Pope: Cross isn't an ornament,
Christianity isn't a do-gooder's guide

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Christianity isn't a philosophy or guide to survival, good behavior and peace, it's a relationship with a real person who died on the cross for our sins, Pope Francis said.

"Christianity can't be understood without understanding this deep humiliation of the son of God, who abased himself, becoming a servant to the point of his death and death on the cross" in order to serve humanity, the pope said.

In his homily April 8 during an early morning Mass in the chapel of the Domus Sanctae Marthae, Pope Francis focused on the day's reading from the Book of John (8:21-30), in which Jesus tells the Pharisees and the Jews that those who belong to this world and do not believe in him "will die in your sins."

Jesus tells them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will realize that I am," the son of God, obeying God's will.

"Christianity doesn't exist without the cross and a cross doesn't exist without Jesus Christ," the pope said, according to a report by Vatican Radio.

The cross, however, "isn't an ornament" that is just placed in churches and on altars, and "it's not a symbol" of identification, he said.

"The cross is the mystery, the mystery of God's love, who lowers himself, who makes himself 'nothing'" and takes on humanity's sins, he said.

If people want to find their sins, he said, they should look to the cross, to "the Lord's wounds," and it's there that their sins will be healed and forgiven.

God's forgiveness doesn't mean "the debt we have with him is erased: the forgiveness that God gives us are the wounds of his son on the cross, lifted up on the cross, in which he pulls us toward him and we let ourselves be healed."

Jesus took everything upon himself, "all of our sins, our pride, our self-assurance, our vanity, our desire to become like God," the pope said. That is why "a Christian who doesn't know how to glory in the crucified Christ hasn't understood what being a Christian means."

"Christianity isn't a philosophical doctrine, it isn't a guide to life for survival, for being well-behaved and for building peace. These are the results," he said. "Christianity is a person, a person lifted up on the cross, a person who abased himself to save us."

Panie, kto uwierzył temu, cośmy usłyszeli

Arcykapłan na swe pytanie usłyszawszy prawdę, oburza się a złośliwy sługa wymierza Jezusowi policzek. Twarz lśniąca niegdyś jak słońce (Mt 17,2), pozwala bić się niecnymi rękoma. Inni też podchodzą i plują na twarz Tego, który śliną uzdrowił ślepego od urodzenia. „Tak się odpłacacie Panu, przewrotny i nierozumny ludu?” (Pwt 32,26). Również Prorok zdziwiony mówi: „Panie, kto uwierzył temu, cośmy usłyszeli”. Było nie do uwierzenia, że Bóg, Syn Boży i ramię Pan, tak cierpi. A jednak ci, którzy się zbawiają, nie stracili wiary, w imieniu Chrystusa napisał Duch Święty: „Grzbiet swój podałem bijącym” – przed ukrzyżowaniem Bowiem kazał Go Piłat ubiczować – „i moje policzki rwącym mi brodę, nie odwróciłem twarzy przed zniewagami”. Jakby chciał powiedzieć: Widziałem naprzód, że mnie będą bić, a jednak nie odwróciłem policzka. Jak umocniłbym swych uczniów na śmierć za prawdę, gdybym się sam tego lękał. Powiedziałem: „Kto miłuje swoje życie, straci je” (J 12,25). Gdybym miłował swoje życie i nie czynił tego, co głosiłem, jakim byłbym nauczycielem?

On sam tedy, choć był Bogiem, chciał wpierv cierpieć od ludzi, abyśmy się nie wstydzili coś od ludzi wycierpieć. Jak widzisz, i to prorocy przepowiedzieli wyraźnie. Musimy – jak powiedzieliśmy – wiele innych świadectw Pisma Świętego pominąć, z braku czasu. Gdyby kto chciał wszystko dobrze zbadać, znalazłby na wszystko wiele świadectw.

Niech się nikt nie wstydzí zaszczytnych znaków naszego zbawienia i tego najwyższego dobra, dzięki któremu żyjemy i dzięki któremu jesteśmy (Dz 17,28), a tak nośmy krzyż Chrystusa, jakby jakiś wieniec.

Przezeń dokonuje się wszystko, co odnosi się do nas.
