GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY LAND

If you are a registered parishioner here at St. Stanislaus you would have received your packet of envelopes for contributions during the month of April. Among those envelopes you will notice one designated as "HOLY LAND" and dated April 3, 2015. Throughout the Catholic world all churches designate their collected funds to be subsequently sent to the Holy Land to help maintain and save the many Catholic churches and holy sites which, otherwise, have meager sources of revenue. The churches and shrines are under the watch of the Franciscan Order, a custom dating back centuries when the area was under the rule of the Ottoman Empire. This is OUR heritage, a responsibility which we share as Catholics.
These churches are suffering and need our help.

Jesus washing the feet of His apostles. …. The servant of the servants… against impossible odds….. Perhaps you can be a servant and take up a new cross and challenge of being a member of the Parish Pastoral Council? WE NEED YOU TO BE THE HANDS, EYES AND HEART OF JESUS! The Parish Pastoral Council serves as the eyes and ears of the parishioners. Not everyone has the luxury of time or the social ability to communicate directly with the parish staff. The Council facilitates this action, bringing concerns and/or questions of the congregation to the attention of the pastoral staff.

As the Parish Council does this important work, we must remember our own responsibilities to be vigilant of negative forces, pride, self-aggrandizement, envy and the like, placing the good of others before our individual agendas. The importance of praying for our priests and staff cannot be underestimated. The ground in a parish is always fertile for weeds as much as it is for nutritional growth. None of us are both strong and saints but all of us are both weak and sinners. We all require the assistance of each other to further the culture of life. When we say "Jesus, I trust in You" we must try our hardest to mean it… not always an easy thing when we are weighed down with doubt. Let us pray for each other...not prey on each other, and glorify God together in humble service. Evangelizing must begin right in our own hearts, hands, feet, eyes.

FOUR EAGLE BANQUET 2015

The date is official….the 2015 Four Eagles Banquet is set for Friday evening, May 8th, the feast of St. Stanislaus! Doors will open at 6 PM. This year's recipient is the Third Federal Foundation, a most generous and supportive force in our neighborhood as well as an ongoing supporter of our parish, St. Stanislaus Elementary School and Cleveland Central Catholic High School.

The cost per person is $85, and, if you have ever been to this event in the past, you know that cost is an absolute bargain for the wonderful food, drinks and camaraderie the evening provides! More info will be forthcoming over the next couple of weeks. Please consider joining us in honoring the recipient and helping us with this most important annual fundraiser!

Greetings from the Little Church Mouse again. Oh my, Lent is passing so quickly. Since I am a little Catholic mouse, I do attend Mass along with you. I was paying close attention to this week's homily, and the message really did get me thinking. Father mentioned that it is not too late to give up something for Lent such as a lesser portion of food or some wonderful, rich dessert that is so delightful to indulge in after dinner.

It made me think there is another way to give up something and that is what I've been talking about for the past several weeks. That something is YOU and the offering is your time, talent, and treasure. I noted the list of Holy Week opportunities listed in the bulletin last week. It might be a good place to start. Have you some time to offer your parish community? We all have some talent maybe even some which is hidden about which you are unaware. Some treasure? Some bedding plants? Some cleaning supplies? You?

I hope you have been thinking about these points these past weeks. I trust you've saved the dates on your calendar for our biggest fund raiser of the year, the Polish Festival. May you have a reflective Passion Week as you prepare for the highlight of the liturgical year. I will be around. After all, those baskets are coming soon for the Easter blessing! Yum!

COOKBOOK FUNDRAISER

We are now collecting your favorite recipes for our Organ Fundraiser Cookbook. Recipes need to be either typed or printed with LEGIBLE handwriting. Please include all necessary information intended to make the recipe work, whether for the novice or the master chef!

Recipes should be placed in the gold box found atop the piano. Please indicate the title of the recipe and, if so desired, to whom it is attributed. We will include as much information in the published version as space permits.

Thank you for participating in this fundraiser! We have a little less than two years to complete raising the funds necessary to restore our pipe organ.

The deadline for submitting recipes is the end of May. This will give the committee adequate time to prepare them for publication in the Summer, far enough in advance of our festival!!!! If you find it simpler to e-mail your recipes for inclusion in our book please send them to Vicki Mathis at:

Dlaczego Niedziela Palmowa? Dlaczego święcenie palm?

Szósta niedziela Wielkiego Postu nazywana jest Niedzielą Palmową, czyli Męki Pańskiej, i rozpoczyna obchody Wielkiego Tygodnia. Liturgia Kościoła wspomina tego dnia uroczysty wjazd Pana Jezusa do Jerozolimy. Zwyczaj święcenia palm pojawił się ok. VII w. na terenach dzisiejszej Francji. Z kolei procesja wzięła swój początek z Ziemi Świętej. To właśnie Kościół w Jerozolimie starał się jak najdokładniej „powtarzać" wydarzenia z życia Pana Jezusa. W IV w. istniała już procesja z Betanii do Jerozolimy, co poświadcza Egeria. Według jej wspomnień patriarcha wsiadał na oślicę i wjeżdżał do Świętego Miasta, zaś zgromadzeni wierni, witając go w radości i w uniesieniu, ścielili przed nim swoje płaszcze i palmy. Następnie wszyscy udawali się do bazyliki Anastasis (Zmartwychwstania), gdzie sprawowano uroczystą liturgię. Owa procesja rozpowszechniła się w całym Kościele mniej więcej do XI w. W Rzymie szósta niedziela Przygotowania Paschalnego była początkowo wyłącznie Niedzielą Męki Pańskiej, kiedy to uroczyście śpiewano Pasję. Dopiero w IX w. do liturgii rzymskiej wszedł jerozolimski zwyczaj procesji upamiętniającej wjazd Pana Jezusa do Jerusalem. Obie tradycje szybko się połączyły, dając liturgii Niedzieli Palmowej podwójny charakter (wjazd i Męka).

Palma Wielkanocna - jest to najczęściej wiązanka z gałązek wierzbowych z baziami, przybranych puszystymi kitami trzciny wodnej, kwiatami i wstążeczkami. Do palmy wkłada się także rośliny "wiecznie żywe", np. cisnę, gałązki borówek, bukszpanu, tuję, barwinek. Palmę wielkanocną święci się w kościele, a następnie obnosi w uroczystej procesji. W centralnej i wschodniej Polsce po powrocie z kościoła dla zdrowia, siły, dostatku i urody uderzano się lub chociaż tylko dotykano palmą. Robiły to przede wszystkim dzieci i młodzież, wołając: "Palma bije, nie ja biję, za tydzień wielki dzień, za sześć dni Wielkanoc!". Palmy używano w wielu zabiegach hodowlanych, pasterskich i rolniczych: przeniesionymi z kościoła palmami kropiono dom i obejście, bydło w oborze, gładzono boki krów; nad ich głowami kreślono palmami znak krzyża; przynajmniej jedną bazię dawano do połknięcia krowom i owcom itp. Na Pomorzu i Kaszubach rybacy przywiązywali kawałki palmy do swych sieci w intencji bezpiecznych i obfitych połowów. Kawałki palmy na wiosnę podkładano pod lemiesz pługa, w pierwszą zaorywaną skibę ziemi i dodawano do siewnego ziarna na dobry urodzaj. Na Ziemi Sądeckiej, a także w okolicach Bochni i Wieliczki, z rozebranych na części palm robi się kropidełka do święcenia pól w Poniedziałek Wielkanocny oraz krzyżyki, które wbija się w skiby na urodzaj. Na Podhalu kładzie się kawałki palm w zagony lnu i ziemniaków w celu ochrony przed klęskami żywiołowymi. Palmę przechowuje się z szacunkiem, wkłada za święty obraz, aby strzegła dom od wszelkiego złego i użyczała mu błogosławieństwa Bożego. Cząstki palm wkładano pod strzechę, a krzyżyk zrobiony z nich przybijano na drzwiach wejściowych, na wrotach stodół i obór.

Niedziela Palmowa, czyli Męki Pańskiej, wprowadza nas coraz bardziej w nastrój Świąt Paschalnych. Kościół zachęca, aby nie ograniczać się tylko do radosnego poświecenia palm ale wskazuje drogę jeszcze dalszą – ku Wieczernikowi, gdzie „chleb z nieba zstąpił". Potem wprowadza w ciemny ogród Getsemani, pozwala odczuć dramat Jezusa uwięzionego i opuszczonego, daje zasmakować Jego cierpienie w pretorium Piłata i odrzucenie przez człowieka. Wreszcie zachęca, aby pójść dalej, aż na sam szczyt Golgoty i wytrwać do końca. Chrześcijanin nie może obojętnie przejść wobec wiszącego na krzyżu Chrystusa, musi zostać do końca, aż się wszystko wypełni… Musi potem pomóc zdjąć Go z krzyża i mieć odwagę spojrzeć w oczy Matce trzymającej na rękach ciało Syna, by na końcu wreszcie zatoczyć ciężki kamień na Grób. A potem już tylko pozostaje mu czekać na tę Wielką Noc… To właśnie daje nam Wielki Tydzień, rozpoczynający się Niedzielą Palmową. Wejdźmy zatem uczciwie w Misterium naszego Pana Jezusa Chrystusa uczestnicząc w rekolekcjach i przystępując do spowiedzi wielkanocnej.

Zapraszamy do czynnego udziału w rekolekcjach parafialnych!

Poniedziałek 30 III – 7 PM. – Msza św. z kazaniem rekolekcyjnym
