The Communion procession at each liturgy is an affirmation of faith in the mystery before us at every eucharistic celebration, that of the transformation of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus. All approach the altar of the Lamb of God to partake of the sacrifice which redeemed us once in time yet redeems us now for eternity.

During this Easter season and extending to the feast of Corpus Christi, June 22, our Communion procession will involve the singing of the title of this article as the refrain of our hymn. The interpolated verses will contemplate on the mysteries woven throughout this liturgical period of intense mystery and activity resulting from the core belief of the mystery of Christ's sacrifice to His Father and the consequent action of the Holy Spirit breathing eternal life into the church.

By singing this simple and profound refrain and reflecting on the additional phrases, your Easter experience may fortify your personal faith as well as that of the entire community.

Wesołego Alleluja!

David Krakowski

I WON'T BELIEVE UNLESS...

Recently the Lord has sent across my way a few young adults who are struggling with questions about faith. These were not simple inquiries about why we believe such and such, or where a certain tradition came from, or wondering about something pertaining to the Bible. These were the deep down, God-stuff kind of questions that indicate some serious doubt about God, religion, and what it is all about anyway.

It is normal and wonderful for young people to search out the deeper meaning of what they had been taking for granted since their childhood. It is a sign of maturity when someone wants truly to understand something and not simply to accept it only because someone else said so. In fact, adults should continue to grow in all areas of life, including their faith. After all, if the boss at your job demands more than an eighth grade level of education in order for you to perform well, why should your faith be any less advanced?

But it is one thing to grow in the faith you already have, and quite another to wonder whether you have faith at all in the first place. This is what is going on in the Gospel story today. Thomas needed to see proof before he could believe what the others had been telling him. And for this simple reason, he would be branded through all of history as the “doubting Thomas!” But what was so unreasonable about his request? After all, the others got their proof — why couldn't he have his?

Jesus understood Thomas completely. Instead of berating him, Jesus obliged him by offering him exactly the kind of “proof” Thomas needed. It was as if Jesus were saying, “OK, whatever you need in order to come to faith, I'll do for you.” When Thomas saw that Jesus was so ready to help move him into truly believing, that was enough for him to exclaim, “My Lord and my God!”

So, just what exactly was going on here in this encounter between Thomas in his doubt and Jesus in his presence to him? First of all, Thomas was genuinely seeking, not simply rebelling or rejecting just for the sake of it, or being lazy. He wasn't looking for reasons to dis-believe, but to believe. On Jesus' part, it was his genuine openness to Thomas's question, and his patience with meeting Thomas on his own terms, that helped Thomas be ready to receive the gift of faith.

Many parents wonder and despair why their own children, whom they had raised as devout Catholics, would seem to leave behind what they had been given. Good parents always want the best for their children, and it hurts especially deeply when their children seem to turn their backs on one of the most precious gifts their parents give them. Certainly, some people (young and old) are simply lazy and couldn't be bothered about the deeper questions of life, death, God, and eternity. But others have genuine journeys of the mind and heart. This kind of search asks of others that the attitude of Jesus prevail — respect for the question, patience with the search, and willingness to meet the seekers on their own terms.

Remember: faith is a gift, and God — not Mom & Dad, not a teacher, not the priest or sister — is the giver.

MIŁOSIEDZIE BOŻE

Zaraz w pierwszą niedzielę po Wielkanocy Kościół oddaje cześć Miłosierdziu Bożemu. Święto to ma najwyższą rangę wśród wszystkich postaci nabożeństwa do Miłosierdzia Bożego, które zostały objawione siostrze Faustynie. Po raz pierwszy o ustanowieniu tego święta mówił Pan Jezus w Płocku w 1931 roku, gdy przekazywał swą wolę, co do powstania obrazu: Ja pragnę, aby było Miłosierdzia święto. Chcę, aby ten obraz, który wymalujesz pędzlem, był uroczyste poświęcony w pierwszą niedzielę po Wielkanocy; ta niedziela ma być świętem miłosierdzia (Dz.49).

Wybór pierwszej niedzieli po Wielkanocy na święto Miłosierdzia ma swój głęboki sens teologiczny, który wskazuje na ścisły związek, jaki istnieje pomiędzy wielkanocną tajemnicą Odkupienia a tajemnicą miłosierdzia Bożego. Ten związek mocno podkreśla nowenna z koronki do Miłosierdzia Bożego, poprzedzająca to święto, która rozpoczyna się w Wielki Piątek. To święto jest nie tylko dniem szczególnego uwielbienia Boga w tajemnicy miłosierdzia, ale także czasem łaski dla wszystkich ludzi; do siostry Faustyny Pan Jezus powiedział: Pragnę, aby święto Miłosierdzia było ucieczką i schronieniem dla wszystkich dusz, a szczególnie dla biednych grzeszników (Dz.699).

W czerwcu 1999 roku Jan Paweł II odwiedził sanktuarium Miłosierdzia Bożego w Łagiewnikach, gdzie znajdują się relikwie siostry Faustyny. Wówczas wyznał: “Orędzie Miłosierdzia Bożego zawsze było mi bliskie i drogie. Historia jakby wpisała je w tragiczne doświadczenie II wojny światowej. W tych trudnych latach było ono szczególnym oparciem i niewyczerpanym źródłem nadziei i nie tylko dla krakowian, ale i dla całego Narodu. Było to i osobiste doświadczenie, które zebrałem ze sobą na stolicę Piotrową które niejako kształtuje obraz tego pontyfikatu”.

Siostra Faustyna zmarła niespełna rok przed wybuchem II wojny światowej, 5 października 1938 roku, przeżywszy zaledwie 33 lata. W sierpniu, gdy była jeszcze w szpitalu, jedna z siostr ze Zgromadzenia Matki Bożej Miłosierdzia usłyszała z jej ust słowa: Wojna będzie strasznie długo trwała, będzie strasznie dużo nieszczęść. Cierpienia okropne spadną na ludzi.

Niejako paradoksalnie, ta wojna równocześnie spowodowała niezwykle rozprzestrzenienie się kultu Miłosierdzia Bożego, który dotarł do wielu zakątków kuli ziemskiej dzięki Polakom tułającym się po wojennych szlakach. Wraz z nimi zaś wędrowały wizerunki Jezusa Miłosiernego z napisem “Jezu, ufam Tobie”.

Aby skorzystać z wielkich darów Bożego miłosierdzia, trzeba wypełnić warunki nabożeństwa do Miłosierdzia Bożego (ufność w dobroć Boga i czynna miłość bliźniego) oraz być w stanie łaski uświęcającej (po spowiedzi) i godnie przyjąć Komunię świętą: Nie znajdzie żadna dusza usprawiedliwienia, dopóki nie zwróci się z ufnością do miłosierdzia mojego i dlatego pierwsza niedziela po Wielkanocy ma być świętem Miłosierdzia, a kapłani mają w dniu tym mówić duszom o tym wielkim i niezgłębionym miłosierdziu moim (Dz.570). Kto w tym dniu przystąpi do ródła Życia, ten dostąpi zupełnego odpuszczenia win i kar (Dz.300). / .../ niech się nie lęka zbliżyć do mnie żadna dusza, chociażby grzechy jej były jako szkarlat (Dz.666).

MANY THANKS!

Once again, our parish celebration of the Sacred Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter continued our tradition of giving glory to God with the gift of worship that is reverent, festive, and spirit-filled. So many parishioners — especially the choirs and the Art & Environment Committee — spent themselves in giving generously of their time and talent so that others may encounter the living God in praise, and we are grateful to them.

ANNUAL EASTER MASS FOR THE HOMEBOUND

AVE MARIA CONCERT
ST. STANISLAUS COMBINED CHOIRS AND
MUSICAL FRIENDS

Catholic tradition has always placed Mary, the Mother of God, in a most honored position. At St. Stanislaus, the tradition of a Marian concert coupled with prayer and a formal crowning pays tribute to Our Lady at 4:00 PM on May 4, the first Sunday of her month. In the midst of the Easter Season, the music will have a celebratory character and will inspire all present. Vocal and Floral tributes will again set this concert apart from all others. Flowers will be available in the vestibule for a donation.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME! Don't think it is possible? The Pulaski Franciscan Community Development Corporation, our parish initiative to revitalize our neighborhood, is now able to help families and individuals afford a brand new house within walking distance of the church. Even if you've never owned a home before, now might be the time to take the plunge. Interest rates have never been lower, property prices are rising in Slavic Village, and we are just at the beginning of a great reawakening. Quality rentals are also available from time to time. Call Marilyn at 883-4432

ST. STAN'S DAD'S CLUB will present "A Night At the Races" at St. Stan's Social Center on Saturday, May 10th, to benefit Fr. William Gulas Memorial Fund. Doors will open at 6:30 PM and the first of 11 great races will begin at 7:00 PM. There will be a featured Auction Race after the regular races. Advance tickets are $10.00, the tickets will be $12.00 at the door. Included with your ticket will be dinner with all the trimmings, beer, pop, wash, and snacks. NO BYOB. Music by "JAMMIN JIMMY BARAN." For more info please call Frank Krajewski — 441-4258, John Sklodowski — 641-7624, or Art Mosinski — 641-9932.

THE YEAR OF SAINT STANISLAUS The Feast of Saint Stanislaus is celebrated in the universal Church on April 11, but our parish community has usually celebrated this great feast in a muted way, since it most often falls during or around Holy Week. This year, however, marks the 750th anniversary of the canonization of St. Stanislaus. Our parish community will make this entire year special with a number of observances, beginning with a special Mass on Thursday, May 8 at 6:00 PM. The Mass will be celebrated in Polish and English, and we will also dedicate a special place of honor for the relic of Saint Stanislaus, given to us by the Holy Father during his visit here years ago. May 8 is the traditional day still observed in Poland, and it also gives us time to give special attention to our patron. Please keep that date clear and invite friends and family for this wonderful celebration!

ST. STANS HIGH ALUMNI. Graduates of St. Stanislaus High School are asked to help Cleveland Central Catholic in its planning of a huge reunion of graduates of the original four high schools which formed CCC. The four schools were St. Stanislaus, Our Lady of Lourdes, St. Michael, and St. John Cantius High Schools. If you would like to help in planning this event or have any questions contact Nick Scolaro at CCC at 216- 441- 4700, extension 224.

THE FOUR EAGLES Are you familiar with the legend regarding the four eagles? Well, one way to satisfy your inquisitiveness could be to attend the First Annual Four Eagle Award Ceremony on Thursday evening, May 8, at 7:30PM at the Polish American Cultural Center on Lansing Avenue. Reservations for this event may be made by calling the convectory during parish business hours. The most important part of this celebration will be our Mass at 6:00PM during which time we will have the formal enshrinement of the relic of St. Stanislaus given to us by Karol Kardynał Wojtyła during his visit here in 1976.

DON'T BUY SPRING FLOWERS... YET!

Every year at this time, our friends at Broadway Garden Center offer our school an opportunity to help out with a fundraising promotion. They have given us the best date of the year — the day before Mother's Day — as the day when our school benefits from their sales. A generous portion of their sales that day go directly to our Elementary School. Just say you are from St. Stan's, and shop 'til you drop!

PRAY FOR THOSE SERVING IN COMBAT OVERSEAS
