The Story Behind The Sanctuary Christmas Trees

So, it all started last Christmas—the big 'monster' tree idea seemed to be less important in the grand decorating scheme of things. So, a new idea came to me in the midst of all the frenzy: Next year why not have the schoolchildren make ornaments for a new set of trees which I was able to purchase at "Gale's Garden Center" (for $7 each)? The idea seemed great and during one of the first meetings I had with the new Grade School principal, Mrs. Deborah Martin, I passed it by for her reaction. When she said she thought it could work, the fresh decorating scheme was set.

In November I sent Mrs. Martin a memo regarding the project so that the teachers and children could allow their imaginations to wander and formulate their approach to the suggested theme. I presented them with a list of a number of 'quotes' from some of their favorite songs sung at their daily liturgies: "The light of my life is Jesus," "You are the light of the world," "This little light of mine," "Shine, Jesus, shine." Light was going to be the theme! The children could use whatever symbols they chose, whatever words they found enlightening, whatever pictures they found representative of a light in the darkness.

The results of their efforts now decorate the nine trees in the front section of the sanctuary. There you see mainly stars—stars with photographs of many of the children, stars with names stars with dreams and hopes, stars with prayers and poems, stars with various colors and shapes, stars which sparkle and stars which shout "LOOK AT ME...I'M FULL OF LOVE AND I'M SHINING!!!!"

They do shine, all 250 of them, brighter than all the lights which cover the trees. Their faces and voices grace our church every week. Their energy would compete with any real star. They are all treasures and they are all reflections of God. Thanks to our school they will someday brighten the city in ways we can only imagine. While in our care, Jesus takes a special place in their lives. He lights a path for them through the teachers in the classroom and He gently directs them in the church through the prayerful example of some parishioners. They are thirsty for love and light, and we try to provide that for them in so many ways.

This Christmas season, remember to keep our little stars in your prayers. They will shine all the more because of our care, attention and love...and slowly come to know Jesus, the most powerful Light!

THANK YOU

The HOLY Family

On October 21, 1921 Pope Benedict XV introduced the feast of the Holy Family into the liturgical calendar of the universal church. The purpose of this feast was to focus on family life, that essential unit of society. The end of the 19th century, family life and morality were in a state of crisis. Laws concerning marriage were undergoing change. The state assumed more responsibility. Legal requirements regulating civil marriage were made independent of the Church. Divorce was sanctioned.

By focusing on the primary social unit called family, the Church hoped to focus on the biological family, from which the faith family, the Christian family, was to grow. Just as eros love is to reach its maturity and perfection in agape love, (according to Pope Benedict XVI) so too the biological family unit is to reach its maturity (perfection) in the faith family. The faith family (the Church) is to be the start and the destiny toward which the biological family is to grow. The hope is that the biological family is to become a faith family, whose life, desires, decisions and destiny are based on faith in God.

What are some of the ingredients of a good and wholesome biological family life which ought to blossom into a faith family?

Today's second reading (Col. 3: 12-21) can be helpful. St. Paul speaks about "the mystery of Christ." In each of us there is the sacred, the divine, the holy, the unique and totally other, which we call God. This God—Trinity of persons and unity of being—continues to create, redeem and sanctify each and all of us through His Holy Spirit, which is in each of us and in the world.

Believing this, we can relate to one another better and thus become a family unity, where respect is based upon "the mystery of Christ" within each and all of us. We can relate with hope toward each member of the family that God will complete in each of us what He has begun. We are not finished products but are tending to reach the glory which God prepared for each and all of us. That is why we need to "put on" as St. Paul writes, "heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another. If one has a grievance against another, as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do." Then, there is need to "put on love, that is the bond of perfection." There is also need for "the peace of Christ .. to control our hearts, the peace in which we have been called to be one body." Finally, there is need "to do everything in the name of the Lord, giving thanks to God the Father through him." This is a recipe of a wholesome and holy family life which St. Paul gives.

Instead of complaining how biological families are breaking up and faith families are not living up to what they profess to believe, why not resolve personally and as a family to put into practice what we have heard in our second reading about "the mystery of God," which is Jesus the Christ, "the hope of glory" in us. That is the basis of a holy family life.

Peace and Good!

Fr. Cam

"Nowy Rok bieży..."

Nowy, tzn. 2008! Wydaje się, że to wczoraj weszliśmy w nowy wiek i tysiąclecie. Podając datę, jeszcze nie za bardzo przyzwyczailiśmy się do pisania „2” na początku, a już trzeba nam się przestawić na „8” na końcu liczby oznaczającej kolejny rok.

Jak zwykle patrzymy na ten rozpoczynający się czas zarówno z nadzieją jak i z pewną obawą. Co ten Nowy Rok nam przyniesie? - wielu zadaje sobie takie pytanie. Nie wiemy i nie chcemy bawić się w proroków, którym wydaje się, że wiedza i czynia pewne przepowiednie.

Łatwiej jest powiedzieć, co nam przyniósł rok mijający. Dla nas, Polaków, ma duże znaczenie, że od 21 grudnia obywatele Polski mogą podróżować bez pokazywania paszportu czy innego dokumentu tożsamości przez granice krajów Unii Europejskiej. Jeśli chodzi o wydarzenia w życiu Kościoła, to jednym z najważniejszych wydarzeń tego roku jest encyklika papieska „Spe salvi”, czyli „O chrześcijańskiej nadziei”. O ile pierwsze ze wspomnianych wydarzeń jest źródłem nadziei „doczesnej”, tzn. ekonomicznej czy związanej ze statusem Polaka w Europie, o tyle wspomniana encyklika papieska mówi o nadziei właściwej chrześcijanom.

Pod hasłem związanym z nadzieją, a dokładnie mówiąc „Chrystus nasza nadzieja” będzie zapowiedziana na kwiecień 2008 rok wizyta pasterska Ojca świętego Benedykta w Stanach Zjednoczonych. Czytanie i rozwiązywanie encykliki papieskiej będzie dobrym sposobem na przygotowanie się do tej wizyty. Można ją znaleźć i przeczytać po polsku i po angielsku w Internecie (www.vatican.va), a pewnie też już ukazała się w wydaniu książkowym.

Ojciec święty mówi o nadziei wskazując na jej źródło; tym źródłem jest spotkanie z Bogiem. Na początku swego pisma cytując św. Pawła i jego list do Efezjan. Apostoł przypomina adresatom, że zanim spotkali Chrystusa, byli poganami „nie mającymi nadziei ani Boga na tym świecie”. To spotkanie z Bogiem jest źródłem naszej nadziei. Czas Bożego Narodzenia, który właśnie przeżywamy, uświadamia nam, że jest to „Bóg z nami”, czyli Bóg, który w swoim Synu stał się Człowiekiem.

Chrystus pokazał nam trudną drogę; On sam stał się dla nas Droga, ale jest to droga, która budzi nadzieję, dlatego że ma ona swój cel. Droga, która prowadzi donikąd, nie ma racji istnienia. Posiadanie celu w życiu jest pierwszym warunkiem, aby ludzkie życie miało sens.

Nowy Rok uświadamia nam, że nasze życie przemija, że z każdym rokiem stajemy się starsi, ale zarazem bogatsi o nowe doświadczenia. Rok 2007 już nie wróci. Rok 2008 przyniesie nam nowe radości, nowe spotkania, nowe wyzwania. Nie wiemy, jaki on będzie. Ale wiemy z całą pewnością, że idzie z nami Chrystus, który stał się dla nas Droga i jest naszym celem, bo w nim jest pełnia życia, a nie tylko życie zamknięte w granicach czasu i przestrzeni.

Niech On nam błogosławi na drogach naszego życia roku 2008. Niech nasze ludzkie spotkanie będzie spotkaniami z NIM, i niech umacniają nasza NADZIEJE, że nigdy nie jesteśmy sami i że wszystko ma sens.

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski.

Father Anton Kolaszewski was the Pastor of St. Stanislaus Parish from 1883-1892. He was born in Russian Poland in September of 1851. His family came to America. He studied for the priesthood at the Franciscan College in Teutopolis, Illinois and at St. Mary's Seminary here in Cleveland. Father Kolaszewski was ordained a priest in 1883 and he was made Pastor of St. Stanislaus Parish. After dealing with the Newburgh Rolling Mill strike of 1885 in which many of his Parishioners participated, he took on the task of constructing our present church. Work on building the church began in 1886. The church was completed in 1891 at the cost of $250,000.

PEACE GARDEN MEMORIAL BRICKS are still available for $100.00 each by contacting the rectory office. Order your brick in time for a spring 2008 installation. If you previously donated a brick, you may find it by taking a stroll in the garden.

About HARMONIA:

HARMONIA presents the traditional folk music of Eastern Europe, ranging from the Danube to the Carpathians. Its repertoire reflects the cultures of the region: Hungarian, Ukrainian, Slovak, Carpatho-Rusyn, Romanian, Croatian, Serbian and Gypsy (Rom). Performing on authentic folk instruments, Harmonia's music is drawn from both village and urban traditions of Eastern Europe. The ensemble's performances evoke the full range of human emotions; interspersing fiery, passionate virtuosity with soulful melancholy and nostalgic yearning
