Christus Vincit! Christ conquers! Chrystus Wodzem!
Christus Regnat! Christ reigns! Chrystus Królem!
Christus Imperat! Christ commands! Chrystus w²adc¹ nam!

We sing these words as the procession of ministers moves through the church. This group represents the people of all the ages, past present and future. These representatives march and proclaim the greatness of Christ. You will only see the obvious—the bishop, the priests, the servers. However, they are not alone! That procession actually contains all of creation, all matter and being for which Christ will ritually enter the drama of his passion, death and resurrection during the next week. It is this creation which was bought with His body and blood. It is this creation which has cried out for His love since Eden's apple.

The 'hosannas' of the Hebrews bearing olive branches scream out with our words, our silence, our stares as we enter this holiest of weeks. The 'hosanna' to the Son of David, the King of Israel is still uttered in the Holy Land which caressed His blood and tears and that same paen still passes our lips at each Eucharistic Sacrifice. All saints and sinners who were the focus of Christ's act of love join our feeble attempt to celebrate, commemorate, consummate what God had breathed and what Angels but imagine.

The Commander! The King! The Conqueror! He parades with all of us down the aisle and assumes His throne on the Cross and the in the empty tomb and in the end of time!

Christus! Christ! Chrystus! The procession makes room for Stanislaus and John Paul the Great; for Fr. William and Sr. Death; for Souls yet being purified and for Souls perhaps forgotten! The procession invites in the lost and the hungry, the poor and the prisoners! The procession moves over the graves of those who have died in Christ and will rise with Him on the last day! The red and purple ribbons pierce the heavens as the palms weave and rustle. The procession pulls each of us into its life and ends at the throne of divine mercy, at the feet of He Who Is—Who once appeared in the burning bush and now burns in the water which saved us at baptism.

Christus vincit! Christus regnat! Christus imperat!

“LORD, LET ME WALK...”

...that lonely road with you.” So goes the refrain of a song we sing during Lent. It is an invitation to carry the cross with Jesus, but it is also an invitation to make pilgrimage with him.

This weekend we begin the holiest of weeks with the Lord and with each other. We do not simply recall what happened to Jesus a long time ago. Rather, we are drawn into the very narrative itself. We yoke ourselves to him again, and we make his journey our journey, his passion our passion. The story of the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus is the story of everyone claimed by the waters of baptism. “We know that our old self has been crucified with him. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.” (Romans 6:6,8)

This week we will be visited by many who are seeking an encounter with the Lord. Our Shrine has indeed become a place of pilgrimage. And pilgrimage is a metaphor for the Christian life itself. We are all on a journey with the Lord, toward a deeper relationship with our Savior. Today we meet at the gates of Jerusalem, joined by our Bishop who begins Holy Week with us. Today we shout, “Hosanna to our king!” We also cry out, “Crucify him!”

We break bread and drink wine. “Take this, all of you...” We wash feet, and we get washed. “Lord, not only my feet...” We betray, we deny, we turn our heads in shared shame. “I tell you, I do not know him...” We wince at the lash. We bend under the weight of the wood. We plead with others along the way. “Weep for your children...” We scream at the hammer and nails. “They have pierced my hands and my feet...” We entrust our loves to others. “Behold your mother...” We seek freedom from the burden of resentment. “Father, forgive them...” We cry out our loneliness. “Eloi, Eloi...” We surrender to the mystery. “Into your hands...” And through it all, we profess faith. “Surely, this man was the Son of God!”

This week, do your best to set some time aside just for the Lord. Join with your fellow pilgrims on our shared voyage through the gates of Jerusalem, via the upper room, over Pilate’s porch, along the stony and dusty gravel, up to Golgotha, into the rocky cave. Come to confession Wednesday night. Come to Mass and adoration Thursday night. Come to the Passion Friday afternoon (you can still get to the Indians game on time later...). Come to the Vigil Saturday night.

And then rejoice with your fellow Christians that Jesus on the cross is the Lord of life! Sing out the alleluias proclaiming that death is not the end, that light prevails over darkness, that evil is vanquished and life is eternal!

When the Easter season begins next weekend, it will also be a time for farewell and welcome. Farewell to the parishioners (and pastor) continuing their Easter pilgrimage to the holy sites around Krakow, Poland. And, upon our return, welcome to the consecrated icon of our Patron Saint Stanislaus and our beloved Holy Father, Servant of God John Paul II. Please plan to attend the enthronement vespers on April 18 at 7:00 PM.

May our holy journey this week truly bring us closer to the Lord of life and love.

Fr. Michael

Niezrozumiały dysonans

Wydarzenie Niedzieli Palmowej odsłania dysonans ludzkiego wnętrza. Pokazuje krancowość ludzkich uczuć i zachowań. Wspomina o uroczystym wjeździe Chrystusa do Jerozolimy. Jest to moment Jego szczególnej chwały i triumfu. Ale już za kilka dni w Wielki Piątek — gdyby oceniał tylko po ludzku — przyjdzie dzień wielkiego upokorzenia i „kleski”. Dlatego możemy stwierdzić, że te dwa dni charakteryzują krancowo różne ludzkie uczucia i zachowania wyrażane wobec Chrystusa, i to nie tylko przez postaci Ewangelii.

Kiedy patrzymy na wjazd Chrystusa do Jerozolimy, widzimy, że ludzie, a właściwie ogromne tłumy, wolają na Jego widok „hosanna synowi Dawida” i rzucają Mu pod nogi szaty i palmy. Uznają w ten sposób w Nim Mesjasza, który wcześniej na ich oczach dokonał wielu cudów. Natomiast już kilka dni potem zapewne ci sami ludzie krzyczą pod adresem Chrystusa: „na krzyż z Nim”. Czy nie podobnie dzieje się w sercu człowieka? Jednego dnia człowiek potrafi wzniesie się na szczyty heroizmu i świętości, zaś innego odsłonić, że jest bestią i okrutnikiem. Wpierw wielbi Boga modlitwą, by chwilę potem z pełną świadomością i dobrowolnie deptać Boże przykazania. W jednym momencie przyjmuje Boga w Eucharystii, która daje mu życie wieczne, a potem wchodzi w nieprawość zła i otchłan grzechu, który pozbawia go przyjaźni z Bogiem i zadaje człowiekowi duchową śmierć.

Trzeba zatem dziś i w ciągu Wielkiego Tygodnia pytać siebie: które zachowania człowieka i uczucia ludzkiego serca są autentyczne i jedynie prawdziwe. Czy te z Niedzieli Palmowej, czy raczej te z Wielkiego Piątku. Trzeba to czynić w codziennym rachunku sumienia i przed każdą spowiedzią. Trzeba wciąż o to pytać, zwłaszcza, kiedy podczas Mszy św. przyjmujemy Jezusa do serca i zapraszamy do naszego życia.

Misterium Meki Paskiej

Egzystencjalnych i religijnych pytań cię dalszy

Niedziela Palmowa jest związana nie tylko z uroczystym wjazdem Jezusa do Jerozolimy. Kojarzy się także z Misterium meki i śmierci Jezusa z Nazaretu. W Niedzielę Palmową podczas liturgii jest odczytywany, bardzo często z podziałem na role, ewangeliczny opis meki Chrystusa. Pojawia się w nim wiele osób, które przejawiają paletę bardzo różnych uczuć i zachowań. A ja powinienem się odnaleźć wśród nich i w ich pytaniach. Czy jestem Judaszem, który zdradził swego Mistrza lub Piotrem, który się Go zaparł? Matka pełna troski i bólu, czy Weronika ocierająca Jego twarz lub kobieta, która pociesza i płacze nad Chrystusem, ale która powinna płakać także nad własnym dzieckiem. Czy chcę z Szymonem z Cyreny niesie krzyż Chrystusa? Może bliżej mi do tych, którzy podstępnie oskarżyli Jezusa czy też do tchórzliwego Pilata, który w majestacie prawa skazał Go na niesprawiedliwą i haniebną śmierć? A może chce być jednak z tymi, którzy odwrotnie do końca stali pod krzyżem Chrystusa, a potem miłosiernie urządzili mu pogrzeb. Te pytania będą się pojawiać w czasie Misterium meki i śmierci Chrystusa dziś i w Wielki Piątek. Jeśli jestem odważnym człowiekiem i chcę być autentycznym chrześcijaninem nie mogę się ich bać.

„PORADA”

Mamy przyjemność ogłosić, że przy Sanktuarium św. Stanisława została założona nowa organizacja parafialna o nazwie „PORADA”. Jej siedziba główna jest CAFE KRAKOW przy ulicy „East 65th”.

Na początek PORADA ma zamiar służyć dyskretną pomocą w uzyskaniu zatrudnienia, wykształcenia, w problemach prawnych, w sprawach związanych z uzyskaniem zielonej karty i obywatelstwa, social security, ze zdobyciem zamieszkania i jego finansowaniem, opieką zdrowotną w znaczeniu ogólnym i psychicznym oraz w nawiązaniu kontaktów z rzetelnymi rzemieślnikami.

Organizacja planuje także zapoczątkować piątkowe spotkania rozpoczynające się od szachów i brydza, których celem jest budowanie wspólnoty i wzmacnianie więzi międzyludzkich. Wszyscy gracze są mile widziani, niezależnie od reprezentowanego poziomu i wieku.

PORADA zaprasza ochotników mających profesjonalne lub „zyciowe” sprawności (np. rzemieślnicze), jak też potencjalnych pracowników w celu włączenia ich do bazy danych PORADY. Usługi PORADY są adresowane w pierwszym rzędzie do nowych emigrantów z Polski, ale oczywiście wszyscy członkowie parafii są mile widziani.

Biuro będzie otwarte w czwartki w godzinach od 4:00 do 6:00 PM lub w innym czasie po uzgodnieniu. Czas otwarcia biura będzie się poszerzał w miarę zwiększenia zakresu usług.
