WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 129 years.

A Cast of Thousands

The month of October was packed with wonderful activity at St. Stanislaus. Combining every event from the 'Blessing of the Animals' down to the concert of 'Music from the Court of Henri de Valois' it was clear to those of us who attended every single event of the month that thousands - not hundreds - thousands of people passed through our doors during the course of the month. Many were guests here for the first time, others, old friends. Together we were unified in sharing the excitement that pervaded our church during the month, a unity of pride in the accomplishments of our own congregation, a unity of humanity with the visitors from all walks of life, a unity of spirit with His Holiness, John Paul II, during the jubilee celebrations.

The cast of thousands became a cast of one. We prayed together, sang together, labored together, laughed together, celebrated together. Our month of October was successful because of that spirit of unity which produced so much beauty in so short a time, all for the greater honor and glory of God. I extend my thanks to all who helped make this month so wonderful, the many people behind the scenes who ended up with sore backs, bruises, bags under their eyes etc... all because they share in a vision of greatness and pride.

Now that November has arrived, a sense of rest hovers over the scene. Our cast of thousands now includes the faithful departed. The candles which we light throughout the month, the names which we hear read, the memories we enjoy, the tears we shed, the prayers we offer together unify us anew with our loved ones who, we pray, are at rest in the Lord. Our Dads Club will have a special service on Tuesday evening with a few names added to the roster since last November: Joseph Golubski, John Lipinski, Chester Suchocki, Clyde Ray and Fr. William Gulas. On Saturday, November 8, @7:30PM we will honor those and all who have died with our beautiful event, Requiem Aeternam. November seems designed for rest. In unity with all the souls who have gone before us, we pray for their eternal rest.

“Are you not aware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?”

Romans 6:3

We hear this same passage proclaimed at each Easter Vigil. It is the New Testament reading assigned for the holiest of Christian feasts when we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ from death. This passage teaches us that we, the baptized, live in Jesus Christ. Life and death have met in the Cross of the Lord, and death has been vanquished because of Jesus' obedience (cf. Phil. 2:5-11). The great mystery of baptism celebrates this truth, as St. Cyril of Jerusalem teaches us in the late 4th cent. AD, we have died sacramentally in baptism and so now live in Jesus and his resurrection power (Mystagogia of St. Cyril of Jerusalem, bishop).

Roman Catholic funerals reiterate these truths about baptism – holy water is sprinkled on the casket and a white cloth, a pall is placed over it. The Easter candle is lit, proclaiming that Christ, the Light of the World, has destroyed the darkness of sin and death. Finally, incense is used to honor the remains of the deceased person reminding us that during his/her life the baptized person was a temple of God's Holy Spirit. Thus we prepare to bury the person's remains in the hope of his/her resurrection from the dead.

All Souls' Day is an opportunity for us as a community of faith to consider the reality of death – the deaths of those whom we love, and our own. Now, this is not meant to be morbid (obsessing on death), but a reflection – namely, How do I want to live?

It may be helpful to review some basic understanding regarding the Christian teaching on the reality of death and eternal life. Christianity does not accept reincarnation. We do not return as another life form – human, plant or animal. We die once and then are judged (Heb. 9:27). We believe that each human person is created uniquely by God, in God's image and likeness (cf. Gen. 1:26), and so is called by God to share in a personal relationship with God. What the Scriptures teach and we profess is resurrection. Everything about our worship, our prayer, our creeds – proclaims our belief that even as Christ Jesus died, was buried and was raised up again on the Third Day, those who believe in him are to share in his resurrection. Hence at baptism, we are baptized into his death.

Next, we do not believe that human beings become angels. Angels are angels – incorporeal beings; they have no bodies. Human beings are human beings – created differently than the angelic beings – we are body, soul and spirit (cf. 1Thess. 5:23). Folks sometimes use the term “angel” metaphorically (i.e. “Grandma is my guardian angel”) but it is not reality (Your guardian angel is your guardian angel; Grandma may be praying for you in heaven as an intercessor; she is not an angel). As Christians – human beings – we believe in the resurrection of the body! Angels do not experience the resurrection, because, quite frankly, they do not die.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit your death brought life to our world. By your holy Body and Blood keep me from sin, keep me faithful to your teaching and never let me be parted from you. Amen. Prayer of priest at Breaking of the Bread.

Peace, Fr. Joachim C. Studwell, OFM

CMENTARNE ZAMYŚLENIA...

Wszystkich Świętych, Dzień Zaduszny i cały listopad przypominają nam nieobecnych... Czy rzeczywiście nieobecnych? Odeszli mniej lub bardziej niespodziewanie, zostawili jednak niezatarty ślad w naszej pamięci. W chrześcijańskiej kulturze, ten najbardziej jesienny miesiąc nastraja do zamyśleń i wspomnień o nieobecnych, nieobecnych tu na ziemi, ale obecnych po drugiej stronie życia.

Odwiedzamy cmentarze; jedni tylko raz w roku - na “Zaduszki”, inni spotykają się tu o wiele częściej. Nie częstotliwość jednak jest najważniejsza, ale pamięć o Nich, spoczywających na cmentarzach w różnych zakątkach świata. Są tam przecież nasi bracia i siostry, ojcowie i matki, krewni, przyjaciele i znajomi. Nieważną staje się odległość dzieląca nas od najbliższego sercu cmentarza; tylko szerokość ogrodzenia czy kilkanaście lub kilka tysięcy mil staje się odległością żadną. Pamięć bowiem pokonuje każdy dystans z taką samą szybkością. Bo przecież łączy nas z Nimi tak wiele: ten sam los, to samo życie i czekająca nas śmierć, która już jest Ich udziałem. Przede wszystkim jednak łączy nas Chrystus - zwycięzca śmierci i wiara w zmartwychwstanie.

Odwiedzając cmentarze czy tylko przywołując ich obraz w naszych wspomnieniach, nieuchronnie stajemy wobec tajemnicy śmierci i losu człowieka po zakończeniu ziemskiej pielgrzymki.

Dla ludzi wierzących, śmierć zawiera w sobie prawdę podstawową o wierności Boga wobec swojego stworzenia. Stwórca, będący miłością, zawsze pozostaje wierny dziełu, które uczynił. To, co powstało, nie zostanie zaprzepaszczone, unicestwione. Człowiek, wybiegając myślami poza moment swojej śmierci, może to czynić zawsze z nadzieją, że wierność Boga będzie dotyczyć także jego osoby.

W ciągu historii, poprzez nawarstwianie się różnych czynników - takich jak mocne akcentowanie sądu ostatecznego, praktyki pokutne, teologia zasługi - pierwotna siła nadziei uległa nieco zatarciu. Śmierć, po części odarta z wymiaru misterium, zaczęła być stosowana jako swego rodzaju “straszak” pedagogiczny.

Nikomy z nas nie wolno zapomnieć, że wszyscy jesteśmy jednoznacznie powołani do zbawienia, do pełni życia w Bogu. Podstawowe przesłanie Syna Bożego dotyczące nadziei życia wiecznego łączy w sobie wiarę z obietnicą bycia z Bogiem w wieczności. Bliskość z Jezusem za życia znajduje kontynuację i dopełnienie po śmierci. Sakramenty, które przyjmujemy, modlitwa, która jednoczy nas z Chrystusem, godne chrześcijańskie życie, choć nie pozbawione upadków - stanowią o bliskości ze Zbawicielem. Bycie z Bogiem po śmierci jest dla chrześcijanina nagrodą, ale przede wszystkim powinno być pojmowane jako kontynuacja tego, co jest obecnie częścią naszego życia.

ks. Jerzy

na wieczne życie
na żywą wieczność*

SUMMARY OF PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2003

EDUCATION: Bulletin inserts were discussed; the committee felt the inserts were valuable but is considering the best way to distribute them to parishioners. Plans for workshops to demonstrate Polish Christmas ornaments and palm weaving are being finalized for the Christmas and Easter seasons. A right-to-life prayer service is being organized for January; details will follow.

EVANGELIZATION: An Evangelization fest will be held on November 5, at 7 p.m., to welcome new parishioners. All parishioners are invited and encouraged to attend to welcome new parishioners and acquaint with long-time parishioners. The goal is to acquaint attendees with the parish and parish organizations. The committee is looking into establishing an ongoing grieving program within the parish; diocesan training is taking place in late October. Several committee members are participating in the training.

PARISH FINANCE COUNCIL: Fr. Michael is preparing an annual financial report for parishioners. The council is considering establishing a development committee to research ongoing fund-raising.

PARISH ORGANIZATIONS: The Dad's Club's annual clambake was very successful. Over 200 people attended, and the Social Center proved to be a perfect location. The PTU had a successful open house with student-led conferences. This type of program empowers the student to explain to his or her parents about his or her school progress; this format has proven very successful. Fund-raising plans were discussed for the school.

WORSHIP: Positions within the Brother Fidelis Society were identified and distributed to members for review. The society has been established to provide for the ongoing upkeep of the church facility and liturgical accessories. The GIRM sessions for Eucharistic Ministers will be held October 23 and 25. November activities will include the Book of Life, memorial candles for the deceased, and the Eucharistic Day on November 23. Thanksgiving Mass will be at 9 a.m. Blue books (daily devotionals) will be ordered for the Advent season.

REPORT FROM THE PASTOR: Plans are in progress for Fr. William's memorial services on the anniversary weekend in December. Prayer services, participatory programs with the community, a candlelight vigil, and time for reflection among parishioners will be included. When finalized, details will be printed in the bulletin.

Complete monthly PPC minutes are posted on the bulletin board in the church vestibule.

ST. STAN'S WEB SITE

The St. Stanislaus Web site "www.ststanislaus.org" has been updated with a new look. We have had almost 7,000 visitors who made almost 18,000 web page visits.

GOLDEN AGERS FALL SOCIAL.

The St. Stanislaus Golden Agers Fall Social will be held on November 9 at the Social Center from 1-6 PM. Games will start at 2 PM. There will be a money raffle and instant bingo. A light lunch will be served. Tickets are $4. The Golden Agers regular meeting will be on November 13 at 2 PM. Tickets will be sold for the Christmas Party which will be held on December 14.

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD

The month of November is traditionally set aside for the prayerful remembrance of the faithful departed. At Saint Stanislaus Church, we have a special devotion to our loved ones who have been called from this life into eternity. One very special way we bring our beloved deceased to prayer is by sending their names to be inscribed in the Book of Life, from which we pray at the beginning of each Mass in November. The October envelope packet contains a special note for sending in names, or you may use your own envelope. People can drop them into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be mailed to the rectory.

ROCZNICA NIEPODLEGŁOŚCI POLSKI

Jak co roku, tak również i w tym roku, kiedy zbliża się 11 listopada, wszystkim polskim patriotom serce bije trochę mocniej, a myśl biegnie do umiłowanej Ojczyzny. To już 85-ta rocznica niepodległościowych wydarzeń, kiedy po ponad 120-letniej niewoli odzyskaliśmy wolność i suwerenność. Zarówno organizacje jak i nasze clevelandzkie parafie pamiętają o tej ważnej rocznicy. Obowiązkiem każdego z nas, Polaków, jest nie tylko pamiętać i dziękować Bogu za wolność, ale przekazywać najważniejsze daty i fakty młodym polskim pokoleniom. W najbliższą sobotę, 8 listopada, będą miały miejsce rocznicowe uroczystości. Najpierw, w naszym kościele Św. Stanisława o godz. 5:00 wieczorem będzie odprawiona Msza św., po zakończeniu której nastąpi kontynuacja w Sali Balowej Związku Polaków. Tegoroczne uroczystości niepodległościowe w Cleveland zaszczyty swoją obecnością konsul generalny Rzeczypospolitej z Nowego Jorku pani Agnieszka Magdziak Miszewska.

WYPOMINKI

W miesiącu listopadzie nasze myśli i modlitwy skierowane są ku zmarłym. Jest pięknym, odwiecznym zwyczajem, że naszych zmarłych polecamy wspólnym modlitwom Kościoła zwanym wypominkami. Nie odkładajmy tej sprawy na później; przez cały listopad nazwiska zmarłych będą czytane w naszym kościele przed każdą Mszą św. Serdeczna prośba: nazwiska naszych zmarłych wypisujmy wyraźnie, najlepiej drukowanymi literami, by można było bezbłędnie wpisać je do Księgi Zmarłych.
