THE FESTIVE SEASON OF EASTER CONTINUES

Where have all the flowers gone....? Remember that song? Well, we know where the flowers which bedecked our altars have gone! They are now in the process of storing their remaining energy as they congregate outside the church on the steps of our peace garden awaiting their planting somewhere on our vast parish grounds. The first to be planted will be the lilies (which will re-bloom this August, then in subsequent Junes thereafter). The bulbous plants (including the tulips and hyacinths in our case) will be planted in Autumn after they rest through the Spring and Summer and gather their vitamins back. The Garden Club has done such a magnificent job over the years sprinkling these flowers through our open spaces. We look forward to their continued success as the continue to work with some new faces and hands and backs and legs.

We were lucky this year to harvest our very own pussy willows from the Nazareth Park garden area. Now they form a lovely arch down the main aisle along with the forsythia and candles. This is the first year we were able to get so many branches from our standards as last Spring was very erratic with horrible blooms due to the wet weather.

Thanks to the generosity of so many parishioners via the floral offering envelopes we are able to continue decorating the church to various degrees all the way until the end of the Easter season, Pentecost. Along the way we will decorate for Mary's coronation and First Holy Communion. If there is anyone out there who would be willing to help pay for the zillions of rose petals which will float from the sky during the May Crowning, please contact me at the rectory. In the past individuals have stepped forward to donate flowers for individual events (e.g., the narcissus for Advent, flowers for the church during our festival). I hope someone will do the same for Mary's coronation.

We will also initiate something new this year on Mothers' Day by inviting people to purchase (for a small donation) a carnation that weekend which could then be given to either their own mother or placed at Mary's altar for that occasion. Empty vases will await your offering to the Mother of Jesus.

The season of Easter coincides with a season when many flowers begin to bloom in our own gardens. If, for example, you have any blooming lilacs in the upcoming weeks we would welcome cuttings of them to adorn our altars. They don't have a long life span after being cut, but they will contribute to the celebratory spirit of the season while in our church, if only for the weekend.

In between it all we will also celebrate (May 8th) the feast of our patron, St. Stanislaus. For that feast we like to decorate with red gladiolas. The term 'gladiola' is derived from the Latin 'gladius' meaning sword. Since St. Stanislaus was martyred with a sword, this is the appropriate flower, and red, being the color of martyrdom, the appropriate color. If you would like to contribute funds for this occasion in memory of a particular Stanislaus or Stanley who was a part of your life, please do!

Before you know it the flames of Pentecost will descend from the rafters and we will be hastily preparing our altars for the Corpus Christi procession through the streets of Slavic Village. Then Summer. Whew!!! Then preparations for the festival! Then Advent! Then Christmas! It never stops!!!! Oh well, while God grants us the energy to continue these great things for His glory, we must go for it. It is all a part of what makes life beautiful.

David Krakowski

Urodziłem się 29-01-1973r. Moim rodzinnym miastem jest Pilzno koło Tarnowa na granicy Małopolski i Podkarpacia. Moją wiarę, wychowanie i wykształcenie zawdzięczam troskliwym i kochającym rodzicom: mamie – Marii i nie żyjącemu już tatusiowi – Janowi. Mam trzy siostry – Annę, Barbarę i Agnieszkę, które mając swoje rodziny pracują jako nauczycielki.

Od najmłodszych lat bardzo lubiłem sport nie tylko w TV ale sam uprawiałem. Do tej pory jakoś mi to pozostało. Dlatego chętnie biegam, gram w piłkę nożną, pływam, jeżdżę na nartach, wędruje po górach. Mam cichą nadzieję, że to będę mógł dalej kontynuować pracując w Cleveland.

Będąc chłopcem byłem także ministrantem w kościele OO. Karmelitów, gdzie zapewne narodziło moje powołanie do służby Bogu i ludziom.

Do kapłaństwa przygotowywałem się w Wyższym Seminarium Duchownym w Rzeszowie. 13 maja 1999 roku w katedrze rzeszowskiej z rąk Ks. bp Kazimierza Górniego przyjąłem święcenia kapłańskie.

W Polsce pracowałem w Chmielniku, Głogowie Małopolskim, Gorlicach, Nienadówce a od kwietnia przyjechałem do parafii św. Stanisława w Cleveland aby posługiwać tutejszej Polonii.

Bardzo dziękuję za życzliwe przyjęcie mnie przez ks. proboszcza Erica Orzecha oraz parafialną Polonię co miało miejsce ubiegłej niedzieli.

Mam nadzieję, że praca mojego poprzednika ks. Andrzeja Panka oraz moja zaowocuje nie tylko większą liczbą Polonii, szczególnie młodzieży i dzieci uczestniczącej w niedzielnej Eucharystii ale też głębszą wiarą w codziennym życiu każdej osoby i rodziny.

O to będę się codziennie modlił, a Was drodzy parafianie proszę o modlitwę w mojej intencji, abym jak najlepiej wypełnił misję do której powołał mnie Chrystus.

St. Stanislaus Alumni Event raises $5000 for Elementary School

The official Dyngus Day Celebration was Monday, April 1, however St. Stanislaus Alumni Committee extended the festivities to Saturday, April 6th. The Social Hall on Baxter was a polka-fest featuring DJ Kishka. One hundred fifty-three alumni, family, friends and supporters for the Elementary School gathered in anticipation of winning the main raffle prize. Leading up to the drawing everyone enjoyed the music, the kielbasa and sauerkraut sandwiches, frankfurters, pizza and lots of Polish beer. What a wonderful time everyone had.

As a result of the successful ticket sales, Sharon Kozak, Chairperson of Alumni and Development, was able to present Mrs. Deborah Martin, Principal, with a check for $5,000—bringing the total Alumni contribution to $8,000 ($3000 was already given at the January Chili Cook Off) to cover some of the needs of the elementary school.

Winners of the main Ticket Raffle were:

3rd Prize – $350 – Anonymous to the Elementary School

2nd Prize – $500 – Norb Zielinski

1st Prize – $2,000 – Mike Arnold

The entrance 50/50 Raffle winner of $420 was Anita Dembkowski.

Congratulations and thank you to everyone who participated.

Thank You to the Alumni Committee and Mrs. Martin and her Elementary School teachers for all of their help during the evening.

The idea for an event maybe accredited to several people but the overall success goes back to the people who stepped forward in helping out and the people who supported this fundraiser by attending and purchasing tickets.

The St. Stan's Alumni Association is grateful for your support! Bob and Ingrid Sledz, Event Coordinators

Dads' Club Penny Raffle

The Dads' Club is currently sponsoring their annual penny raffle. By entering you will have a chance to win the 4 foot concrete statue of Mary which is now standing in the vestibule! Try your luck and see if you can have her in your garden for this coming May!

Caviar and Cytrynowka

Yep, these were on the menu at the 2012 Four Eagle Awards Ceremony. And that was just the start!! Most first-time guests were astonishingly surprised at the variety, quality, and quantity of food prepared last year for this event by Chef Richard Sklodowski of As You Like It Catering. It was truly a delectable feast served family style—all you can eat. The four-part menu was sumptuous: Cold table—beet salad, fruits/cheeses, white wine herring/deviled eggs, smoked white fish, sausage, & cytrynowka. Warm table—spring chicken with liver dumplings, baby potatoes with caviar, himmel and erde, & knapke. Entrees—beef roulades, whipped potatoes, marinated pork loin, fresh green beans, & chicken breast supreme. As the finale, a dessert buffet: cherry and apple strudels, cheese bombe, Hawaiian wedding cake, & assorted pizzells. The menu for 2013 is still in the planning stages, but it will be superb. It always is! All this and an open bar with TOP SHELF liquors, wines, beer, and pop. Everything for the incredibly low price of $75 / person or $550/eight. And don't forget the awesome Silent Auction! Have you thought of making a contribution to the Silent Auction? SAVE THE DATE: Friday, May 10! More information to follow.

Dziękujemy

Chcemy wyrazić naszą wdzięczność każdemu, kto poświęcił swój czas na upieczenie ciasta i przyniósł je na przyjęcie powitalne nowego wikarego parafii ks. Józefa Bożka. Jak powiedział, czuje się bardzo dobrze w naszej parafii. Ks. Andrzej Panek także wyraża wdzięczność tym wszystkim, którzy przyszli, aby się pożegnać z nim w ostatnią niedzielę po Mszy św. o godz. 10:00.

We would like to thank everyone who took time to share their baking talents with those welcoming our new parochial vicar Fr. Jozef Bozek. He feels most welcomed at our parish. Fr. Andrew Panek also expresses his thanks to those who came to the reception after the 10 AM Mass this past Sunday.

CLASS REUNION

On Saturday, April 27th, at the 5 PM Mass, the St. Stanislaus Elementary School Class of 1973 will have their 40th anniversary reunion. The group will sit together in the front of the church. If you were once a part of this class (if even if you did not graduate with them) you are invited to attend this event!

ANNUAL MAY CROWNING

In keeping with our longstanding tradition of honoring Mary on the first Sunday of her month you are all invited to attend her 'coronation' on Sunday, May 5th @ 4 PM. As usual, flowers will be available for a donation to be placed surrounding the image of Mary. The service will again be bi-lingual with a rosary recited as well as benediction of the Blessed Sacrament as well as the shower of rose petals. Please invite family and friends to this special tribute in honor of the Mother of God.

REMEMBERING MOTHER

Począwszy od Dnia Matki przez następny miesiąc będziemy odprawiać raz w tygodniu specjalną Mszę św. w intencji naszych żywych i zmarłych mam. Jeśli zechcesz dołączyć Twoją mamę (i inną kobietę ważną w Twoim życiu) do tych modlitw, prosimy o wypełnienie specjalnej koperty przeznaczonej do tego celu z napisem „Mother's Day” załączonej do biuletynu i/lub przy wejściu do kościoła, i wrzucenie jej do specjalnego koszyka przy ołtarzu Matki Bożej.

Beginning on Mothers' Day and continuing for the next month, a special Mass will be offered weekly for the intention of our living and deceased mothers. If you would like to include your mother (and other special women in your life) in these prayers, please fill out one of the special Mothers' Day envelopes found in the bulletin and/or at the entrances to the church, and leave it in the special basket in front of the Blessed Mother altar.
