ICON

Last week at all the liturgies we all heard about the upcoming honor of hosting Mado Kucharska, the iconographer from Krakow, who has been commissioned to write the icon of St. Stanislaus and John Paul II for our Shrine Church. As I mentioned last week, and as Fr. Michael mentioned at all the Masses, the idea of an icon to portray the two bishops of Krakow was one eagerly greeted by Cardinal Stanislaus Dziwisz when we met with him in November 2005. We all saw the appropriateness of this specific sacred art form in honoring the two men of God so venerated by the Church. But how did the events unfold leading to the engagement of Mrs. Kucharska for this commission? Here's how things unfolded:

During our visit to Krakow in 2005, one of the places we visited was Skalka, the shrine of the martyrdom of St. Stanislaus. We were honored at that time to meet with the prior of the monastery, Fr. Andrew Napiorkowski, who invited us to his private office where we were able to talk with him and, of course, present some gifts we had brought for him (photographs of our Shrine and our music CDs). While in his office we noticed a wonderful icon over his desk which incorporated the figure of John Paul II along with many other holy people. Prior to the visit to his office we also noticed an exhibit of an icon in the lower crypt of the sanctuary. This may have been the spark which led us then to ask Fr. Napiorkowski about the icon in his possession as well as his assistance in contacting the artist, Mado Kucharska, on our behalf. Then, upon mentioning the idea to Cardinal Dziwisz, and his obvious delight, there was no question but to pursue and execute the project which found its inspiration at the place of martyrdom of St. Stanislaus.

Next came our discussion of ideas with Mado. It was necessary to decide what, aside from the figures of Stanislaus and John Paul, the icon should contain. Also, what sentiments should the figures themselves convey? After much discussion it was felt that the pastoral aspect was paramount and, included with that, the concept of unity. Thus, Mado will have as her challenge the incorporation of symbols of those aspects along with a catholicity and universality that is necessary for a true work of art. We might see the four eagles. We might see images of Skalka, St. Peter's and our own Shrine. These details will come together as Mado gains some additional inspiration during her visit with us. She has already prepared the board on which the icon will be written, the same size as the current images in our Shrine of Our Lady of Ostrabrama and Guadalupe. Now is your chance to contribute your ideas, to add to her inspiration.

This weekend, let us welcome Mado Kucharska. May we aid her in her quest to capture the essence of these holy men in her work. May the Holy Spirit guide her hands, mind and heart.

SENSUS FIDELIUM

“The Church belongs to the People!” This is something we hear from time to time. Sometimes it comes from people who are deeply committed to their faith and want to contribute what they can in ways that are appropriate to their roles in the community. Other times the sentiment comes from people who are upset about something going on in the Church, and they want to rally the troops, so to speak, in order to force some kind of change.

“The Church is not a democracy!” This is another refrain we hear from time to time. On the positive side, it may come from people who are loyal to the institutional Church and who wish to preserve it from anarchy and trendiness. On the negative side, this sentiment may also come from people who are trying to protect some kind of privilege or power they enjoy.

The truth, of course, is seldom in the extremes but usually in the middle ground. In Catholic doctrine, there is an old tradition referred to as the sensus fidelium, or the “sense of the faithful.” It refers to the idea that the beliefs, consciences, and experiences of good and honest Catholics is one of the valid sources of truth in Catholic theology. Certainly the Holy Spirit is active in the minds of theologians and the authority of the bishops, but the lives of the ordinary faithful are also guided by the same Holy Spirit. The experiences of the faithful need to be considered when the Church teaches and makes decisions.

There is a deep and abiding sensus fidelium here at Saint Stanislaus. It takes expression in many ways, and it evolves and develops over time. Over the past few years, for example, we have seen the faithful make ever greater use of the space near the side altars at the shrine transept (the doorway by the ramp). It was the natural place for the newly restored relic of Saint Stanislaus, the miter of Pope John Paul II, and now the new icon being prepared. Before and after all the Masses, we see many people moving there silently, perhaps alone or maybe bringing their children with, to light candles and ask the Saints to pray with them for their intentions.

How many healings have been effected through those prayers? How many lives were touched, how much peace and solace was discovered there? The loving gaze of Our Lady, the thousand year old relic of our patron, the simple presence of the Franciscan relics (Francis, Anthony, and Clare), and the pastoral touch of the Holy Father — all of these are like a gathering of the Saints with us in prayer.

How did this come about? The people made it that way. The sensus fidelium has spoken. Now we are being called to recognize and honor the piety of the people by preparing a space that is more open, more reverent, and more prayerful. The icon that is being prepared needs to be housed in something worthy of its significance. The people lighting candles and saying private prayers need to be shielded from the wind at the door and from the commotion of people entering and leaving the church. The candle racks need to be more stable and safe. And all this must be done in a way that respects the nineteenth century art and architecture of our shrine church.

Wonderful things are on their way! Stay tuned...

Fr. Michael

W ostatnim tygodniu obecni na wszystkich Mszach swietych mogli uslyszec o zblizajacej sie wizycie w naszej parafii p. Mado Kucharskiej, piszacej ikony artystki z Krakowa. Otrzymała on zadanie wykonania dla naszego sanktuarium ikony przedstawiajacej postaci sw. Stanislawy oraz Sluge Bozego Jana Pawla II. Jak o tym mówił w ogłoszeniach o. Michał Surufka, pomysł takiej ikony przedstawiajacej dwóch biskupów z Krakowa spotkał się z zycziwa aprobata kard. Stanislawy Dziwisza, kiedy spotkaliśmy się z nim w listopadzie 2005. Wszyscy obecni na tym spotkaniu doszliśmy do przekonania, że jest rzecza jak najbardziej właściwa, aby ci dwaj Boży Mezwowie, tak czczeni w naszym kościele, byli uczczeni własnie przez ten uswiecony rodzaj sztuki, jaka jest ikonografia. Ale jak to się stało, że własnie p. Mado Kucharska została zaangażowana do wykonania tego dzieła? Oto uchylenie „rabka tajemnicy”:

Podczas wspomnianej wizyty w Polsce w listopadzie 2005, jednym z miejsc przez nas odwiedzonych była Skalka, gdzie według tradycji miało miejsce męczeństwo sw. Stanislawy. Mieliśmy zaszczyt spotkać tamtejszego przeora, o. Andrzeja Napiórkowskiego. Zaprosił on nas do swojego biura, gdzie mogliśmy z nim rozmawiać i oczywiście, podarowaliśmy mu nasze przywiezione z Cleveland prezenty (zdjęcia i muzykę na CD z naszego sanktuarium). W czasie rozmowy mieliśmy okazję zobaczyć wspaniałą ikonę nad biurkiem przeora przedstawiającą postać Jana Pawła II razem z innymi swietymi. Jeszcze przed tą rozmową obejrzelismy wystawioną na pokaz ikonę w dolnej krypcie sanktuarium. To było taka iskra, która spowodowała, że zapytaliśmy o. Andrzeja o ikonę będącą w jego posiadaniu, jak również o pomoc w skontaktowaniu się z artystką, p. Mado Kucharską. Później, po tym jak wspomnieliśmy o tym kard. Dziwiszowi, i kiedy zobaczyliśmy jego zachwyt dla tego pomysłu, nie mieliśmy już żadnych wątpliwości. Postanowiliśmy doprowadzić do końca ten projekt, którego pomysłu zrodził się w miejscu męczeństwa naszego Patrona.

Następnym ważnym punktem, który tu trzeba wspomnieć, była rozmowa z p. Mado na temat konkretnego wyrazu naszych idei. Konieczna była decyzja, co oprócz tych dwóch postaci, powinna jeszcze zawierać ikona. Pojawilo się także pytanie, o sposób przedstawienia postaci sw. Stanislawy i Jana Pawła II. Po wielu dyskusjach uznaliśmy, że najważniejszy jest pasterski aspekt, i obok tego, także przedstawienie idei jedności. W ten sposób Mado stanie naprzeciw wyzwaniu zmaterializowania w ikonie symboli katolicyzmu i uniwersalizmu. Może być to cztery orły. Może być to zarysy sylwetek kościołów na Skalce, bazyliki rzymskiej i naszego sanktuarium. Te szczegóły polacza się w jedną całość, gdy p. Mado otrzyma za naszym pośrednictwem dodatkowe natchnienie w czasie jej wizyty w Cleveland. Ona rzeczywiście chce uslyszec o tym od parafian. Chce rozważyć wszystkie racjonalne pomysły. Drewniana podstawa, na której będzie ona rysować te ikony, jest już gotowa. Jest to ten sam rozmiar, co ikony Matki Bożej Ostrobramskiej i z Gwadelupy. Teraz jest Wasza szansa, aby przyczynić się przez swoje pomysły do dodania jej natchnienia.

W tym tygodniu Mado Kucharska jest wśród nas. Przywitajmy ją. Pomóżmy jej w usilowaniu uchwycenia w jej dziele istoty tych dwóch Mezów Bozych. Niech Duch Swiety prowadzi jej rece, umysł i serce.

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski.

This weekend we celebrate our alumni and friends of St. Stanislaus Elementary and High Schools. We also celebrate 100 year milestones of the Franciscans at St. Stans, the laying of the cornerstone for the Elementary School, and the presence of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth in our community. The Franciscans arrived in the spring of 1906. Led by Father Theobald Kalamaja OFM the new Friars took charge of St. Stans from Diocesan priests. The Sacred Heart Province ministered to the parishioners until 1989 when the Friars of the Assumption Province took over the care of the Parish. The present St. Stanislaus Elementary School was completed in 1907. It was dedicated by Bishop Ignatius Horstman in November of that year. The Franciscan Sisters of Wisconsin could not provide adequate staffing for the school. Father Kalamaja invited the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth to come to our community to educate our children. On August 28, 1907 Mother Stanislaus arrived with thirteen Sisters at the Sacred Hearts of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph convent.
