St. Stan's Polish Festival Oct. 6, 7, 8

Now What?

The winds that helped move us along in our outdoor procession last weekend had barely subsided when the final strains of the Te Deum faded away and the trumpeter in the Western bell tower greeted the Blessed Sacrament with the traditional hejnał Mariacki. Another 'season' at the Shrine was coming to a close as we gathered in the Peace Garden to offer our final prayers.

Now it feels as though Summer has begun. It would be nice to give our minds and bodies a little rest before things pick up again. Alas, anyone who has been around here knows that the idea of taking too long of a break from activity at our parish is a real dream! It doesn't happen! Not here!

So what's going on here this Summer? Food preparations for the festival. Final dates being set for concerts and other cultural events for the upcoming year. Plans for the pilgrimage being ironed out into detail. Music chosen for the upcoming liturgical year and special celebrations. Vibrant Parish Life discussions continue as well. And, the usual funerals, weddings and ongoing liturgies which are a regular part of our parish.

So, if you're wondering what's coming up next, just poke around this bulletin - loaded with announcements which invite your participation on various levels (whether corporal, spiritual or otherwise). To keep our parish shining as the jewel which we have come to know it requires many hands, hearts, prayers and pockets. This was so evident last weekend when so many individuals stepped forward to offer their talents, time and other resources to make the Corpus Christi procession an event of which we can be proud. Thanks go out to all of you (you know who you are) and may God bless you always!

Now, let's continue to praise God w stylu jak u świętego Stanisława!

David Krakowski

NOT SO ORDINARY TIME

Although we have officially been in the liturgical season called “Ordinary Time” since Pentecost, it doesn’t seem to feel very “ordinary” until after Corpus Christi. Once again, hundreds of parishioners from the Polish and American parts of our community, as well as many visitors who come from miles away just to be part of it, joined each other in giving honor to the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The glorious liturgy, followed by the traditional procession through the neighborhood and ending at the Peace Garden, all pointed to the presence and action of Christ in our midst, who is still with us, acting on our behalf and empowering us to be signs of his kingdom.

There are many different kinds of activities here at the Shrine Church of Saint Stanislaus. Our outreach is educational, social, spiritual, neighborhood, pastoral, cultural, multi-cultural, and usually a mixture of these. But the most important thing we do — again, the MOST IMPORTANT thing we do — is giving praise and glory to God through Christ in the Eucharist. Everything else we do, every other activity and program, every meeting and event, every outreach and service, every plan made and every dollar raised and spent — all of it makes sense only if it is rooted in the Eucharist and gives expression in the Eucharist.

It seems as if not much is going on during the summer months. But Christ is still with us. Really, truly, in every way present to us.

The Second Vatican Council referred to the Eucharist as the “font and summit of the whole Christian life.” It’s not just a matter of “going to Mass.” Yes, attending Mass is an obligation for Catholics. But we go not just because we have to; that would be an immature attitude. Rather, we make the Eucharist an important part of our lives because without it we starve ourselves of the nourishment we need to make sense of the rest of our lives. Our annual celebration of Corpus Christi is extra festive, extra moving, extra, well, extra! And just like a good visit with your best friend, sometimes it takes a bit longer than usual.

Now we are in a different kind of mode. The church will get warmer and sometimes a bit muggy. The crowds will thin as vacations and other summer plans intrude. Most regular parish meetings are suspended as it gets harder for people to find a common time to get together. The Mass itself is celebrated in a simpler and — let’s be honest, somewhat quicker — style. But that doesn’t mean that the majesty of God is any less on our minds and in our hearts. It seems as if not much is going on during the summer months. But Christ is still with us. Really, truly, in every way present to us. That’s all! And that’s plenty indeed.

To all those who expended extra effort last weekend, please accept my thanks and the gratitude of hundreds of fellow parishioners and guests. Also, please know that God was truly glorified by your sincere and heartfelt efforts. And for those who missed it, mark your calendars now for June 10, 2007!

Fr. Michael

„I nastala gleboka cisza...”

W dzisiejsza niedziele slyszymy Ewanagelie o uczeniu burzy na jeziorze. Jezus zmeczony zasypia w lodzi. Nagle wybucha burza, jak to sie zdarza na Jeziorze Tyberiadzkim. Przarazeni uczniowie budza Jezusa: „Nuczycielu, nic Cie to nie obchodzi, ze giniemy?” Jezus wstaje i na jego slowo: „Milcz, uczisz sie” jeziore uspokaja sie i nastaje gleboka cisza.

Ten fragment Ewangelii, pewnie jak zaden inny w takiej zwiezlosci, ukazuje bardzo wyraznie i ludzkie i boskie cechy Jezusa. Jako czlowiek meczyl sie. Przez wiele godzin przyjmowal ludzi, okazyl im swoje zainteresowanie, pomagal, nauczal. Trudno sie dziwic, ze pod wieczor zasnal w lodzi kolysanej falami. Zasnal tak mocno, ze nawet burza nie potrafila go obudzic.

Przyjscie burzy przerazilo Apostolow, choc jako rybacy znajacy dobrze „zwyczaj” Morza Tyberiadzkiego powinni byc bardziej opanowani. A jednak... I choc wczesniej nie raz byli swiadkami cudow—licznych uzdrowien, egzorcyzmow—to jednak w obliczu burzy i fal zapomnieli o tych przejawach mocy Bozej w Jezusie i wpadaja w panike. W ich strachu wolaja do swojego Mistra: „Nuczycielu, czy nic Cie nie obchodzi, ze giniemy?” Wlasciwie trudno sie im dziwic, ze stracili glowe. A jednak Pan spodziewal sie od nich czegos wiecej, przede wszystkim wiary i zaufania. Tak, to o zaufanie chodzi tutaj. Zaufanie do Boga w powodzeniu i w czasie nieszczesc. Pierwsze jest latwiejsze, drugie bardziej zaslugujace.

Pierwsze czytanie stawia nam przed oczy postac Hioba. Jest to fragment tej ksiegi ukazujacej swoisty zaklad miedzy Bogiem a szatanem. Pan Bóg szczyti sie swoim wiernym dzieckiem—Hiobem. Na to odpowiada szatan, ze to tylko dlatego, ze dobrze mu sie wiezie, jest bogaty i szczesliwy. Ale gdy Pan Bóg przestanie go chronic, Hiob zmieni swoje usposobienie i bedzie bluznil swemu Bogu w oczu. W ten sposob powstaje zaklad—Pan Bóg jest pewny swego slugi Hioba i pozwala szatanowi wyprobowac jego wiernosc. Bóg pozwala mu dzialac na szkode Hioba. Skutkiem tego traci on swoje mienie, dzieci, zdrowie. Zostaje mu tylko zona, która naklania go do bluznierstwa: „Bluznij Bogu i umieraj”. A jednak nawet w tak skrajnej sytuacji „Hiob nie przypisal winy swemu Bogu”. Jego postawe wspaniale wyrazaja slowa: „Chocby mnie zabil Wszechocny—ufam...”

Postawa ufnosci jest czymś, przez co najbardziej oddajemy czesc Panu Bogu, naszemu wszechmocnemu Ojcu w niebie. Ma racje p. Anna Lutostanska, gdy pisze:

„Nawet gdy burza sie nasze plany, dotykaja nas choroby czy nieszczescia, Bóg nas nie opuszcza. Te trudne doswiadczenia maja wzmocnic nasza wiare i przyblizyc nas do Niego. Jezeli jednak odchodzimy, mowiac, ze Pan Bóg o nas zapomnial, jestesmy jak trzcina na wietrze. Hiob jest dla nas wspanialym wzorem zaufania Bogu i trwania przy Nim tak w dniach powodzenia, jak i nieszczesc. Bóg jest Panem nieba i ziemi. Jesli w Nim pokladamy ufnosc, nic, co nie jest zgodne z Jego wola, nie moze nas spotkac, a On wie najlepiej, co jest dla nas dobre.”

Welcome, Divine Word Missionaries!

When I was a boy just in the fifth grade, we heard a presentation and saw a side show (remember those?) about the life of a missionary. It was given to us by a priest from the Society of the Divine Word. I'm sure he never imagined that speaking to a group of fifth graders would have ended up with a vocation down the line! But that visit was the first time I ever thought seriously that I might want to become a priest and a missionary. In fact, from then until well into high school, I corresponded regularly with the Divine Word Missionaries. I owe a great debt of gratitude to this community for my own vocation.

Next weekend will be the annual missionary appeal, and we are blessed to be visited by a member of the Divine Word Missionaries. They are a fine group indeed, with men working all throughout the world — 617 in North America, 1,330 in Latin America, 1,787 in Europe, 526 in Africa, 23 in Australia, and 3,287 in Asia! Often their work takes them to lands so remote that services we consider necessities do not exist. There is no electricity or drinkable water. Food is cultivated from the earth. Medicine and doctors are in short supply, if available at all. Education as we know it does not exist.

The work of Divine Word Missionaries is, first and most importantly, to preach the Gospel and share the Word of God. Preaching the Gospel in mission communities is done in many ways. Sharing Christ through the Word brings comfort to those in need, peace to those in pain and builds vibrant Catholic communities of faith. Christ is also shared through teaching the hungry to farm, building hospitals for the sick and educating the poor.

Divine Word Missionaries continues to be one of the few communities to show steady growth in its membership. Today more than 1,000 seminarians await their final stages of formation before ordination.

Our parish community has always shown great generosity to the visiting missionaries. Please be prepared to give generously in the second collection during all the Masses on July 1 and 2, and continue our tradition of sharing in the spreading of the Gospel throughout the world.

BOG ZAPŁAĆ OD O. PLACYDA

„Tak myślę sobie, że tu w Ameryce czas biegnie, a właściwie pedzi trzy razy szybciej niż w Europie. Kiedy tu przyjeżdżałem 4. kwietnia, wydawało mi się, że trzy miesiące to czas bardzo długi. Teraz nie wiem, kiedy to minie. W najbliższą środę wracam do Europy. Dziękuję moim Braciom w św. Franciszku za gościnność i za umożliwienie mi tu pobytu w celu nauki angielskiego. Dziękuję wszystkim, od których doznałem zyczliwości. To wszystko sprawia, że będę bardzo dobrze wspominał mój pobyt w Cleveland. Opowiedziałem o tym również mojemu współbratu o. Pawłowi, który bardzo się z tego ucieszył i przyleci tu w połowie lipca. Za wszelkie doznane dobro z serce dziękuję i składam staropolskie „Bóg zapłać”; i być może do zobaczenia!”

Thank You from Fr. Placyd:

It is hard for me to believe that three months have passed since I came to visit. I want to thank my fellow Franciscan Brothers for their wonderful hospitality, and especially the parishioners who have treated me so graciously. Until I see you again may God bless you all!

ST. STAN'S HISTORICAL FACT

Ashbel Morgan was a farmer, who owned the land on which our church currently stands. He lived in a spacious mansion on Aetna Road. He also sold land. He offered a free lot with each lot the Parish would buy. Morgan sold 13 lots to the Parish for a total of $3,000. The congregation's first church was a two-story building that housed a church and a school. Morgana Park was eventually named after the man, who owned that land, Ashbel Morgan

SCHOOL TUITION

A reminder to parents who still owe tuition to St. Stanislaus School for the past school year. Please make your account with us paid up as soon as possible. Your children will not be permitted to register for next year, and if you transfer schools, the records will not be released until your obligation has been met.

Polish Festival News:

Preparations have begun for the St. Stanislaus Polish Festival, which is October 6th, 7th and 8th. Our parishioners and friends of St. Stanislaus are always very generous with donations to help defray the cost of the festival. We are asking everyone as they start out on bargain shopping to start thinking prizes for our duck pond booth, games of chance booths and items to fill baskets for our basket booth.

All of these booths are great money-makers for the festival. People enjoy taking a chance on our games because they know they are getting a great selection to choose from. So start thinking, creating purchasing those items to fill our booths and your baskets. We will need all donated prizes and filled baskets to the rectory. If you have any further questions regarding the festival please feel free to call either of the co-chairpersons of the festival, Marilyn Mosinski at 216-441-1533 or Joe Calamante at 216-271-0832.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Do you have old clothes lying around that are only taking up space in your closet? Too many food items clogging your closets? Spare time on a Saturday or during the week to help the poor and needy of our parish and the Slavic Village neighborhood? If you have any of the above to spare, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society can certainly use your time, talents or treasures. Please call our neighborhood St. Vincent DePaul Society based at Holy Name Church, Harvard & Broadway Ave. 216-441-6373. If you would like to be a St. Stanislaus volunteer you may call Fr. Cam or the rectory at 341-9091.
