Golgotha VII. Jesus Falls a Second Time

Mercy, mercy, mercy. What kind of father allows his son to embarrass himself again? The medical experts all say it was inevitable...a combination of loss of blood, insufficient rest, poor diet. The spiritual TV gurus all say it was inevitable...a combination of loss of will, insufficient reading of the bible, poor spiritual diet. What else can be said?

Jesus is not a loser. Jesus is not a survivor. Jesus is a winner. This moment in time allows him to reflect on your love and your hate. It is the former that gives him the impetus to get up and resume his trek up to Calvary.

It is divine mercy which sees beyond the hate in your heart. It is divine mercy which invites you to win. It is divine mercy which thrusts your own cross back onto your shoulders with Jesus sharing the burden.

Mercy? Winner? Cross? ...all in the same breath? To those of faith the formula is one of infinite beauty and truth...as beautiful and as truthful as the empty tomb.

Mercy, Peace, Forgiveness and Hope

Generally though not exclusively, when people hear the word “mercy” they imagine a courtroom where a convicted person is asking the judge to render a judgment of “mercy.” The understanding is that the person is guilty of a crime and deserving of punishment in view of justice, but is asking for a lenient sentence.

Similarly, when we think about “divine mercy” we present ourselves as sinners before our All-Holy God, who has a right to judge us in justice. We beg God to show us leniency or “mercy.” We declare ourselves undeserving of that overflowing goodness or “mercy” of God, even though we hope for it. However, we ask because God has shown himself to be a God of “mercy” in the past. We ask, moreover, because Jesus as a human being in the name of and in union with all human beings willingly took upon himself the sins of the world—yours and mine. In the name of all humanity Jesus, human and divine, made satisfaction to God forever for all humans. All sinners, which means all of us, can approach “the throne of mercy” and can expect to receive “mercy” as a gift from God through the mediatorship of Jesus the Christ.

“Mercy” and “peace” are related. Saint Faustina, to whom the merciful Jesus appeared, one day heard Jesus say to her: “Humanity will never find peace until it turns to Divine Mercy” (Diary, p.132). Pope John Paul II said: “This (peace) is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity at the dawn of the third millennium.” Today’s gospel reading speaks about “mercy” in terms of “peace” when it recalls that when Jesus greeted his apostles after his resurrection “on the evening of that first day of the week” he said to them “Peace with you.” The words were the usual Jewish greeting but now they had a new meaning. Jesus, by his obedient death and resurrection, brought a “peace” beyond expectation. He reunited sinful human beings with God forevermore. Another word for reuniting or reconciliation is “peace.” Through God’s “mercy” sinners were and are able to experience “peace” (reconciliation) with God, with God and within themselves. They are able to share this “peace” as a gift with others.

This “peace” implies forgiveness. Jesus became the source of forgiveness of sins, because he united himself perfectly with God the Father’s will, the source of all good. In turn Jesus can share the power of forgiveness with the Church, His body, and with the individual members of the Church—you and me. Pope John Paul II used the following words to describe this great mystery: “Through the mystery of this wounded heart, the restorative tide of God’s merciful love continues to spread over the men and women of our time.”

In practice this means: If we want true “peace” in our day and leave a heritage of “peace” for future generations, we need to realize the great “mercy” of God bestowed on us as sinners. Then, through “mercy” we will be able to share this kind of “peace” with others.

Not only is “divine mercy” related to “peace” but also to “hope.” Pope John Paul II, when addressing himself in prayer to Jesus, said this: “The rays of your divine mercy restores “hope, “ in a special way, to those who feel overwhelmed by the burden of sin.” And so, mercy, peace, forgiveness and hope are companions on our Easter journey. Peace and Good! fr. Cam

JEZU, UFAM TOBIE!

Druza Niedziela Wielkanocna juz od chrzescijanskiej starozytnosci nazwana jest „Niedziela Biala”. Od kilku lat jest to takze Niedziela, w ktorej w szczegolny sposob czcimy Milosierdzie Boze. Nie jest to przymiot Bozy oderwany od innych. Jest to centralna, najwazniejsza cecha Boga-Milosci, ktory pragnie ze swej obfitosci udzielac sie. Milosierdzie Boze ujawnia sie w calym dzialaniu Pana Boga: zarowno w stworzeniu swiata, jak i w jego odnowieniu, czyli w Odkupieniu dokonany przez Jezusa. Bog pragnie obdarzac stworzenia pelnia swego zycia.

W Ewangelii przeznaczonej na druga Niedziela Wielkanocna slyszymy trzykrotnie „Pokoj wam!” Jezusa skierowane do Apostolow w Wieczerniku. To pozdrowienie Zmartwychwstalego Pana odnosi sie dzisiaj do nas, ktorzy slychamy Jego slow. „Pokoj Moj daje wam, nie tak jak daje swiat, Ja wam daje” - slyszymy w kazdej Mszy sw. Jezus zna tesknote ludzkiego serce za pokojem i wychodzi jej naprzeciw.

Jezus chce obdarzyc swoim pokojem kazdego z osobna i wszystkich razem. Do swietej siostry Faustyny Kowalskiej, „ sekretarki” Bozego Milosierdzia powiedzial Pan Jezus slowa: „ Nie zagna ludzkosc pokoju, dopoki nie zwróci sie z ufnością do Mojego Milosierdzia.”

W ostatnich dniach przed Wielkanoca bylo sporo zamieszania wokol tzw. „Ewangelii Judasza”. Wloski kapucyn, ojciec Raniero Cantalamessa, nawiazujac do tego gnostyckiego pisma, w kazaniu na Niedziela Palmowa, powiedzial ze w kazdym z nas tkwi cos z Piotra, ktory trzykrotnie zaparl sie Jezusa i cos z Judasza, ktory sprzedal swego Mistrza za 30 srebrnikow. Rownica miedzy losem Piotra i Judasza nie lezy w wielkosc grzechu, ktory kazdy z nich popelnil. Ich grzechy sa bardzo podobne. Zasadnicza rownica lezy w postawie, ktora obaj przyjeli po grzechu. Ich przyklad przypomina dwuch lotrow ukrzyzowanych wraz z Jezusem. Prawdopodobnie obaj popelnili podobne przestepstwa. Z duzym prawdopodobienstwem mozna przyjac, ze obydwa byli mordercami. Ale jeden z nich wiszac na krzyzu odwolal sie do milosierdzia Jezusa: „Panie, wspomnij na mnie, gdy przyjdiesz do swego krolestwa”. I otrzymal obietnice z ust Jezusa: „ Zaprawde, powiadam ci, jeszcze dzis bedziesz ze mna w raju.” Tradycja nadala mu imie „Dyzmas” i jest on czczony jako jeden ze swietych Kosciola. Jest on jednym z Patronow diecezji przemyskiej w Polsce.

Podobna szanse mial takze Judasz. Wspomniany wczesniej kaznodzieja papieski zilustrowal to pewnym zdarzeniem na szkolnej katechezie. Kiedy katechetka opowiadala o Jezusie i Jego Apostolach Piotrze i Judaszu, pewien chlopiec stwierdzil: „Judasz pomyлил drzewo, na ktorym sie powiesil. On wybral fige.” Katechetka zdziwiona taka reakcja, zapytala: „A jakie drzewo powinien byl wybrac?” „Powinien sie rzucic na szyje Jezusowi”.

Ten chlopiec mial racje. Zrozumial cos z niezglebionej tajemnicy Bozego Milosierdzia. Gdyby Judasz zechcial poprosic Jezusa o przebaczenie, czcilibysmy go dzisiaj jako swietego, obok Piotra, Dyzmasa i tylu innych grzesznikow, ktorzy z ufnością zwrócili sie do milosierdzia Boga.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH – BÓG ZAPŁAĆ

...to the many people who contributed their time, talents, money and prayers toward making our Holy Week celebrations as beautiful as should be expected at St. Stanislaus. So many people contribute behind the scenes that it would take up this entire bulletin to list their names. Whether polishing brass, pinning ribbons, hauling palm trees, ironing altar linens, replacing vigil lights, distributing programs, rehearsing and singing or just plain being nice, may God bless all of you for your help. It will be reflected in your final paychecks :)

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

On the main altar just above the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the middle is a representation of a gold colored bird. This bird is a pelican feeding her young. This symbolizes the saving action of Christ on behalf of humankind. The mother pelican will pierce her own breast so that her young may feed on her blood and live through famine and crisis. Christ shed his blood for us so that we might have eternal life.

FROM OUR ALBUM GUEST BOOK

As Pan Nagrabski, of Baltimore has stated, "It truly is wonderful to see an active Polish-American Parish. I too belong to a church of St. Stanislaus, that of St. Stanislaus church in Pine Island, New York. After almost 100 years of service to the community, the Archdiocese of New York has decided to close our doors, so I truly wish you many years of continued success. I hope that the people in your area realize just what a precious treasure they have. Pray for us, and maybe once again, as he did during his life time, through the prayers both our parishes, St. Stanislaus will come to the rescue of his embattled church. Sto lat i szczesc Boze."
