The Passover and Our Lamb

This Sunday our Jewish friends will celebrate the final day of Passover, the day which focuses on ultimate freedom and the imminent arrival of the Messiah. The Passover celebration originated in ancient Israel as a commemoration of Yahweh’s intervention in that nation’s history when the Angel of the Lord passed over the homes of the captive Israelites held in the land of the Pharaoh. The lamb was a part of the ritual of this important event from the time of its inception, lambs having been a traditional sacrifice in the Sacred Scriptures from the time of Cain and Abel through Abraham and Isaac and beyond. In the Temple of Jerusalem the lamb was the major sacrificial offering by the High Priests even though the laity might choose other animals to offer in sacrifice at the altar just outside of the building. At the first Passover in Egypt its blood was poured over the doorposts to alert the angel to ‘pass over’ the house and not take the life of the first born dwelling within the domicile.

As Christians we believe the Messiah has already arrived in Jesus, the Lamb of God. Throughout the season of Lent the idea of the Lamb was emphasized during the Communion procession as we all approached the altar to consume the Body and Blood of the Agnus Dei. Jesus, the Lamb of God, was both the supreme sacrifice and High Priest who alone could have accomplished what the blood of millions of lambs and animals never could have.

The symbol of the Lamb of God may be seen throughout our church, especially within the sanctuary. The most notable is carved into the base of the high altar immediately under the tabernacle. (N.B. I do not refer to the symbol on the front of the current altar of sacrifice inasmuch as I have no clue as to its meaning....Suggestions and serious information on that item would be most welcomed.) There sits the image of the Lamb of God atop the Book of the Seven Seals (as referenced in the Book of Revelation). That particular symbol is the most important amidst a sea of symbols within this building as it shows the Lamb on His throne, the Paschal Lamb who eternally celebrates His wedding feast with those who have been baptized by His Blood. The feast is the Mass and we enter the courts of heaven each time we celebrate that divine liturgy.

The season of Easter continues and it inspires us all to joyfully proclaim the mysteries of our faith. For those of you who would like to explore the subject of the Lamb further, might I suggest a book by author Scott Hahn, “The Lamb’s Supper; The Mass as Heaven on Earth”. It’s a fabulous book, one which I read during my recent time off, and one which I will read again and again as my own pilgrimage of faith continues.

In the meantime, Alleluia!

FULL-TIME PRIEST, PART-TIME MINISTER?

During these months of planning for parish clustering, we have been discussing many urgent questions having to do with finances and personnel — especially the so-called “priest shortage.” The four parishes in our cluster are now also talking about what needs to be done in order to provide ministry and outreach to people whose parishes might close

(two of the four). Those parishes that remain will have to assume responsibility for that additional outreach.

The bishop also requires a financial plan from each parish that proposes to remain open, a plan that will project expenses, income, and capital improvement (buildings and grounds) for the next ten years. I wish to use this column to share some insight into the issue of the availability of priests and the kinds of expenses that go along with it.

Let me start with a true story about a conversation from a few weeks ago. One evening I was visiting one of our parishioners in a suburban nursing home. As I was leaving, two women stopped me in the vestibule of the nursing home to ask a favor. Would I please visit their elderly husband/father, whom they were just now admitting?

I said I would try to when I come around to visit our parishioner there. When asked what parish they belonged to, they said that, although they were originally from Saint Stanislaus a long time ago, they had not been members for decades. Furthermore, they had since joined a protestant church in the suburbs. When I suggested they contact the pastor of the church they actually attended, they said that he cannot make these kinds of visits because he only pastors on the weekends! He has a full-time job outside the church to provide his income.

This would be an unusual ministry situation for Catholics to accept. We are accustomed to priests who live in the parish house, are always available, and have no other “work” commitments. We could not imagine having a parish priest who could not come to visit the sick, comfort the dying, be in the office for people to drop by, schedule appointments for counseling or marriage preparation. We also expect the priests to be the daily watchdogs of the parish property.

At the same time, many parishioners do not understand that parish priests are paid an annual salary, which level is set by the diocese. Currently the annual salary is $22,740, plus $10 per month for each year one is ordained, plus benefits such as health insurance and pension, as well as providing the rectory and a household budget. The Friars here are grateful to the parishioners who sacrifice to provide for us.

Franciscan Friars hold a Chapter every three years (just concluded by the Friars in Kraków, coming in June for the Assumption BVM Province). If Saint Stanislaus will continue to host a strong Franciscan presence, the Friars have to make hard choices about leaving some other parishes and ministries. The challenge is mutual, as the parishioners of Saint Stanislaus — English and Polish speaking — are called to an equal sacrifice to maintain the level of Franciscan ministry they have known for 102 years.

Zwycięstwo Pokonanego

Na Katolickim Uniwersytecie w Lublinie została przeprowadzona swego czasu taka ankieta wśród satanistów. Pytano ich: „Dlaczego stałeś się satanistą?” Najczęstszą odpowiedzią była ta: „Ponieważ Bóg jest słaby.”

Wydawać się może, że na krzyżu Pan Bóg ponosi ostateczną klęskę. Tak właśnie myśleli uczniowie idący do Emaus. Nie rozumieli, że Mesjasz musiał cierpieć, aby w ten sposób wejść do swojej chwały.

Jednakże w oczach Bożych, czyli tak, jak jest rzeczywistość, jest to największe zwycięstwo. Ślady tej myśli możemy znaleźć w Piśmie św., w tekstach mszalnych i brewiarzowych oraz w pieśniach wielkanocnych. Zwycięstwo Jezusa na krzyżu staje się widoczne w poranek wielkanocny, ale i tutaj, podobnie jak na krzyżu, jest to zwycięstwo ukryte. Widoczne staje się tylko dla tych, którzy mają wiarę.

Zostaliśmy wychowani na literaturze i filmach, gdzie często jest obecny schemat biało-czarny. „Dobra” postać główna, z którą identyfikuje się czytelnik czy widz, i naprzeciwko niej „zła” postać, która wzbudza uczucia niechęci czy nienawiści. Bardzo często ta dobra postać wygrywa na tą złą, ponieważ jest silniejsza, ma lepszą broń czy jest po prostu sprytniejsza. W ten sposób uczymy się identyfikować dobro z tym, co jest silniejsze. Konsekwentnie, to co jest słabe, musi być w jakiś sposób złe, czyli musi być nieużyteczne i zbyteczne. Z tego miejsca zostaje już tylko krok do uznania aborcji i eutanazji.

Zwycięstwo Jezusa jest innego rodzaju. On zwycięża, ponieważ nie stawia oporu złu, kiedy był torturowany i umierał na krzyżu. On pozwolił prowadzić się na zabicie niczym niemy baranek. Pan nie przeklinał swoich oprawców, lecz modlił się za nich, „Przebacz im, bo nie wiedzą, co czynią”. On, który jednym swoim oddechem czy samą myślą mógł zamienić swoich prześladowców w pył, podaje im bez oporu ręce do ukrzyżowania. On nie przemienia kamieni w chleb, aby zaspokoić swój głód; nie broni się też, aby ratować swoje życie. Jezus nie przemienia świata przez zniszczenie wrogów - szatana i grzeszników - ale przez swoją śmierć.

Zmartywychwstając, Jezus nie prowadzi w tryumfie pokonanych, ale nie przychodzi do tych, którzy stali się przyczyną Jego śmierci, aby ich ukarać czy choćby przestraszyć, ale objawia się tym, którzy w Niego uwierzyli. Zwycięstwo Pana polegało na tym, że On ani na chwilę nie przyjął taktyki szatana, że ani na chwilę nie zdradził miłości, że nie dopuścił w sobie nienawiści. Cały czas czynił tylko to, co było dobre.

Także swoim uczniom Jezus nie objawia się po to, aby im wypomnieć niewierność, lecz aby ich na nowo zjednoczyć i umocnić, i aby dać im udział w swojej radości. Nie przychodzi do Piotra, aby go ukarać za trzykrotne wyparcie się swego Mistrza, lecz aby powierzyć troskę o Kościół trzykrotnym: „Paś baranki moje”. Uczniom do Emaus Pan cierpliwie tłumaczy, że „Mesjasz musiał cierpieć i tak wejść do swojej chwały”. W ten sposób napełnia ich radością i wskazuje im i nam na znak chleba, pod którą to postacią pozostanie z nami aż do skończenia świata.

THE FOUR EAGLE BANQUET AND AWARD PRESENTATION

Time is running out to reserve a table or space for St. Stanislaus's most prestigious and refined event. Past honorees have been Mr. Ben S. Stefanski II, the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth, the former Mayor Jane Campbell, the Franciscan Friars and the Cleveland Police 3rd District. It is important to remember that parishioners are not alone in sustaining our parish! This year, we are pleased to announce that the award will be accepted by former Councilman Ed Rybka Jr., a long-time parishioner, and our present Councilman Tony Brancatelli.

This elegant banquet will be held on Friday, May 9, 2008, starting at 6 p.m. in the St. Stanislaus Social Center. Tickets are $65 per person. Several food stations with multiple entrees, desserts, an open bar throughout the evening, music, and interesting silent auction items all make for a fun evening! This is a major fundraising event and all proceeds go to support the continued advancement of the spiritual, educational, and cultural mission of the shrine parish. Ask employers, coworkers, and family members about sharing the sponsorship of a table! Reservations are a must, so please contact the rectory at 216-341-9091 for information and reservations.

SILENT AUCTION

This year we are including a Silent Auction as a part of the evening's festivities. If you are planning to attend, and even if you're not, can you please consider donating an item for the auction? ### ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

by Rob Jagelewski

Ninety-nine years ago, on April 21, 1909, our church was struck by a tornado, which knocked down the two steeples over the bell towers, blew the two bells in the east tower into the schoolyard, injured many individuals, and caused one million dollars in property damage in the city by wind, fire, and lightning. The two bell steeples were over 230 feet high. They could not be rebuilt due to city code. The entire front half of the church was damaged. The church suffered damage to the stain glass window in the choir loft as well as organ and extensive roof damage. Those individuals who died were Joseph Vessela— hit by a falling stack at a manufacturing plant on East 73, Mrs. Oliver Phalen— hit by a stone blown from a roof and instantly killed, Joseph Convell— blown from a crane at Cleveland Furnace and hit by falling timber, Clarence Troutman— blown from a box car in the B & O Railroad yards and run over by a switch engine, Louis Petro— killed by storm at the Euclid Country Club golf course, Fred Grugel— frightened by the storm and committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid, and Arthur Niedbalski— seven year old child, who was struck by bricks from the steeples of our church.
