We Give Glory

I thank God for all the people who help out here at our shrine. They might not all be visible at any one time, but their collective gifts create what we all see before us, what God sees in His holy temple. Last Sunday was an outstanding example. The decorating team, the cleaning team, the procession management team, the sound team, the music team, the veteran team, the flower petal team—they all worked together to create a festival which celebrated and paid homage to the Body and Blood of Jesus.

As with the woman who washed the feet of Jesus with her tears and dried them with her hair, these people all gave honor to that same Body, every one a sinner, every one beneficiary of divine mercy.

They all try their best—there is always room for improvement. But, the overall product is, in the style of Stanislaus, a combination of class and chaos, sincerity and glitz, all for the honor of God. Like the little drummer boy, each can be proud to say “I played my best for Him!”

So now as the Summer approaches and things wind down for a couple of months, I must extend a big “Thank You” and “Bóg zapłać” to the fellow parishioners and friends who help us look so good in so many ways. Remember, this is our church. Remember, our shared talents and sacrifices make it what it is. Remember, we do it to honor God. Without your help, your time, your energy, your money, things would be a little less ‘us’, a little less than what we have come to expect of our church to give back to God in worship and praise.

To those who would like to contribute their time etc...over the Summer, you are most welcomed to do so...there is always some project that can move forward with a few extra hands or minds or dollars. But, more importantly, all of us must continue to care for the Body of Christ in our neighbor. As St. Teresa of Avila stated: “Christ has no body now but yours, no hands but yours...” During this Summer, allow your hands to do His work, to wash, to honor, to anoint every person with the dignity the Creator has bestowed upon him and her. May God give you the grace and courage to do just that, and may He keep you safe.

Another Father's Day!

Father's Day is now a national day of celebrating fatherhood. The beginnings of Father's Day seem to go back to William Smart, a Civil War veteran and farmer, who lost his wife in childbirth. As a single parent he was left to raise a newborn and five other children on a farm in Eastern Washington state. While listening to a sermon on Mother's Day, his daughter Sonora realized that it was her father who made all the sacrifices that parents know and do so well. Since her dad was born in June, she held her first Father's day celebration in Spokane Washington on June 19, 1910. Her efforts eventually led to a national observance when President Lyndon Johnson declared in 1966 the third Sunday of June to be Father's Day.

This Father's Day gives us an opportunity (a grace moment) to reflect on what is expected of every father.

Each father (including yours truly) participates in the fatherhood of God. Since God in the Trinity of persons is love, every father needs consciously to receive and give God's love, which is not static but dynamic, knows no favorites, does not distinguish between the worthy and unworthy and overflows. Primarily or exclusively this love does not center on the self but on others. As God the Father loves out of his very being of love to promote love, so every father ought to love out of his very being of love to promote God's love. The father's love needs to be sincere inside and out as God's love is.

This Sunday's gospel selection (Luke 7: 36-8:3) focuses on love, the love of Jesus toward a sinful woman, whose love toward him Jesus extols and whose display of love Simon the Pharisee rejects. Simon looks upon her as someone who has sinned and thus terms her a sinner. Jesus looks upon her as capable of conversion and thus relates with her to bring out the best in her. Simon looks upon her uncleanness and wishes to ostracize her, that is, close windows and doors for her. On the other hand, Jesus recognizes her faith, her loving deeds and opens for her windows and doors of peace. Jesus is interested in extending mercy, in contrast to Simon the Pharisee who focuses on justice. Jesus concentrates on faith, Simon invokes the law.

This gospel is meant for all of us hearers, but, in particular, it can be applied to fathers. Regarding their own children—biological or adopted—fathers need to acknowledge their children's faith and love deeds and be willing to forgive them. Like Jesus, who displayed the loving Holy Spirit of His heavenly Father, fathers need to desire and work toward union with their children and not ostracize them. Fathers need to continually pray for their children that the faith which they received at Baptism and which perhaps has been buried, may resurrect, be professed again and flourish. Like Jesus, fathers need to forgive over and over again so that the love between the father and the children may be open to growth.

The father himself must become the model (even though an imperfect one) of God the Father's love. Example speaks louder than words (although words are necessary at times) and draws the other to imitate.

Another Father's Day! Another opportunity (grace moment) to rekindle love between fathers and children. Thanks be to our generous God and our country! Peace and Good!

Jak wyglądał Jezus Chrystus?

To pytanie zadawało sobie i wciąż zadaje wiele ludzi, także niechrześcijan. Jest to równocześnie pytanie o Oblicze samego Boga. Bo przecież sam Jezus powiedział: Kto mnie widzi, widzi Tego, który Mnie posłał (J 12, 45). Jezus jest obrazem Ojca. Liczne pokolenia przez całe wieki uważały, i tak jest do dzisiaj, że to Calun Turynski jest najważniejszą odpowiedzią na to pytanie. A oto Paul Badde w swojej książce („Boskie Oblicze. Calun z Manopello”, Polwen, Radom 2006) ogłosił, że w ostatnich latach odnaleziona została jeszcze cenniejsza relikwia.

Według Baddego jest to płótno o którym wspomina Ewangelia św. Jana. W rozdziale 20 jest scena, w której św. Jan biegnie rankiem w Wielkanoc do grobu Jezusa. A kiedy się nachylił, zobaczył leżące płótna, jednakże nie wszedł do środka. Nadszedł potem także Szymon Piotr, idący za nim. Wszedł on do wnętrza grobu i ujrzał leżące płótna oraz chustę, która była na Jego głowie, leżącą nie razem z płótnami, ale oddzielnie zwiniętą na jednym miejscu. Wtedy wszedł do wnętrza także i ów drugi uczeń, który przybył pierwszy do grobu. Ujrzał i uwierzył. Badde zwrócił uwagę, że chusta leżała zwinięta osobno. Co w niej takiego było, ze Ewangelista w ogóle o niej wspomni? I co takiego tam zobaczył, że ujrzał i uwierzył? Dziennikarz jest przekonany, że jednym z leżących płócien jest wykonany z lnu Calun Turynski, a zwinięta chusta to wizerunek z Manopello – świadek Zmartwychwstania Chrystusa i Jego „fotografia”.

Po przeczytaniu tej książki chętnie przyznaje, że autorowi udało się przekonać mnie do swojej tezy. Co to jest ów wspomniany Calun z Manopello? Jest to płótno o wymiarach 17 na 24 centymetry. Oznacza się ono niezwyklejmi właściwościami. Jest bardzo cienkie. Widziane pod światło staje się praktycznie przezroczyste; kiedy światło pada od strony widza ma brązowy kolor, którego intensywność i odcień zależy od kąta, pod jakim światło pada. Wykonane jest z tzw. morskiego bisioru. Ten bardzo cenny materiał jest niepalny i ... nie przyjmuje pigmentu, tzn. nie może być pomalowane. W jaki więc sposób zostało utrwalone na nim oblicze mezczyzny widoczne powyżej? Żadna hipoteza naukowa nie daje zadowalającej odpowiedzi na to pytanie. Za to liczne, uzasadnione argumenty autora przekonują czytelnika, że wyrazy „Oblicze Mezczyzny” trzeba pisać dużymi literami, ponieważ odnoszą się do Jezusa Chrystusa. Ten mały kawałek płótna jest czymś w rodzaju fotografii Bożego Syna. Ta „fotografia” powstała w momencie Zmartwychwstania.

Dwa Oblicza na wspomnianych Calunach doskonale pasują do siebie. Te dwa Oblicza to w rzeczywistości Oblicze tego samego Mezczyzny. Twarz na Calunie Turynskim ma oczy zamknięte, a cały Calun jest negatywem. Natomiast Twarz na Calunie z Manopello ma oczy otwarte. Obraz jest pozytywem. Pierwszy Calun przedstawia Jezusa zabitego, drugi zmartwychwstałego.

CORPUS CHRISTI KUDOS. Many people helped to make this year's Corpus Christi Procession a great success. These included Dave Krakowski and the choirs, Frank Greczanik, Procession Grand Marshall, the servers, the adult servers Ray Tegowski, Larry Wilks, and Jeremy Wisniewski, the Polish children and young women, the First Communicants with Sister Jane Frances, the homes of the altars (Jagelewski, Witczak, and Mosinski), the canopy bearers, Mrs. Kozlowski, Bob Potoma, Councilman Tony Brancatelli's office for the procession permit, procession coordinator Rob Jagelewski, Chris Luboski, Grace Hryniewicz (altar designs and set up), Lolley the Trolley, and since the Cleveland Police did not show up—the short notice Parish Traffic Control brigade of Mark Luboski, John Sklodowski, and Ron Grams. CONVENT TREASURES SALE!!!

SATURDAY & SUNDAY

As we had announced back in the winter, the convent will be demolished due to the need of excessive repairs and high costs that the parish can no longer afford to maintain. Therefore, in preparation of the demolition, all of the non-sacred items within the convent are up for sale to defray the cost of the demolition. We will have a sale of these treasures on Saturday, June 23rd from 3-7 PM and on Sunday, June 24th from 9:30 AM-1:30 PM. Many items will be up for sale such as chairs, decorations, books, dishes and kitchen utensils, and even larger items such as dressers, desks, and beds. If you believe that you would like to purchase larger items such as beds, please bring friends with you to help you move them, as our volunteers will not be able to do so. Payments in cash or checks only. There will be a different sale announced at a later date for anyone wishing to purchase the construction materials of the convent such as tiles, molding, and doors.

ST. STAN'S POLISH FESTIVAL OCTOBER 5,6,7

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. On this Father's Day we remember the origins of the St. Stanislaus Dad's Club. The Dad's Club was founded in 1947. The original founders were a handful of men. The purpose of the original organization was to help the students of St. Stanislaus High School. The Dad's Club purchased materials such as typewriters, visual aids equipment, projectors, screens, and lockers. When Cleveland Central Catholic High School was formed in 1969 the Dad's Club turned their attention to fund raising for the Elementary School and the Parish.

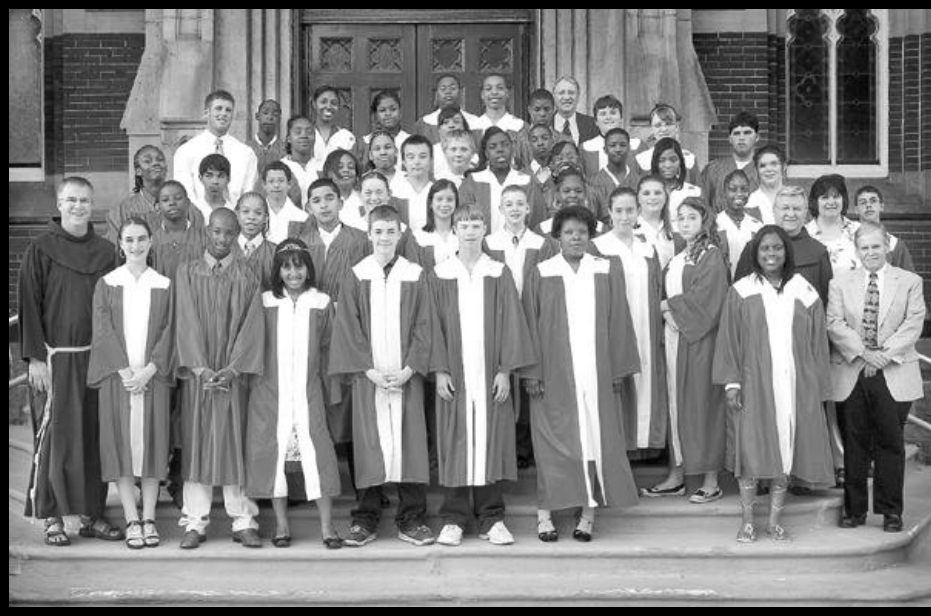

The Kindergarten Graduates of St. Stanislaus School are well prepared for their future academic career—showing their enthusiasm in song at the graduation ceremony June 7.
