WELCOME

St. Stanislaus is reaching out in service to our diverse neighborhood peoples. Please be generous in your support of the many good works of our Parish. St. Stanislaus depends upon the regular support of its membership and the generosity of those who visit here. Please look upon your financial gift or sacrifice as a way of giving praise to God along with the many from earlier generations who have worshiped and prayed here for 130 years.

Anthony Mannarino and Michelle DiMarco (III)
James Warren and Jessica Wargo (III)
Gary Brown and Kristin Basel (I)

Generosity

In comparison with most of the people of the world, we in the United States have it made. Sure, we are not all millionaires, but we nor are we walking around with our stomachs sticking out from starvation. We consume and consume and consume and worry about whether we'll have enough to consume until well after our last breath. Some people believe God meant things to be this way, that some people should use up most of the resources of the earth while the majority wait for the leftovers. It is so easy for us to live in the cocoons we've fabricated throughout the world, so easy to rationalize our actions. One would think we were all pagans, but pagans have more respect for the earth than many people of the 'developed' world, and that means us. We want comfort. We want more. We get what we want or we pick up our toys and make noise and complain and, sometimes, leave.

Oh, I can hear it already from the conservatives in our midst saying that those 'poor' really should learn help themselves. And the liberals are all out there saying that those 'poor' need money. Well, maybe there's a kernel of truth in both attitudes. Throwing money at a problem is never a total solution nor have words of encouragement ever filled a belly. Both, however, can make a difference in an indifferent world if done through a prism of faith.

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta presents her solution thusly: "Open your hearts to the love God instills in them. God loves you tenderly. What he gives you is not to be kept under lock and key, but to be shared. The more you save, the less you will be able to give. The less you have, the more you will know how to share. Let us ask God, when it comes time to ask him for something, to help us to be generous."

There you have it: 'words' in the form of honest prayer and 'money' in the form of sharing our wealth as opposed to our surplus. When you respond this weekend to the Mission Appeal, please pray to God to give you the courage to respond as his loving child by helping the less fortunate children he loves just as much. Don't be afraid!

David Krakowski

DON'T COME TO CHURCH THIS SUMMER!

Look, let's be honest about it — during summer vacation, the last thing anyone wants to do is go to church on Sunday. The church is hot and that puts people into a surly mood. We never know what to wear. Are cut-offs and T-shirts OK in church? Even the priest wears sandals... The choir is smaller, the servers are irregular, even the lecturers sound a little put out from the heat and humidity. The homilies are way too long — don't those priests know we have things to do and places to go?

The kids have all kinds of sports to play, and after all, this is the number one priority. The beach beckons, and maybe Sunday morning is better for fishing than any other day. Saturday night can be a lot of fun during the summer, and who wants to wake up early Sunday after dragging into the house in the wee hours? When school is out, it just seems natural that everything else is on hold, too.

So what if we just cancel church for the summer?

Stay home. Don't bother. Go somewhere else. Give us all a break. We can save some money by shutting the place down for a few months — and Lord knows, the summer collection sure dips enough to make a shut-down sound attractive! We'll just show up for the weddings already scheduled (and maybe not book any for next summer, just in case) and funerals, but only if the family insists. The hospitals have their own chaplains, so don't call us. Parish organizations can meet in private homes. Skip the bulletin, because there won't be anything to report anyway.

SOUND CRAZY?

Of course it does. Nobody would seriously ever consider such an inane idea as to shut down a parish church for the summer. But why is it crazy to think of the church being closed to the people for the summer, but it's accepted as normal for the people to be closed to the church during the summer?

We are still here. God is still here — God, who is worthy of our praise Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall. The priests and staff at your parish do not stop serving the people. We are full-service all year long. Certainly people's schedules get busier during the summer. Frankly, we also enjoy an occasional day at the beach or night at the movies. But as grateful as we are for those who continue to come to Mass so faithfully, it is a bit disheartening when we look out at the congregation and see the extra empty spaces. And, too, the parish checkbook suffers, even though our bills stay constant.

This is not why our ancestors fought for independence so long ago, and why so many have died to defend our freedoms since then. Freedom is not only freedom from, it is also freedom for — for the praise and worship of our God who loves us and is faithful to us, even in spite of our unfaithfulness.

If you know someone who needs a gentle reminder about their summer obligation, take some extra bulletins and pass them on. And have a great Fourth of July!

Fr. Michael

KOSCIÓŁ MOSTEM?

„Wy bedziecie Mi królestwem kapłanów, ludem świętym”. Słowa te, zawarte w I czytaniu, skierował Bóg do wybranego narodu. Wśród różnych narodów świata ten jeden został przez Boga wezwany do pełnienia funkcji kapłanskiej, to znaczy stał się mostem, po którym od Boga przechodzi łaska dla ludzkości i przez który dochodzi do Boga modlitwy od ludzi. Jednak Izraelici nie do końca odpowiedzieli na to wezwanie.

Gdy Jezus zstąpił na ziemię, zorganizował „nowy naród”, wzywając uczniów do przekroczenia wszelkich barier nacjonalistycznych i zbudowania z wszystkich narodów mostu, łączącego niebo z ziemią. Tym nowym królestwem kapłanów, ludem świętym jest Kościół, wspólnota między i ponadnarodowa. W niej jest miejsce dla każdego ochrzczonego, który jest narzędziem w ręku Boga dla oświecenia tej części ziemi, na której żyje.

Ten Bóg most sięga ziemi we wspólnocie Eucharystycznej. W czasie Liturgii zgromadzeni przy ołtarzu wierni w szczególności sposób są zanurzeni w łasce Ducha Bożego. Na nich spływa to, co Boskie i wypełnia ich serca, umysły, dusze i ciała. Równocześnie oni składają owoc ziemi i pracy rąk swoich oraz rąk braci, którzy nie zawsze mają dostęp do ołtarza lub nie zawsze chcą przy nim być, aby się oświecać.

We współczesnym świecie próbuje się rozmywać różnice między chrześcijaństwem a innymi religiami. Coraz usilniej wmawia się ludziom, że chrześcijaństwo jest piękne, ale Kościół nie jest potrzebny. Jest to niebezpieczne działanie. Chrześcijaństwo - to życie na moście, to ruch ludzi i „towarów” z jednego brzegu na drugi, z nieba na ziemię i odwrotnie. Kościół to most. Jeśli most zostanie zniszczony, to i życie na nim również ulegnie unicestwieniu. Nie da się oddzielić Kościoła od chrześcijaństwa. Takie próby są równoznaczne z niszczeniem jednego i drugiego.

Odpowiedzia na to niebezpieczeństwo winno być ponowne odkrywanie wartości mostu, jego odnowa w duchu Ewangelii, wymiana pewnych ludzkich elementów, które z racji upływu czasu winny być wymienione, i ukazanie światu jego zasadniczego znaczenia.

Nie powinno nikogo dziwić, że zło tak usilnie stara się ten most zniszczyć. Przezeń bowiem bez przerwy dochodzi do ziemi, gdzie toczy się zmaganie dobra ze złem, pomoc dla opowiadających się po stronie Boga. Każdy inteligentny dowódca poleciłby wysadzić w powietrze most, którym dociera pomoc dla jego przeciwników. Książę tego świata wie, o jak ważny punkt strategiczny chodzi. Dlatego też nieustannie zmienia taktykę i wyszukuje nowe sposoby niszczenia Kościoła, to znaczy mostu, jaki Chrystus przerzucił między niebem a ziemią, ustawiając dwanaście przesel, czyli powołując Dwunastu Apostołów. Jeszcze przed śmiercią głównego konstruktora Kościoła, czyli Jezusa, zło zniszczyło jedno z tych przesel.

Studiując historię Kościoła można dostrzec setki jego słabych stron, ale jedna godzina Bożego życia, jaka przez ten most przepływa z nieba na ziemię, jest miliardy razy cenniejsza niż wszystkie próby czysto doczesnego wykorzystania Kościoła podejmowane na przestrzeni wieków. ks. Jerzy
