FAST AND ABSTINENCE DURING THE LENTEN SEASON

Abstinence The law of abstinence requires a Catholic 14 years of age until death to abstain from eating meat on Fridays and on Good Friday.

Fasting The law of fasting requires a Catholic from the 18th Birthday (Canon 97) to the 59th Birthday (I.e. the beginning of the 60th year, a year which will be completed on the 60th birthday) to reduce the amount of food eaten from normal. The Church defines this as one meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Such fasting is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

CREATE IN ME A CLEAN HEART, O GOD

Each Lenten season we sing a common responsorial psalm on Sundays throughout the season. This year we will be singing psalm 51, a response to the group of First Readings from the Old Testament dealing with different aspects of the idea of 'covenant.' God's covenant with humankind is written on their hearts, thus the desire to keep that heart free from sin is foremost on our minds. Lent is our time for preparation.

The melody is a simple one in keeping with the more sober atmosphere of the season. When we sing the psalm one final time at the Easter Vigil, it will have developed musically to a different level, one of anticipated joy. In fact, it will directly precede the great "Gloria" of that liturgy signaling the unique spirit of joy which alone is felt on that holy night when "Jesus Christ broke the chains of death and rose triumphant from the grave." On that night, "heaven is wedded to earth and man is reconciled with God."

The clean heart which we desire will prepare us for our restoration to grace allowing our common growth in holiness which is the result of the covenant of Christ's blood which paid the price for Adam's sin, serving as a ransom to our eternal Father. Throughout the season we will ask that God gives us back the joy of His salvation, and that He restore in us a willing spirit. We offer God a contrite spirit as our sacrifice – a heart contrite and humbled.

Thus we begin our journey through Lent. We sing Kyrie Eleison over and over and over as we prepare our hearts for the writing of that covenant.

THE "ROUND TUIT"

This Lent, get one.

When will it be time to evaluate your prayer life? When is the time to recommit to Sunday Mass, even to try to attend daily Mass as a means of inviting extra grace into your day? Ever attend Morning Prayer at 8:00 AM in our church, twenty minutes of prayer to sanctify the rest of the day? When will be the time to start praying again with the old rosary you've had sitting in your dresser drawer? Or to go out and buy a new one, since you can't even find your old one? What about the Stations of the Cross — remember those? To start anew, all you need is the fine product named in the title of this reflection. Get it.

Ever been to Sunday evening vespers during Lent? Have you heard people talk about how deeply prayerful and contemplative it is? How nice it is to see lay people — women, men, young adults — presiding at the prayers, the way the Church allows and invites? How moving it is to hear the personal faith testimonies of fellow parishioners as they offer reflections? Has anyone told you about how a couple dozen prayerful people can fill the church with the voices of praise and song? If you have experienced it before, are you planning on coming back? If you haven't experienced this prayer yet, have you thought about coming? You can, if you get one of those wonderful products advertised in the title to this reflection.

Ever wonder if the church would ever sponsor a class or program so that adults can enrich their faith? Does it seem that only other churches have Bible Study? Wouldn't it be nice if our own parish could offer these chances for ongoing faith formation? After all, you wouldn't trust your health to a doctor whose education never went past 8th grade — why trust your faith life to only what you learned in grade school? When would be a good time to start this? In the parish, in your own schedule? The answer, of course, is getting that thing mentioned in the headline of this article.

In our culture where we are tempted to satisfy any desire, no matter how unhealthy or dangerous, have you ever wondered how it is possible to slow down the impulse to greed, gluttony, and selfishness? Have you seen in your own life that there is too much clutter, too many distractions, too many misplaced priorities — and wondered whether and when it is possible to clear things up? Does it seem that the ancient disciplines of fasting and abstinence should make sense again in our lives, but you are not sure when the right time is to take this kind of thing seriously? Well, then, all you really need is the amazing "round tuit."

Does it seem that the problem of poverty is a disgrace to our wealthy country, but you wonder who is supposed to take care of it? Has it struck you that, of all the so-called social problems we are told that Christians should be worried about, the one that most troubled Jesus was the way the poor are treated? Does it seem that the followers of Christ should have some kind of answer to that? Do you ever feel that a simple generous gesture on the part of just one person doesn't seem like enough, but you still need to try to do something? But you don't know when, or how? Then you need — that's right, you guessed it —

A round tuit. Get one this Lent.

WALKA Z POKUSA

Kazdy grzech jest przyjeciem pokusy szatana. Pokusa dosiega kazdego czlowieka i kazdy zna duchowe udreki, jakie sprawia. Zly duch, poslugujac sie klamstwami, roztacza przed czlowiekiem wizje postaw, czynow i korzysci z nich plynacych, które w ostatecznosci tylko pozornie sa pozytywne, dobre i korzystne. Kazda uleglosc im prowadzilo porazki.

Hagiografowie nieraz twierdza, ze najsmrozszych pokus doznawali najwieksi swieci. Jesli istotnie pokusy bywaja jakos proporcjonalne do swietosci kuszonego, to jakiez musiały byc wobec Najswietszego? Mozna domniemywac, ze Bóg wcielony w Jezusa z Nazaretu doznawal pokus najintensywniejszych. Stawszy sie podobnym do nas we wszystkim oprócz grzechu, upodobnil sie do nas az do doswiadczenia pokus. W nich przezywal czlowieczestwo od najtrudniejszej strony: od strony niebezpieczenstwa utraty jednosci z Bogiem i ponizenia swojej godnosci, a zatem od strony niebezpieczenstwa grzechu. Rozumial wiec doskonale czlowieka.

Jezus intensywnie kuszony, nie uległ zadnej pokusie. Posiadajac przez Wcielenie ludzka wolna wole, w doswiadczeniu pokus stal wobec koniecznosci dokonywania wolnych wyborow moralnych i zawsze dokonywal ich zgodnie z wola Ojca. Najwyrazniej potwierdza to modlitwa w Ogrójcu. Odsuwajac pokusy, ukazywal szczyty moralnych mozliwosci czlowieka. Jezus, znajac slabosc czlowieka, mimo tego wskazywal mu, iz powinien miec takie wewnetrzne nastawienie i tak ukszaltowana wole, aby opierac sie pokusom i nie dopuszczac do grzechu. Chrystus mówi kazdemu, ze zwyciezanie pokus jest mozliwoscia, obowiazkiem, a takze miara wielkosci czlowieka. On wszedl w czlowieczestwo az do doswiadczenia pokusy, by czlowiek umocniony przez Niego, mógł doswiadczac zwyciestwa nad pokusa. Zwyciezanie pokus wymaga bezwzgleidnie wspolpracy z laska Boza.

Wielki Post zacheca do szczegolnego rachunku sumienia, do szczerego wyznawania grzechow, do dowartosciowania sakramentu pokuty i pojednania. W nim czlowiek spotyka milujacego i zbawiajacego Chrystusa. Zauwazmy jednak, ze Ten, który gladzi grzechy swiata, z calym naciskiem wzywa, zeby czlowiek do sytuacji grzechu nie dopuszczal. Rozeznana pokusa winna natychmiast i z cala stanowczoscia byc odepchnieta. Od tej natychmiastowej dezaprobaty wiele zalezy. Szatan pokusy ponawia i intensyfikuje. Czyni to zwlaszcza wtedy, gdy spotyka sie z brakiem moralnego zdecydowania czlowieka, który nieraz próbuje znalezc delikatna granice miedzy tym, na co sobie jeszcze moze pozwolic, a co juz ewidentnie staje sie grzechem. Taka postawa osmiela szatana, a czlowieka oslabia i najczesciej doprowadza go do grzechu.

W walce z pokusa umacnia nas przyklad Chrystusa. Nie bez znaczenia jest to, ze Chrystus zwycieza pokusy podczas czterdziestodniowego postu. Praktyka postu podnosi wzralnosc moralna czlowieka, umacnia jego wole, a zatem uzdalnia do zdecydowanego oporu wobec pokusy. Chrystus z postem laczy modlitwe. Mistrz daje tez zapewnienie, ze sila pokusy nigdy nie przewyzsza sily kuszonego.

Zwyciezanie pokus to nasze nawracanie, to wygrywanie naszego czlowieczestwa.

ks. Jerzy

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT.

The statue of St. Catherine is on the second pillar from the sanctuary on the schoolyard side of the church. St. Catherine's statue is denoted by a spiked wheel as she faces the main altar. She entered into a mystical marriage with Jesus upon her conversion to the faith. St. Catherine refused the attentions of the Emperor, who ordered her to be killed on a spiked wheel. After the wheel broke she was beheaded.
