for us “now and at the hour of our death”. Keep us ever close to Jesus, your beloved Son and our brother, the Lord of life and glory.

Amen!

From the Vatican, 1 October 1999.

MIGNARDA DUO CONCERT:
LA ROTA FORTUNA

This Friday evening, August 17th, at 7:30 PM the Mignarda Duo will present a concert (Free will offering) of chansons from the late 15th century spiced with lute solos from the earliest sources. The chanson texts trace Fortune's Whell; sparkling and nanced rondeaux brilliantly set by Busnoys, Dufay, Frye, Morton and Ockeghem.

INFANTS/TODDLERS OF SLAVIC VILLAGE

Changes are taking place here at St. Stanislaus but the plight of the poorest children in our neighborhood remains the same. They look to us for help. Please don't turn your backs on them — just a couple jars of baby food would help! Help us fill the baskets in our vestibule and help feed God's hungry little ones.

Last month Natalie Delarm answered His call and won for herself a $25 Manna Gift Card! Yu could do the same by donating! The next drawing will be held Sept. 9th.

WIADOMOŚCI FESTIWALOWE

Zostało już tylko 53 dni do inauguracji parafialnego POLISH FESTIVAL! Jak możecie pomóc w jego przygotowaniu?

Czy wzięliście pod uwagę ofiarowanie nagrody do BASKET BOOTH? To miejsce jest jednym z tych, które „produkuja” największy dochód. ALE POTRZEBUJEMY PREZENTÓW! Jak dotąd tylko jeden parafianin dwa razy wyładował auto wypełnione koszykami z przygotowanymi nagrodami. Czy moglibyście przygotować jeden taki kosz wypełniony rzeczami zachęcającymi do kupna losów na ten koszt? A może od razu dwa lub trzy takie kosze, i przynieść je do parafii?

Muszę także wspomnieć o możliwości ofiarowania wypieków na tę okazję. W ubiegłych latach musieliśmy wydać mnóstwo pieniędzy na zakup ciast z innych źródeł. A trzeba powiedzieć, że nie jest to sposób, w jaki powinny być organizowane takie imprezy parafialne. Tylko wtedy możemy mieć duży dochód, jeśli sprzedawane pieczywo będzie OFIAROWANE. Prosimy wzięcie tej myśli pod uwagę: upiec i ofiarować jakiś placek. Niech świat odkryje znakomitych piekarzy z naszej parafii!

Budki? Czy powiedziałem „budki”? No cóż, te konstrukcje mogą powstać jedynie wtedy, jeśli znajdą się silne i sprawne ręce i nogi ochotników, którzy je zbudują i ustawią w budynku Social Center. Jeśli masz takie ręce i nogi, to pomyśl o wzięciu udziału w tym przedsięwzięciu w poniedziałek, wtorek i środę bezpośrednio poprzedzające rozpoczęcie festiwalu. Potrzebujemy czasu, aby właściwie ustawić wszystkie rzeczy. Liczymy także na TWOJĄ pomoc w uskutecznieniu tego projektu!

I na koniec: Wciąż jeszcze potrzebujemy wartościowych rzeczy na nagrody specjalne w naszej Chinese Auction Booth... Tak więc, jeśli jesteś we wspaniałomyślnym nastroju i zechcesz ofiarować I-pada, nowy telewizor lub jakąś inną wartościową rzecz, zapraszamy serdecznie do naszej budki. Nasi sprzedawcy są wytrenowanymi specjalistami w zachęceniu potencjalnych nabywców do kupna losów loterii, w której nagrodą są te ofiarowane rzeczy! Przyczynmy się do tego, aby mieli zajęcie!

To wszystko w tym tygodniu. PROSIMY o przemyślenie WSZYSTKICH tych wymienionych propozycji! Prosimy o WSPANIAŁOMYŚLNA odpowiedź! Z góry DZIĘKUJEMY! Festiwalowy Zespół Organizacyjny.

CALL ME!!! CALL ME!!! CALL ME!!!!!! CALL ME! CALL MEE!!!!!!

Volunteers are needed for so many jobs for the Polish Festival being held on October 5, 6, 7, 2012. Can't sit? We'll find you a standing job! Can't stand? We'll find you a sitting job? Can you work the entire weekend? That's great. We can use you. Can you work for a few hours one of the days of the festival? That's great, too. We can use you. Are you going out of town or working during the weekend of the festival? You'll miss all the festival fun, but we can use you in the evenings before the festival for set up. Just CALL and say: "I'd like to work at the festival this year." It's simple, but so, so, so very important. Please consider volunteering to help at the Polish Festival. It is approximately one month away! We can't run a festival without YOU! Contact Sharon Kozak at 330-467-8532 or sharonkozak@yahoo.com.

FESTIVAL NEWS

It all starts in 53 days! What can you do to help? Have you given some thought to donating a basket for our BASKET BOOTH? This booth is always one of our most successful money makers...BUT WE NEED BASKETS! So far one parishioner has dropped off two car loads. Would you PLEASE whip up a nice prize basket or two or three and bring them with you to a weekend Mass (or any other time during the week when we are at the rectory)?

Also I need to mention the prospect of parishioners donating home baked goods. In the past we have had to overspend on purchasing and repackaging and selling bakery from outside sources. That is NOT how things should be done at a parish event. We need DONATED items in order to make a decent profit. Please consider contributing to this booth's bounty with some creations from your treasured recipes. Let the world discover what fantastic bakers we have at our parish!

Booths? Did I say booths? Well these 'structures' can only come into being if we have the contributions of strong hands and legs and brains to construct these things and put them in place in the Social Center. If you are a 'handy' person, please consider volunteering with this project during the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday prior to the festival. We need time to set things up properly. Only YOU can help make this happen.

And we still need some GREAT special prizes as part of our Chinese Auction Booth....high end. Sooooo if you seem in a generous mood and find yourself wanting to purchase an I-pad or a new TV or something out of the ordinary as well as a higher price bracket, please don't hesitate to share that gift with our booth. We have trained specialists just waiting to lure people into buying tickets for these high end items! Let them earn their keep!

Well, that it for this week!!! PLEASE consider all of the above! Thanks! Festival Committee.
