Pope calls for prayers as militants chase all Christians out of Mosul

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- As the last Iraqi Christians in Mosul fled the city, Pope Francis urgently called for prayers, dialogue and peace.

"Violence isn't overcome with violence. Violence is conquered with peace," the pope said before leading thousands of pilgrims gathered in St. Peter's Square in a moment of silent prayer July 20.

"Our brothers and sisters are persecuted, they are chased away," he said, as he assured Christians in all of Iraq and the Middle East of his "constant prayers."

The Islamic State group, which has taken control of Mosul, Iraq's second-largest city, was threatening to kill any Christians who did not convert to Islam or pay a tax, Syriac Patriarch Ignace Joseph III Younan told Vatican Radio.

Identifying them as targets for ISIS)*

The militants in Mosul also burned to the ground the building housing the Syriac bishop's office, residence and library, and everything inside, he said July 19.

Islamic State fighters "have already threatened that if they don't convert to Islam, all Christians will be murdered. It's terrible! This is a disgrace for the whole international community," he told the radio.

The international community must immediately halt all aid to the Islamic State group, he said.

"Whom are they getting their weapons from? From these extremist nations in the (Persian) Gulf, with the approval of Western political leaders because they need their oil."

The patriarch said the world community must uphold human rights and the freedom of religion.

"We are in Iraq, Syria and Lebanon: We Christians weren't imported, we've been here for millennia and, therefore, we have the right to be treated as human beings and citizens of these countries," he said.

Patriarch Younan spoke with Pope Francis by telephone July 20 while visiting Rome and told him of the "disastrous" situation in Mosul.

The pope said "he was following closely and with anxiety the plight of Christians" in Mosul, the patriarch told Catholic News Service.

During their nine-minute phone conversation, the patriarch begged the pope "to continue intensifying efforts with the powerful of this world" and to warn them "that it is a mass purification based on religion which is underway in the province of Ninevah," whose capital is Mosul.

"What a shame for the silence of the so-called 'civilized world'" in response to the tragedy, the patriarch told CNS via email.

Militants singled out homes belonging to Christians and marked them in red paint with the letter "N," for "Nazarat," which means Christian, as well as "Property of ISIS," -- the Islamic State group, said Chaldean Auxiliary Bishop Saad Sirof of Baghdad.

Patriarch Sako said that as late as the end of June, 35,000 Christians had lived in Mosul, and more than 60,000 lived there before the U.S.-led invasion in 2003. But now, "for the first time in the history of Iraq, Mosul is now empty of Christians."

GARDENERS

Thanks goes out to Bob Molinski, Pat Zielinski, Dads' Club Members Larry Mielczarek and Frank Krajewski and all others (who I might have not seen) who helped tidy up our many gardens this past week (except for whoever cut back our pussywillows!!)

INFANTS / TODDLERS OF SLAVIC VILLAGE

A billboard along the highway gives us the stark facts....1 in 5 children in America face hunger EVERY day! Our religion teaches us that we are all children of God...that we are our brother's keeper. Whatsoever we do unto one another we do unto God! The thoughtful generosity of an anonymous parishioner who donated $100 to purchase food items for our children has made that teaching a reality. No words can thank you enough! Just think how many children will have food on their table because "someone cared"! You too can help just by donating a can of soup or a box of cereal....every little bit helps! Open your hearts to the cries of a hungry child! Please take time to "Remember Me."

Faithful Legacy

Ensuring the Future of Our Catholic Faith

www.myplanwithcatholiccommunity.org/ststanislaus/

Saint Stanislaus has had a long history of having benefitted from generous donations and bequests from parishioners.

Most bequests were made without prior knowledge of the parish and were often communicated to the parish by an estate executor or attorney.

Because the parish was not aware of the intended bequests, appropriate acknowledgement of the donor or a designated use of the bequest was not possible.

Nevertheless, in many ways we are all enjoying the benefits of those bequests today.

BARELY TRUCKIN'

Hmmmmmmmm...seems like good ole Zocha is still with us. Know of anyone who is in a generous mood who might replace her with an actual truck that is reliable? The parish would sure appreciate the help!

DUST to DUST

How many times have you walked by a part of our lovely church and said to yourself: "Doesn't anyone ever dust in here??" Well gooooooolly (as Gomer Pyle might say)...that someone could be YOU!!! Find yourself thinking of a little way to contribute to the parish when times are tough? Well, here it is, on a silver platter. Just give us a call or show up for a weekday Mass (or before a Saturday evening Mass...instead of sitting around talking!)...take as much time as you need or an manage. The place gets dusty in less than an hour!!! This is not a joke. So often it is an embarrassment to show the church to visitors when seeing how dirty the place is. Eleven hundred registered families and MAYBE eleven people who do most the work around here. It gets a little old. Don't say you are too old or too busy! That makes you sound like Putin. A little dusting never killed anyone. Give up plinko for a day! Give up Dr. Kildare for a day! Let Mary Hartman worry about her yellow wax build up! But help us keep this place clean!!

REMEMBER YOUR GIFT CARDS!

You are going to buy gas (GAZPROM, Texaco, SOHIO). You are going to shop at a grocery store (Newburgh Market, Tony the Butcher's, Canton Poultry). You are going to get a bite to eat (Dairy Dell, Casey's Tavern, Sadowski's Bakery). You are going to shop for clothing (Winkelman's, Woolworth's, Ben Miller's). So why not buy our cards and benefit the parish at no additional cost?

EWANGELIA

Przypowieść o skarbie ukrytym prawdopodobnie została wygłoszona razem z przypowieścią o drogocennej perle i o niewodzie do samych tylko uczniów. Człowiek, który znalazł skarb, ukrył go, ponieważ chciał zostać legalnym jego właścicielem. Prawdopodobnie ktoś zakopał ów skarb, jak to często się zdarzało nie tylko w Palestynie. Ten skarb stał się dla znalazcy najcenniejszy. Sprzedał więc wszystko, co miał, i kupił pole, aby go legalnie zdobyć. Prawo rzymskie przyznawało skarb znalazcy. Przypowieść wyraża myśl, że królestwo Boże jest największą wartością, dla której zdobycia poświęcić trzeba wszelkie wartości doczesne.

Identyczną myśl wyraża równoległa przypowieść, w której królestwo niebieskie przyrównane zostało do perły uznawanej za cenniejszą od złota i drogich kamieni.

Przypowieść o niewodzie przedstawia obraz z życia rybaków. Grecka sagene oznacza dużą sieć, której górny brzeg zaopatrzony w pływalki utrzymywał się na powierzchni, a brzeg dolny obciążony ołowiem i kamieniami opadał w głąb jeziora lub morza. Długie sznury przywiązane do bocznej krawędzi sieci służyły do wyciągania jej na brzeg. Złe ryby (w gr. dosł.: zgniłe) to zapewne ryby nieużyteczne, nieprzydatne do spożycia.

Myśl wyrażoną przez przypowieść wskazuje jej zakończenie: do końca obecnej fazy królestwa Bożego będą w nim żyli obok siebie dobrzy i źli. Dopiero u jej kresu nastąpi rozdział: Dobrzy zostaną zbawieni, a źli odrzuceni od Boga.

FESTIVALS of Interest 2014

Yes, it's that time of the year again when we begin to think of festivals! The three local Polish parishes are all gearing up for the 2014 season as we speak, all scheduled for the first weekends of the respective months as is customary.

August 1,2,3: St. Casimir (NEXT WEEKEND)

September (Labor Day weekend): St. John Cantius

Cultural Gardens One World Festival: Sept. 13, 14th

October 3,4,5: St. Stanislaus

With regards to our festival we ask those who have helped in the past to consider helping again! Those who have not, we ask that you consider joining us this year! It requires a lot of hands and backs and patience, but it all benefits our parish.

The bands have already been booked, the raffle tickets are being printed, the different sub-committees will soon begin to meet! Before you know it October will be here! Then the heat bill fund will be replenished anew!

TEEN STEP PROGRAM, Monday, August 4 @ 7 PM

Cleveland Public Theater's "Student Theatre Enrichment Program" is the city's longest running arts and job training program for urban teens. STEP will return for its annual visit to the plaza area in front of St. Stanislaus next Monday evening at 7! This year's work: "Now the City Dreams" was created as an unapologetic re-imagining of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream". The work is a feast of percussion, song, dance, colorful costumes and modern poetry. Come celebrate the power and creativity of Cleveland's youth when this joyful production dreams its way onto our plaza next Monday evening! Seating is provided! Just bring your eyes and ears!

NEW VOTIVE CANDLE STANDS....AND PRICING

Have you noticed the acquisition of some new votive candle stands throughout the church. These have recently been delivered through an arrangement with the ROOT Candle Company, our supplier of ecclesiastical candles for many years. There was no charge for these stands because of our use of the company's products. However, in keeping up with increased costs for everything, we request the suggested donation for the larger candles be $3.00 per candle, a pricing already established at most diocesan and national churches years ago. We are just catching up. The price of the smaller votive lights will remain at 50 cents.

The candles should be easier to light this week having had the 'sand containers' dried out. (They became moisture saturated having been in the church basement for a little too long a period.)
