Two Lungs

As the Church invites us into a period of prayer for Christian unity, we cannot help but reflect on the issues which have caused the mystical body of Christ to have arrived at the current divisions. As with any family, quarrels and differences of opinions may lead to uncomfortable if not outright hostile feelings, at times rupturing the harmony so essential to a unit based on the love of the Creator. Within the Church of Jesus Christ we experienced discord over the centuries, but none so outstanding as that between the West and the East in the Middle Ages, the result of human nature. As the Council Fathers pointed out in their 'Decree on Ecumenism' (Unitatis Redintegratio) "one should recognize that between these Churches and Communities on the one hand and the Catholic Church on the other, there are very weighty differences not only of a historical, sociological, psychological and cultural nature, but especially in the interpretation of revealed truth.."

During the ministry of Pope John Paul II we saw an extraordinarily earnest attempt to improve the relations between the Eastern and Western Churches. In his Apostolic Letter, Oriente Lumen, John Paul II strove to point out that for the health of the entire Church of Christ it was essential that the dignity, faith and traditions of the Eastern Churches be restored, their treasures made known to the West. He stated the members of the Catholic Church of the Latin tradition must be fully acquainted with this treasure, and thus feel, with the pope, a passionate longing that the full manifestation of diversity of the Church's catholicity be restored."

... "These divisions must give way to rapprochement and harmony; the wounds on the path to Christian unity must be healed."

John Paul II was born into a culture which reflected (especially in his earliest years) a diversity of cultures. His acquaintance with the Eastern and Western Catholic Churches as well as the Orthodox Church undoubtedly fostered this yearning for unity in a profound way. The most wonderful analogy regarding this need for unity was posited by him in his encyclical Redemptoris Mater (The Mother of the Redeemer) When he wrote, "Such a wealth of praise, built up by the different forms of the Church's great tradition, could help us to hasten the day when the Church can begin once more to breathe fully with her 'two lungs', the East and the West."

It was this passion of the late Holy Father precisely that inspired us to honor him in our Shrine Church by means of an art form representative of this dream for unification: the icon. As with the icon of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Eastern in spirit, Western in sentiment, this religious vehicle of praise, thanksgiving and veneration will soon grace our Shrine as a constant reminder of the unity so often prayed for by John Paul II, and associated with St. Stanislaus centuries after his martyrdom. The installation of the icon in our Shrine will be truly ecumenical in nature with bishops from the East and the West. We pray that our small contribution in this direction of understanding and unity will be another step forward in reconciliation and forgiveness, all for the glory of God.

WORTHY OF PILGRIMAGE

May 8, 2004 was a big day in the history of our parish with the declaration by Bishop Pilla that we are now officially a "Shrine Church." Over the past two and a half years, we have seen an increase in visitors. Of course, many come simply to bask in the beauty of the church building. But many more are making a special journey to bring their prayers and petitions to the Lord with acts of devotion to His Saints.

In describing the special nature of a shrine, Canon (Church) Law uses a marvelous phrase: "Worthy of pilgrimage." It means that certain places are set aside for the special way that people discover holiness there. A shrine is important not only to the people who pray there regularly, but also for people from far away. A shrine is worth the effort to make the journey, for one is promised the special grace accorded to all pilgrims in faith.

A little over a year ago, we were given another special relic, the mitre of Pope John Paul II. This has become something truly wonderful for the faithful — not just something to look at and admire, but a way to connect with the Son of Poland who became the Pastor of the World. When David Krakowski and I were in Poland, we presented to Cardinal Dziwisz the idea of commissioning an icon that would honor the two famous Bishops of Krakow, Stanislaw Szczepanów and Karol Wojtyła. He endorsed the idea and in a follow-up letter continued to encourage this effort to remember his own patron and his good friend. Soon this new icon will join the other three icons of the Triptych of Our Lady we have in the shrine transept.

Several parishioners have made generous donations toward this effort, and we have invited an iconographer from Krakow to prepare it for our shrine. Mado Kucharska will be spending one week with us, from January 23-30, to meet our people and to feel the space where the icon will be placed. We will also have a chance after next weekend's Masses for parishioners to meet with her, to see samples of her work, and to share our own thoughts about the meaning of John Paul II for our community. Her work has been presented at the original Basilica of Saint Stanislaus in Krakow, and she has done work for Cardinal Dziwisz of Krakow as well as for Pope Benedict XVI.

There is a special sense to an icon that makes it more than just a pretty picture. An icon is meant to invite the worshipper into another realm, to be a kind of window into the sacred. Icons are better known in the Eastern Churches, both Orthodox and Byzantine, but they also have a revered place in the Roman Church as well. Pope John Paul II worked hard to bridge the gap between the Eastern and Western Churches, so it makes sense to have an icon as the image of him that we will reverence in our shrine. Also, our Franciscan Province is bi-ritual, meaning that we encompass both Roman and Byzantine Catholic Friars (one of only a very few such religious entities in the world). The famous "San Damiano Crucifix," which spoke of Saint Francis of Assisi when he was young and discerning God's call, was also a Byzantine style. A small copy of one is also in our shrine transept.

May God continue use these sacred objects to touch the hearts of all pilgrims who seek Him!

Fr. Michael

Godny pielgrzymki...

Spotkanie to pozostawilo na mnie niezapomniane wrazenie. W ostatnia niedziele starego po Mszy roku o godz. 11:30 o. Michal poprosil mnie zebym poszedl z nim do kosciola, aby zegnac ludzi. Kiedy zrobilo sie juz luzno, podszedl do mnie nie znajomy pan w starszym wieku. Na poczatku nasza rozmowa byla bardzo ogólna, ale po chwili poprosil mnie, zebym wysluchal jego historii.

Jego mama jeszcze jako panna bardzo chciala wstapic do zakonu. Jej ojciec przeciwstawil sie temu zdecydowanie: „Jesli to uczynisz, przestaniesz byc moja córka”. Jej mama postanowila nie sprzeciwiac sie ojcu i wyszla za maz zgodnie z wola jej ojca. Pan Bóg obdarowal jej malzenstwo pieciorgiem dzieci. Mój rozmówca byl jednym z nich. Wszyscy oni juz usamodzielnili sie, kiedy zmarl ich ojciec. Po pogrzebie meza mama postanowila wyjechac na dwutygodniowe rekolekcje do klasztoru. Po dwóch tygodniach zadzwonila, ze zostaje w klasztorze na zawsze. Siostry zgodzily sie ja przyjac. W dzien jej profesji wieczystej byly obecne wszystkie jej dzieci. Zza krat klauzury powiedziala do swoich dzieci: „W dzien mojego slubu plakalam. Ale nie myslcie, ze nie kochalam waszego ojca. Plakalam ze szczescia, ze moge poslubic czlowieka, którego kochalam. Ale tez plakalam ze smutku, poniewaz nie moglam pójsc za glosem swojego powolania. Ale dzisiaj moge powiedziec tak Bozemu powolaniu”. Potem zwrócila sie tylko do syna, z którym rozmawiałem: „A ty, (tu bylo wymienione jego imie), przestan robie sobie zarty z Polaków. Twoi dziadkowie mieszkali na terenach niemieckich i mówili po niemiecku, ale oni byli Polakami, a wiec ty tez”. Dopiero jako dorosly czlowiek dowiedzial sie o swoich polskich korzeniach.

W kosciele sw. Stanislawia widzial jakas czesc swojej tozsamosci i dziedzictwa. Jest on architektem i wzrokiem znawcy patrzyl na budynek koscielny i wystrój wewnetrzny. Porównal do innych kosciolów, niektóre wymienil i powiedzial, ze ten jest jednym z piekniejszych, jakie spotkal. Mozna bylo wyczuc jego dume, kiedy o tym mówil.

Piekna architektura naszego kosciola to jeden aspekt. Jest jeszcze cos wazniejszego. Kosciól sw. Stanislawia jest od prawie trzech lat sanktuarium (Takie jest polskie znaczenie slowa „shrine”). Kodeks Kanoniczny mówi o sanktuarium, uzywa pieknego okreslenia „godny pielgrzymki”. Oznacza to, ze obecność Boza jest w pewnych miejscach szczególnie intensywne. Modlitwa tam zanoszona trafia w przedziwny sposób „szybciej” przed Boga tron. Potwierdza to Bóg przez cuda w takich miejscach. Mamy 3 swiadczenia pochodzace z ostatnich kilku tygodni, czy miesiecy, swiadczone o takich cudownych uzdrowieniach majace w naszym kosciele za wstawieniem sw. Stanislawia i Slugi Bozego Jana Pawla II.

Mamy w naszym kosciele relikwie sw. Stanislawia przywieziona przez kardynala Karola Wojtyle. Mamy tez jego mitre, która otaczana jest wielkim szacunkiem wiernych. Chcemy ubogacic nasz kosciól o ikone przedstawiajaca te dwie postaci razem. Artystka, która podjela sie tego wykonania takiej ikony jest p. Mado Kucharska z Krakowa. Wiecej na ten temat i o sztuce ikonografii bedziemy dowiedziec sie osobiscie od niej samej w prezentacji w Centrum Kultury Polsko-Amerykanskiej w nastepna niedziele (28. stycznia).

TRANSFIGURATION SCHOLARSHIP — DEADLINE MARCH 1. Families of European-ethnic heritage, i.e. Bohemian, Hungarian, Polish, Slovak, etc. (but not British, Dutch, German, Irish, etc) may be eligible for a Transfiguration Scholarship for their children attending a Catholic elementary, high school, or college in the 2007-2008 school year. Families must be parishioners of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish, or St. Stanislaus Parish (all in Cleveland); and financial need of the family must be assessed through the Private School Aid Service (PSAS) application available from the Catholic school principal or pastor. Scholarship applications are available in the rectory office (along with the PSAS applications) if you are interested in applying.

TELL YOUR FRIENDS: ALUMNI REUNION NEXT SATURDAY!

St. Stanislaus Parish is inviting all alumni and friends of St. Stanislaus Elementary and High Schools to a celebration to kick off Catholic Schools Week on Saturday, January 27, 2007. There will be Mass at 5 PM in the church. A soup, salad, and dessert dinner will be served in the Social Center from 6-9 PM. The Elementary School will be open for an Open House also from 6-9 PM. Reservations are not required. A free will offering for the dinner will be accepted. We are also celebrating 100 years of Franciscan presence in our community, 100 years since the cornerstone of the Elementary School was laid, and 100 years of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth teaching in our school. For more information call 216-341-9091. Meet old friends from your school days and reminisce about your days at St. Stans. Our past two alumni events have been very successful and enjoyable. Return Home for a night!

Calling all bakers! Calling all bakers!

We need bakery for our 2nd annual Alumni event celebrating Catholic Schools' week on Saturday, January 27, 2007. Please help us by bringing out those tried and true recipes and firing up your ovens. Your generous donation of time and talent would be greatly appreciated. Please bring bakery to the Social Center anytime after 4 p.m. on Saturday the 27th

ST. STANS HISTORICAL FACT by Rob Jagelewski. Our Parish was founded in 1873. This year of 2007 we will celebrate a Parish birthday of 134 years. Before we had any type of church our community worshiped at St. Mary's in the Flats, which does not exist anymore and then at the old St. Joseph's Church on Woodland Avenue which was right next to the present Metro Campus of Cuyahoga Community College. The first priest to minister to our community was appointed by Bishop Richard Gilmour. He was Father Victor Zareczny, the Pastor of St. Adalbert in Berea. This is one of the reasons that we have a stained glass window dedicated to St. Adalbert in our church

ARE YOU NOW? OR HAVE YOU EVER BEEN?

One of the students pictured in the above photo? This is the class of 1971, but it could be any class! If you are—you MUST report to the Alumni Reunion next Saturday. If you don't—well, we don't know what will happen (Sister has her ruler), but we know you will miss out on a good time. Children, turn your parents in! It will be for their own good!

NEW DAD'S CLUB PRESIDENT FOR 2007

Inadvertently we left out the name of the new president of the St. Stanislaus Dads Club last week. We wish to congratulate John Sklodowski as the new President of the Club. John has been a long time member, and he has chaired numerous fund raising activities for the Club and St. Stanislaus. We ask that God bless him and all the newly elected officers for the work they do for St. Stanislaus and the Dads Club
