Pope wants people to be 'on fire with love for Christ,' cardinal says

NEW YORK (CNS) -- Boston Cardinal Sean P. O'Malley said Pope Francis is a quintessential Ignatian Jesuit who has melded Jesuit and Franciscan spirituality into his approach to the papacy.

"Our pope is thoroughly Jesuit and thoroughly Ignatian, right down to the fascination with St. Francis," he said. And he is helping the world rediscover the joy of the Gospel for the greater glory of God, the cardinal said.

St. Ignatius founded the Society of Jesus, known as the Jesuits. Its motto is, "For the greater glory of God."

Cardinal O'Malley, a Capuchin Franciscan, spoke to more than 175 people at a March 19 forum on the Jesuit pope's first anniversary, held at the American Bible Society. The forum was co-sponsored by the Archdiocese of New York Catechetical Office and Crossroads Cultural Center. It was the second of three anniversary discussions led by Cardinal O'Malley -- in Baltimore, New York and Chicago.

Pope Francis has embraced the vocation of being a follower of St. Ignatius who wants to be a saint like St. Francis, Cardinal O'Malley said. He lives his Jesuit vocation with intense missionary spirit, a love for community that supports the mission and a disciplined life that does not want to waste anything, especially time.

The cardinal said Pope Francis embraces the introspection central to Jesuit spirituality, which is part of St. Ignatius' plan to keep Jesuits focused on God, despite their activist lifestyle.

The pope's discernment "frees him from doing some things in a certain way because it was always thus" and he is comfortable enough in his own skin that he is "not restrained by practices of pontificates in the past," Cardinal O'Malley said.

The cardinal is one of eight members of the pope's advisory Council of Cardinals. In a wide-ranging discussion after his address, Cardinal O'Malley said Pope Francis is on a steep learning curve, particularly with respect to the church in the United States.

"The Holy Father can't tackle all the issues at once. He has to prioritize in his mind," the cardinal said. "He is certainly very, very open to ideas and suggestions. He doesn't know the church in America well, but he is interested in learning more. His openness and inquisitiveness is encouraging to me."

Cardinal O'Malley said the pope's changes in the preparation and structure of synods as well as his selection of cardinal advisers from around the globe indicate he is trying to position himself to learn more and reach out to the universal church. "I'm amazed at how collegial he is," the cardinal said.

The pope is anxious to launch a committee for child protection, which is coming soon, and has recently spent a lot of time on the abuse issue, Cardinal O'Malley said. "His love for people and his sense of God's mercy is something that energizes everything he does and he brings that also to the way he looks at the sex abuse crisis."

The cardinal acknowledged he is "trying to be of service to the Holy Father in this area" because he has more experience than the other cardinal advisers.

Cardinal O'Malley said Pope Francis could be expected to change pastoral practice, but not doctrine. Paraphrasing a Rolling Stone magazine profile of the pope, he said Francis has changed the lyrics and not the melody.

The cardinal also said upcoming changes in the structures of Vatican departments and pontifical councils would likely open new posts for women. "Once the decisions are made about what the structure is going to look like, I think the Holy Father will be looking to place women in the structure that's being contemplated. The Holy Father is very anxious to do that," Cardinal O'Malley said.

Pope Francis's unsought celebrity status comes from people's fascination with his style, the cardinal said. The pope's desire to be with people strikes a chord in their hearts because it is counter to contemporary individualistic culture where people are alienated.

"People love what this man symbolizes. It's speaking to them. It goes beyond celebrity. The Holy Father is trying to get rid of some of the trappings and humanize the papacy, but it is his message, which is so evangelical and so needed, that is evoking a strong response."

The cardinal said Pope Francis doesn't have patience with the "humbug and clericalism" that get in the way of the greater mission to help people "be so on fire with our love for Christ in the Gospel that we'll want to go out and share that joy with other people."

PASTORAL COUNCIL NOMINATIONS

The annual election for new Parish Pastoral Council members will take place the weekend of May 10-11, 2014. Please spend some time prayerfully considering if you or someone you know would be able to serve the parish on this council. Evening meetings are held the third Tuesday of each month from September through June. Nomination forms are available through April 7th at the church entrances. Completed forms may be placed in the collection basket or turned in to one of the priests or council members. If you have any questions, please call the rectory at 216-341-9091.

NOMINACJE DO RADY PARAFIALNEJ

Doroczne wybory do Rady Parafialnej odbędą się w weekend 10-11 maja, 2014. Proszę zastanowić się nad wyborem kogoś, o kim wiecie, że jest odpowiedni, aby pełnić rolę członka tej Rady. Spotkania Rady Parafialnej mają miejsce w każdy trzeci wtorek miesiąca od września do czerwca. Formularze nominacji można znaleźć w przedsionku kościoła do 7 kwietnia. Po ich wypełnieniu można złożyć do koszyka w czasie niedzielnej kolekty lub też oddać jednemu kapłanów czy też dowolnemu członkowi obecnej Rady Parafialnej. W razie pytań, prosimy dzwonić do biura parafialnego 216-341-9091.

HOLY DUSTERS

Have you found yourself sneezing more and more while attending church services? It's not the pollen in the air yet, but it could be all the dust which cokes our pews, shrines, window sills and every other conceivable nook and cranny. Not your problem, you say? Think again.

This place is our shared responsibility. Perhaps you would like to come spend an hour or two or three before Easter helping clean God's house? Perhaps you could make this a regular thing? The regular cleaning crew meets every Wednesday around lunchtime, but that does not mean you can't come at other times. All it takes is a call to the rectory to let you into the church building, finding a spot on which to focus your energy and 'voila'! PLEASE consider helping us out. This place is so big with so many places that attract dust...our small crew is becoming overwhelmed.

GIFT CARDS FOR EASTER?????

With the Easter holiday right around the corner have you stopped by our 'gift card center' and picked up your Malley's gift card yet??? Those chocolate bunnies and caramellow eggs and peanut butter miniatures aren't going to jump into your basket by themselves!!! If you are not a chocolate fan (yeah, right!!) you can always choose from any of the many other gift card selections, all beneficial in helping out our church.

PARISH GROUNDS SPRING CLEAN UP

Rumor has it that the annual Spring clean up of our parish grounds is right around the corner. Think you can help? Think you can pick up debris or rake leaves or fill black trash bags up to the rim? WE NEED YOUR hands, backs and smiles to spruce up the outside of the church! Check the bulletin for details soon!

THE RETURN OF MR. ZAWADZKI

Polish-Canadian author Edward Zawadski will be in town this coming April 6th to discuss his latest project. He will be here throughout the weekend to sell his books and speak with interested parties.

ANOTHER ONE HITS THE DUST

As our neighborhood continues to undergo change we recently witnessed the demolishing of yet one more blighted property at 6707 Forman (right next to the CCC garden plot). This was made possible thanks to the generosity of the Knights of Columbus Southeast Council #3222. The property was cleared, awaiting some future development by a pioneer.

DON'T FORGET YOUR GIFT CARDS...they help fund our parish ministries!
And they make people HAPPY!

What did January have to offer for the St. Stanislaus Alumni & Friends?

Looking forward to a wonderful treat from 18 Chili Chefs...blizzard snow storm...chili cook off postponed because of blizzard!

Yes, Saturday, January 25th was not a day that we wanted our dear friends, family and chili chefs to travel. So early Friday all the chefs were contacted and most of them had not begun preparing their dish, and they all thought we were "nuts" for postponing the Chili Fest. The sun was shining, the roads were clear but the projected forecast was for some snow and snow it did. Starting Friday evening and throughout the day Saturday the roads were treacherous.

Saturday evening we were glad everyone was home safe. Some of the chefs may even have enjoyed a bit of their chili. Everyone was wondering when and how we would reschedule the Chili Cook Off.

Now the new date and time has been set for the JOINT VENTURE and it is...get your pens ready to mark your calendars...

Saturday, April 26, 2014 will be a joint venture! Yes, there will be Chili and Polkas and Pussy Willows ... What more could we ask for at the end of Lent? NO SNOW!

Look for flyers with the New Event Name:

Extended Dyngus Celebration and 4th Annual Chili Cook Off

5:00 p.m. -- Mass at Church for those wishing to attend

6:00 p.m. -- Chili and Music, in the Social Center on Baxter.

Music provided by Cleveland's own,
DJ Kishka,

$5 admission covers chili samples, salad and dessert.
Cash bar, side board raffles, basket raffles and more.

Hope to see everyone on April 26th in the St. Stanislaus Social Center.

Thank you for all of your support,
Bob Sledz, Alumni & Friends Chairman

INFANTS AND TODDLERS OF SLAVIC VILLAGE

Our baskets are looking great! You are helping to ease the pain of hunger for a small child and you are also fulfilling your Lenten duty of almsgiving! All it takes is a jar of peanut butter. A can of ravioli, a box of mac 'n cheese....thank you for keeping these children in mind...keep those baskets filled!

Drawing for the $25 gift card is right around the corner...you still have time to enter....bring in a food item and fill out an entry form!

Marie Busch

GORZKIE ZALE CDs

For anyone interested in obtaining a CD of the traditional Lenten Polish Lamentation service known as "gorzkie zale", they are available at the rectory (216-341-9091) for a nominal cost. Perhaps you know of someone who is homebound who might appreciate listening to this during Lent, thus being able to feel like a participant with the other parishioners in a spiritual way. The CD features the Choir from the Catholic University in Lublin, Poland.

'POLISH' STYLE BREAKFAST

Beginning this Sunday (as well as April 4,13,27 and May 11) the younger generation of our parish will sponsor a 'Polish' style breakfast as a means of raising some funds to present as a gift to Cardinal Dziwisz during his visit to Cleveland on May 15th, these funds to be used to help fund his St. John Paul II Center outside of Krakow.

The menu includes scrambled eggs, Polish sausage, hash browns, warm rolls, tomatoes/onions, coffee and/or tea. Price is $7 per adult and $3 for children 12 and under.

We hope you can join us one or all of the announced Sundays in the Social Center cafeteria. Mothers' day breakfast will be even more special!

Rada Parafialna

Jezus umywając nogi swoim Apostołom, stał się Sługą sług. Na przekór wszystkiemu... Może Ty weźmiesz pod uwagę taką samą postawę przyjmując na siebie obowiązki członka Rady Parafialnej. Potrzebujemy Twoich rąk, oczu i serca, przez które Jezus będzie mógł działać tu i teraz: w naszej parafii. Wybierz kulturę życia, nie tę – śmierci!

Rada Parafialna spełnia rolę oczu i uszu parafian. Nie wszyscy mają komfort dysponowania odpowiednią ilością wolnego czasu; nie każdy potrafi komunikować się bezpośrednio z pracownikami parafii. Z drugiej strony potrzeba przezwyciężenia fałszywej pokory. Dlatego prosimy o przemodlenie decyzji i odważne zaangażowanie w tej sprawie. Rada Parafialna spełnia te funkcje przekazując proboszczowi i jego współpracownikom życzenia czy pytania parafian.

Rada Parafialna wypełnia bardzo ważną i odpowiedzialną rolę. Z naszej strony powinna towarzyszyć modlitwa wspierająca kapłanów, pracowników parafii oraz członków Rady Parafialnej. Nikt z nas nie jest silny sam z siebie. Także i kapłani są tylko słabymi ludźmi. Dlatego módlmy się za siebie nawzajem, abyśmy przyczyniali się do umacniania kultury życia i ewangelizacji, która zawsze zaczyna się u siebie w domu.

Ofiara dla Ziemi Świętej z okazji Wielkiego Piątku

Zarejestrowani parafianie parafii św. Stanisława w pakiecie kopert na miesiąc kwiecień otrzymają też tą z napisem: „Holy Land” z datą 18 kwietnia 2014 przeznaczoną na utrzymanie sanktuariów upamiętniających życie, śmierć i zmartwychwstanie Pana Jezusa. Będziemy czynić to łącznie z katolikami na całym świecie. Pobyt franciszkanów w Ziemi Świętej i opieka nad miejscami związanymi z życiem Pana Jezusa sięga samego św. Franciszka. Owe miejsca uświęcone przez naszego Pana są naszym wspólnym dziedzictwem. Dlatego pamiętajmy o ofiarach, które pomogą je zachować.

KURTZ CARES

With the end of winter, people are preparing their gardens for spring and, yes, SUMMER!! Remember our friends at Kurtz Brothers! Every retail purchase completed at Kurtz provides our parish with a little income, which we will use for our own parish gardens. All you need to do is inform the cashier and mention our account number: 5001086.

Every three months Kurtz Brothers will total all our sales and then donate 10 percent of the proceeds to our church. If you forget the number, just mention our name.

Additional information about this program can be found at the www.KurtzCares.com web site. Kurtz has locations in Dublin, Valley View, Westerville, Garfield Hts., Groveport, Avon, Alexandria and Willowick. They also have a wholesale nursery open to the public adjacent to their Westerville landscape supply center. All nursery purchases likewise count toward our group's total.

Kurtz has been exceptionally generous to our parish, most recently being a major sponsor of our Polish Festival, so please consider patronizing their establishments in turn. Please participate in the Kurtz Cares program and help to support the ongoing efforts of our very own Garden Club!
