WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

Four Eagles

The story of the Four Eagles is one with which our parish community is not unfamiliar. The idea often symbolized a force, weather divine or mythical, which was responsible for protecting and for unifying both for a goal both noble and inspired. The significance of this colorful image may have its roots in the pagan culture of the Polanie, or, possibly in certain Indo-European civilizations which predated that particular tribe. Our acquaintance with their appearance in Polish ‘history’ occurs at the martyrdom of Stanislaus, our patron, when they circled around his remains, guarding them prior to their miraculous re-unification.

We now have Four Eagles in our midst as well. Instead of beaks they have lips. Instead of claws they have hands. Instead of wings they have legs and arms. Instead of feathers they have brown habits. They nest in the friary and their mission is to guard and to unify.

Their lips teach the Word of God. Their anointed hands enable the transformation of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. Their legs and arms move throughout the church, the community—often with tremendous difficulty—to visit, to greet, to touch, to reach out, to forgive, to set example. They are not mythical—they are flesh and blood, body and soul. They love God and they sin. They forgive and they beg for forgiveness.

Their names are Michael, Camillus, Placyd and Howard. They are Franciscans on loan to our parish to serve in compassion, to share the joy of Jesus and to help all of us on the road to salvation helping us understand our own suffering and preparing us for our death and resurrection. Each one challenges us to be like Christ. It is His Spirit who works through each one of them in ways that only the wise might understand. The goal of their lives is to lead us to the living water which alone will quench our thirst.

Our own Four Eagles can only be as effective as we will allow them. Their calling to faithfully guard and preach and live the Word of God needs our cooperation, our prayer and our participation. Their goal toward unification can only be reached if our hearts are clean and open to the working of the Holy Spirit. God has called them to be His priests and the wisdom of His choice to place them in our lives here at the Shrine Church of St. Stanislaus in 2006 must be embraced in humility. He has sent us Four Eagles, each unique, each with history, each with different gifts, each His servant. As the four evangelists (also artistically depicted with wings) offer four slightly different accounts of the ministry of Jesus, so too our four Franciscans offer their unique visions, insights, examples and approaches. Our parish has been blessed with these men of God and we ask His blessings on them as they serve Him and His people in ministry.

THE CATHOLIC VOTE

We are in full swing in the election season, and for many months people from around the country have been watching Ohio. We were a crucial state two years ago in the national election, and many people feel that what happens in Ohio this year will be an indication of what might happen two years from now.

Perhaps more so than in many other elections in recent memory, Christians are being challenged to bring their faith into the polling place. This is something that the Catholic Church has been encouraging people to do for a very long time indeed. Of course, it is easier said than done. In Ohio, there are groups of Evangelical Protestant pastors who are campaigning to "win Ohio for Christ" by urging their followers to vote for one set of candidates (mostly conservative). There are also groups of pastors from mainstream Protestant churches who are advocating a different approach (mostly liberal). Both groups are basing their approach on their Christian faith. There is no reason to think that either group is more or less "Christian" than the other.

What is a thinking Christian to do?

As the real pastor of the entire local church, our Bishop Richard Lennon has given very sound guidance to the Catholics of this diocese. His column was printed in the Universe Bulletin, and many of his points are repeated in this parish bulletin as well. The Diocesan Social Action Office (their website is www.catholic-action.org) has sent along a number of guidelines to help inform the choices we will make in the voting booths. There are many so-called "voter guides" out there, and most of them are clearly slanted into endorsing one candidate over another. The position of the Catholic church, however, does not endorse candidates or parties. Instead, we urge voters to consider the following:

- ? The role of the Church is to educate Catholics about social teaching; to analyze issues for the social and moral dimensions; to measure public policy against Gospel values and to participate in debates affecting the common good.
- ? The Church is not a threat to the political process or to genuine pluralism. It is an affirmation of both. The Church recognizes the legitimate autonomy of government and the right of all, including the Church, to be heard in the formation of policy.
- ? Faithful Citizenship does not call us to be a religious interest group or a voting block. It is not about religious leaders telling people how to vote.
- ? Faithful Citizenship outlines moral priorities for public life, such as, protecting human life, promoting family life, pursuing social justice, and practicing global solidarity.
- ? We hope voters will examine the position of the candidates on the full range of issue, as well as on their personal integrity, philosophy, and performance. We are convinced that a consistent ethic of life should be the framework from which to address issues in the public arena.
- ? The bishops urge all Catholics to register to vote, and become more involved in public life, to protect human life and dignity, and to advance the common good.

Fr. Michael

POWRÓT

Wyjeżdżając z Cleveland pisałem w „Biuletynie”, że być może zobaczymy się jeszcze. Tak więc po raz drugi staję na ziemi amerykańskiej, tym razem już nie jako gość na krótki czas wakacji, ale na dłużej. Na jak długo? Zobaczymy.

Jest to dla mnie nowe wyzwanie.

Po święceniach pracowałem pięć lat w Jarosławiu. Byłem katecheta dzieci w przedszkolu, w szkole podstawowej i gimnazjum. Następnie zostałem wysłany do pracy w Niemczech. Pracowałem w czterech miejscach w Bawarii, będąc najpierw kapłanem szpitala, a później duszpasterzem parafialnym w parafiach w lokalnych miejscach pielgrzymkowych.

Po pięciu latach przerwy mogę znowu pracować z Polakami. Jest to dla mnie powód do radości. Będąc tutaj w czasie wakacji czulem się bliżej Polski niż w czasie pobytu w Niemczech. Mam na myśli mowę polską, liczną na terenie Cleveland obecność Polonii, i jej troskę o zachowywanie tradycji i zwyczajów polskich. Jest to powód do radości i optymizmu. Z drugiej jednak strony, kiedy sobie uświadamiam, że znowu zaczynam nowy okres w swoim życiu, w jakiś sposób bliskie stają mi się słowa św. Pawła Apostoła, które napisał w Liście do Koryntian: „I stanąłem przed wami z bojaźnią i wielkim drżeniem” (por. 1 Kor 2, 3). Dlaczego? Tak do końca to sam nie wiem. Myślę jednak, że jest tak w dużej mierze dlatego, że moim poprzednikiem był ks. Jerzy Kusy. Jego pamięć jest bardzo żywa w parafii św. Stanisława. Podniósł on wysoko poprzeczkę oczekiwaną względem duszpasterzy i niełatwo będzie im sprostać. Wiem, że będę z nim porównywany, i z pewnością pod wieloma względami będzie bardzo trudno dorównać mu.

Kiedy mu o tym mówiłem, Jurek odpowiedział, że nie robił nic szczególnego, a tylko, jak się wyraził „plakał z płaczacymi i śmiał się ze śmiejącymi się”. Bardzo piękne określenie roli kapłana. Zatem można wyciągnąć wniosek, że ważne jest przede wszystkim być z ludźmi, być „dla” nich. Cieszę się zwłaszcza, że będę mógł być dla najmłodszych, uczyć ich religii. Miałem już jedną katechezę za ks. Jurka i to było dla mnie jedno z piękniejszych przeżyć tego czasu. To przypomniało mi moją pracę w Jarosławiu, gdzie m.in. uczyłem w przedszkolu. Praca z najmłodszymi była zawsze dla mnie źródłem radości. Spodziewam się, że tak też będzie tutaj. Cieszę się, że katecheza jest tak bardzo ceniona przez rodziców tych dzieci, którzy pytali proboszcza, co będzie z katechezą po odejściu ks. Jurka, i wręcz domagali się jej dla swoich dzieci.

Drugim z obowiązków będzie niedzielna Msza św. Postaram się być słyszany przez wszystkich, tak jak słyszany jest chór, który co niedzielę ozdabia liturgie. Przy tej okazji chcę podziękować wszystkim jego członkom, którzy podjęli się tego trudu i czynią to z wielką radością. Bóg zapłać!

A inne obowiązki? Myślę, że z czasem wykrystalizują się. Dolożę staran, żeby nie zawieść zaufania moich przełożonych i Waszych. Proszę też o modlitwę, bo bez niej wszystkie wysiłki są bezowocne. Bóg zapłać!

o. Placyd

Parish Pastoral Council

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT

Reverend Agnellus Sobolewski OFM Pastor of St. Stanislaus wrote a letter dated September 13, 1954 to The Most Reverend John Krol, Vicar General of the Diocese, stating that he had consecrated the Parish to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. He requested permission to have an evening Mass on the first Saturday of every month in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Father Sobolewski felt that an evening Mass could encourage the practice of receiving the sacraments more frequently. The reply from The Most Reverend John Krol dated September 14, 1954 stated, "Archbishop Hoban's decision was not to introduce the practice of an afternoon Mass at this time. Cleveland is an industrial town. Most of its inhabitants are engaged in some form of industry or commerce and generally their work week is limited to forty hours. The late starting hours in the morning and frequently no-work Saturdays give the people ample opportunity to attend morning Masses."

PEACE GARDEN MEMORIAL BRICKS are still available for $100.00 each by contacting the rectory office. We hope to get enough bricks for a spring 2007 installation. If you previously purchased a brick, you may find it by taking a stroll in the garden.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS. The next class will be November 6, 1:00 PM, at Immaculate Heart Church, Call 341-2734 to register. You must take a class before your child can be baptized.

MANNA GIFT CARDS . . .

What a wonderful way to raise money for the church! What a convenient way for you to shop! Order your cards today! Ask your friendly Manna salesperson what cards are available for you to buy and take with you—many of the most popular cards are available without waiting a week. Also, we still have several Tops gift cards in $25 denominations. Tops will be open until the end of December—shop at Tops and get bargains with many, many reduced items as they prepare to close their doors; use your Tops gift cards today and save.

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD.

The month of November is traditionally set aside for the prayerful remembrance of the faithful departed. At Saint Stanislaus Church, we have a special devotion to our loved ones who have been called from this life into eternity. One very special way we bring our beloved deceased to prayer is by sending their names to be inscribed in the Book of Life, from which we pray at the beginning of each Mass in November. The October envelope packet contains a special envelope for sending in names, or you may use your own. People can drop them into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be mailed to the rectory. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE! PRINT YOUR NAMES LEGIBLY. In many cases the names written on the envelopes are almost impossible to read due to poor handwriting! Remember please PRINT.

WYPOMINKI

Listopadowe dni to czas szczególnej zadumy nad przemianiem życia, jego sensem i wiecznością. W tym miesiącu wspominamy tych co odeszli, pamiętamy o bliskich w modlitwie. Jest pięknym, odwiecznym zwyczajem, że naszych zmarłych polecamy wspólnym modlitwom Kościoła zwanych wypominkami. Nie odkładajmy tej sprawy na ostaną chwilę; przez cały listopad nazwiska zmarłych będą czytane w naszym kościele przed każdą Mszą św. Serdeczna prośba: nazwiska naszych zmarłych wypisujmy wyraźnie, najlepiej drukowanymi literami, by można było bezbłędnie wpisać je do Księgi Zmarłych.

REQUIEM AETERNAM

This very popular concert has become an annual tradition at our church. On Saturday November 4, 7:30 PM, the Schola Cantorum of Cleveland's Church of the Immaculate Conception performs motets and chant as part of an evening of Latin music and prayer in memory of the faithful departed. The Rev. Bede Kotlynski, OSB, will officiate at the Latin Compline Service comprising the latter part of the evening. Free will donation.

2007 MASS BOOK IS OPEN

Those who wish to reserve Masses for wedding anniversaries and anniversaries of deaths in 2007 can do so in person on Thursdays and Fridays, from 9:30 AM until 4:30 PM. We ask that you come to the office with your Mass intentions on Thursday and Fridays only. You may also mail your Mass intentions or drop them into the collection basket along with the customary stipend and your requested dates. Please do not phone as we cannot accept phone reservations. We will make every effort to reserve the dates you choose, but if your requested date is not available, we will accommodate your request with the closest date possible. The amount of Masses may be limited per person, so that others may also have an opportunity to reserve dates.

There are still a few weekday dates available in November and December of this year. If a relative has recently passed away consider a Mass in his/her intention for this year!
