FAITH IN THE WORKING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Well the media is abuzz again with the sensational story of the impending death and/or retirement of Pope Francis within a few years. A new distraction, but for us Catholics, one which would be no surprise or tragedy. Why not? Because our faith leads us to believe in the working of the Holy Spirit. If a conclave were held tomorrow, the Holy Spirit would guide the electors to choose another good pope! If, a month later, we needed to choose another pope to replace him, no big thing. It wouldn't be the first time! Over the centuries we have believed the Holy Spirit has guided the cardinals in conclave to choose a worthy candidate for the position. Or do we?

When listening to many Catholics, priests included, one would wonder if this is true. So many 'Catholics' have an outright dislike or outright disrespect for the current pontiff, it is simply amazing. He rubs them the wrong way. He is going overboard with this 'poverty' thing. He ignores liturgical rules. He doesn't wear Roman chasubles. He is not tough enough on certain issues while others seem to be his only concern. Loyalty? Belief that the Holy Spirit is at work? Or do you believe the Holy Spirit was really not a part of his election? Of course, this all makes the rest of us wonder whether those who fall into the ranks of the chronic complainers are not really sincere in their faith or simply enjoy the spotlight or 'matka bolesna' or 'Debbie downer' state of mind.

Of course the same sad state existed when we had a Polish born pope. Some 'Catholics' simply would not accept his message. Others only listened (sort of) because he WAS Polish. His numerous writings were never digested by the Church let alone appreciated. The same held true for the 'German' born pope. Now we have an Argentinian! So what??? As if the Holy Spirit works within boundaries!!!???

You, no doubt, heard the recent revelations regarding Pope Francis' health issues. At that point in time, did you pray for the continued health of Christ's Vicar on earth or did you find yourself wishing he would drop dead soon so he could be replaced with someone more in line with your vision of the Church. Well??? Quite honestly, to hear many people talk, priests as well as laity, this is not a foreign notion.

The powers of good and those of evil are in constant battle. Just look no further than the mirror let alone the TV screen or newspaper. Every moment we are bombarded with choices between the two. Here, at St. Stanislaus, we regularly experience grumblings, envy, jealousy, indifference. It so often seems that we are throwing in the towel to allow evil the gold medal. Rather than trying to maintain a degree of humility and holiness we often succumb to the obvious hatred and sin which works so very hard to destroy our faith. The crosses we have been given are there to strengthen, not diminish our faith. Yet, how easily we give in. Don't like the sermons? Well, then pray for the priest! H Don't like someone's lack of attention? Well, try to fill that void with kindness to those who feel neglected. Feel like you have been ignored and abandoned? I think Jesus felt the same thing in the Garden of Gethsemane. DO NOT GIVE UP! That is precisely what Satan would love you to do!! Don't feel discouraged! Believe in the power of prayer—that it really, truly CAN change things! Remember, everyone has bad days and no one person can always be 'up'.

Pray for Pope Francis! Pray for our priests AND pray for vocations to the priesthood! Pray for our parish and all the parishioners! But do not give up! Do not decide you have to move to seemingly greener pastures! That is so lame! You either believe in the power of the Holy Spirit or you don't. You either believe in the power of prayer or you don't! Think positive! Take up the cross and use it as a compass, not as a rope around your neck. See the beauty in that challenge and know that God has not abandoned you. I can hear it now: "that's easy for you to say, you work in the church!" Well, news flash...it's even harder. Please pray for me and everyone who works here at St. Stanislaus Church and School. We are regularly prime targets of the Prince of Darkness.

David Krakowski

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU!

Well, after what seems like a century of dedication, hard work and invisible appreciation, we must bid adieu to our parish webmaster, Debbie Grale. Debbie has been an active participant in the life of our parish for some time now. Many of you will remember how she stepped up to the plate and helped the parish office immediately following the untimely death of Fr. Gulas. She also worked tirelessly with us to create the 'Four Eagle' event! Once the rectory was completed Debbie was blessed to have found the love of her life, Denis Yeso. The two were married and moved to Chicago. A few years later Denis was diagnosed with cancer. He died this past May 30th. Now Debbie has a lot on her plate and is no longer free to perform the work of webmaster for the parish site. For years she has requested we find a replacement...now it is final. Such dedication is admirable. Through the grace of God and prayers of friends she managed to negotiate a very heavy cross. Now we extend our deepest thanks for her many years of service. She has been a friend, a confidante and a star servant of God and this parish. May God keep her in His heart as her journey through life continues.

Put your life-long, hard earned assets to work for the Lord. A planned gift acknowledges that we are simply stewards of all that God has provided. We are managers of His blessings upon us. Just as we sacrificially give throughout our lives, we give our final gift at the end of our lives here on earth. By sharing our gifts, our charity does not end when we are gone. As we enter eternal life so too does our gift.

We Need Your Help!

A large portion of our Polish Festival profits now come from the Sponsorship Book, which made its debut last year. One-third of last years' profits were the result of that book. We are hoping to maintain that level of income this year.

This is where we need your assistance to find Festival sponsors and advertisers. We are asking our parishioners to try and help us in this major task. Advertisements can be placed in the book for as little as $35. Prices vary with the size of the ad. Personal ads are also welcome for family remembrances and other "best wishes" listings.

Together, we can make this a success.

If your bakery says "NO", don't be discouraged. Ask somewhere else. If nobody asks, we won't get any advertisements. Currently, 2 or 3 people are carrying the load for the entire parish. PLEASE, share the load with them.

Many of our parishioners live in the suburbs. There are various businesses in Garfield Heights, Parma, and other suburbs that are places our parishioners frequent. Ask them to advertise with us. It's a great way to showcase their business to large number of people for a very modest price.

There are prizes that will be awarded to those that sell (1) the largest total dollar value of ads, (2) the greatest number of ad sold, and (3) everyone who sells an ad is eligible for a $100 gift card drawing. Personal ads do not qualify for the rewards.

Refer to the inserts in the August 3rd bulletin for further information.

THANK YOU FOR ANY HELP YOU CAN PROVIDE.

FESTIVAL COMMITTEE MEETING

Our Festival 2014 meeting is THIS MONDAY, August 25 @ 7 PM in the rectory. If you have a major area of responsibility during the festival, please plan to attend. We've tried to implement some suggestions from the past and hope to continue moving ahead in a grand way once again. Thanks to all the people behind the scenes who have been preparing things for the past few months, including the team who mailed out the raffle tickets over the past two weeks. Please do your best to sell your tickets as they provide a huge part of the income from this event. Plus...you could be a big winner yourself!!! Nothing ventured—nothing gained! Thanks to everyone who already sent in their winning stubs!

FESTIVAL BASKETS AND PRIZES

It's getting closer!!! The Parish Polish Festival is a little over a month away! Have you had a chance to put together a basket (or even gather things to put into a basket...and let our team of professional basket stuffers do their thing)????? Every little bit helps. Please try to contribute to this aspect of our festival as it is a true attraction to all our guests...and a good money maker for the parish! Baskets or materials for baskets are requested to be delivered to the church by mid September (to allow time for everything to be assembled properly). So, if you can, please bring your donations to Mass over the weekend and help the cause.

Extra baskets are in the church vestibule for those of you who do not have any extras around the house.

Hymn na wejście

24. VIII. 2104

Jest zakatek na tej ziemi, gdzie powracac kazdy chce,
Gdzie kroluje Jej oblicze, na nim ciete rysy dwie.
Wzrok ma smutny, zatroskany, jakby chciala prosic cie,
Bys w matczyna Jej opiece oddal sie!

*Madonno, Czarna Madonno, jak dobrze Twym dzieckiem byc!
O, pozwol, Czarna Madonno, w ramiona Twoje sie skryc!*

W Jej ramionach znajdziesz spokoj i uchronisz sie od zla,
Bo dla wszystkich swoich dzieci Ona serce czule ma.
I opieka cie otoczy, gdy Jej serce oddasz swe,
Gdy powtorzysz Jej z radoscia slowa te: Madonno....

Na Ofiarowanie: (refren) Dobra Matko

*Jestes tuz obok mnie, jestes ze mna,
W rannej mgle, w sloncu dnia i w noc ciemna,
Wspierasz mnie, chronisz mnie, w swych ramionach,
Jestes tuz obok mnie w kazdy dzien!*

Hymn na komunie: (refren)

Dzieki Ci, Panie, za Cialo Twe i Krew,
Za dary nieskonczone wielbimy Cie!

Na Zakonczenie:

Maryjo, Krolowo Polski, Maryjo, Krolowo Polski
Jestem przy Tobie, pamietam. Jestem przy tobie, pamietam, czuwam! (3X)
