Pope Francis' tips for Lent:

1. Get rid of the lazy addiction to evil "[Lent] is a 'powerful' season, a turning point that can foster change and conversion in each of us. We all need to improve, to change for the better. Lent helps us and thus we leave behind old habits and the lazy addiction to the evil that deceives and ensnares us." – General Audience, March 5, 2014

2. Do something that hurts "Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt." – Lenten Message, 2014

3. Don't remain indifferent "Indifference to our neighbor and to God also represents a real temptation for us Christians. Each year during Lent we need to hear once more the voice of the prophets who cry out and trouble our conscience. God is not indifferent to our world; he so loves it that he gave his Son for our salvation." –Lenten Message, 2015

4. Pray: Make our hearts like yours! "During this Lent, then, brothers and sisters, let us all ask the Lord: 'Fac cor nostrum secundum cor tuum': Make our hearts like yours (Litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus). In this way we will receive a heart which is firm and merciful, attentive and generous, a heart which is not closed, indifferent or prey to the globalization of indifference." – Lenten Message, 2015

5. Take part in the sacraments "Lent is a favorable time for letting Christ serve us so that we in turn may become more like him. This happens whenever we hear the word of God and receive the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. There we become what we receive: the Body of Christ." – Lenten Message, 2015

6. Prayer "In the face of so many wounds that hurt us and could harden our hearts, we are called to dive into the sea of prayer, which is the sea of God's boundless love, to taste his tenderness. Lent is a time of prayer, of more intense prayer, more prolonged, more assiduous, more able to take on the needs of the brethren; intercessory prayer, to intercede before God for the many situations of poverty and suffering." – Homily, March 5, 2014

7. Fasting "We must be careful not to practice a formal fast, or one which in truth 'satisfies' us because it makes us feel good about ourselves. Fasting makes sense if it questions our security, and if it also leads to some benefit for others, if it helps us to cultivate the style of the Good Samaritan, who bends down to his brother in need and takes care of him." – Homily, March 5, 2014

8. Almsgiving "Today gratuitousness is often not part of daily life where everything is bought and sold. Everything is calculated and measured. Almsgiving helps us to experience giving freely, which leads to freedom from the obsession of possessing, from the fear of losing what we have, from the sadness of one who does not wish to share his wealth with others." – Homily, March 5, 2014

9. Help the Poor "In the poor and outcast we see Christ's face; by loving and helping the poor, we love and serve Christ. Our efforts are also directed to ending violations of human dignity, discrimination and abuse in the world, for these are so often the cause of destitution. When power, luxury and money become idols, they take priority over the need for a fair distribution of wealth. Our consciences thus need to be converted to justice, equality, simplicity and sharing." – Lenten Message, 2014

10. Evangelize "The Lord asks us to be joyous heralds of this message of mercy and hope! It is thrilling to experience the joy of spreading this good news, sharing the treasure entrusted to us, consoling broken hearts and offering hope to our brothers and sisters experiencing darkness." – Lenten Message, 2014

Catholic Charities 2015

The 2015 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal invites us to open our hearts to live joyfully and generously. Dignity, hope, concern, justice and generosity are the values of Catholic Charities. Through the grace of God and the generosity of donors, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Cleveland, is a beacon of hope, helping people in need.

Many parishioners received letters in January inviting their support of the Annual Appeal. You can help others change the course of their lives. There is joy in serving and joy in giving. Please consider giving generously to this Appeal and prayerfully consider an increase over last year's pledge.

We invite you to view stories of inspiration and more information at:

WARM APPAREL FOR HOMELESS

You will recall last week we mentioned that we are collecting gloves, socks, scarves, sweaters — all in good condition—to give to homeless people via the coordinative efforts of the Community West Foundation. The boxes are located near the manger scene in West transept. Please bring items to fill these boxes up throughout the month of February. The need is great and it is one small way to show you choose the Gospel of Life as your guiding light.

Please remember the souls of parishioners
Margaret Sheba & Walter Szeremet
who recently passed into eternal life.

DO YOU THINK THIS BULLETIN IS WORTH THE $?

Okay, time for reality check. Do you enjoy reading the bulletin in its present format? If so, do you think you might know of ANY businesses which might advertise on the last two pages of this publication? The reason I ask is simple: If we don't find a few more advertisers, we are going to have to either 1)pay a couple thousand each year to continue publishing as is, or 2) alter the format to something we can afford (which will be quite a bit of a reduced bulletin from what we have become accustomed to.)

If you like the bulletin format as is, then help us with some advertisers! We print 700 of these each week, send out over 100 of these to homebound parishioners and friends and place the finished product on our web site for the entire world to see (an impressive accomplishment which makes us look like we really have our act together to the world wide viewers!)

The ball's in your court...help..or get ready for probable change. The times they are a changin'…..

Faithful Legacy

Ensuring the Future of Our Catholic Faith

www.myplanwithcatholiccommunity.org/ststanislaus/

Your Legacy is a Reflection of You

To leave a legacy is to reveal our hearts, for our legacy is a final testament of who we are, what we value, and whom we love.

Regardless of your age, circumstances, or economic status, we encourage you to begin thinking about the legacy you wish to leave behind and the message you hope to share with your loved ones, your community, and your Church.

Your first and foremost concern should be for your own needs and the needs of your loved ones. Once you have provided for your family, we hope you will remember the many needs of St. Stanislaus Parish.

Our Faithful Legacy website is meant to serve as a helpful resource for you as you think about your legacy. If you need personalized assistance, or just have a question or comment, we are here to assist you at every step. We welcome the opportunity to help you create a legacy that is meaningful and transformative – a legacy that celebrates your faith, affirms your values, and gives witness a love that endures. Contact Dan Kane in the Rectory Office (216) 341-9091 with any Faithful Legacy inquiries.

Faithful Legacy Dinner Meeting

To those who previously expressed a desire to attend the Faithful Legacy Dinner Meeting, you should already have been notified of date and time for this event. If you have not been notified, please contact Dan Kane at the rectory office during normal business hours for exact information. We are looking forward to meeting with you and hope to provide an informative evening which addresses any questions you have. Thank you for your interest.

COOKBOOK FUNDRAISER

We are now collecting your favorite recipes for our Organ Fundraiser Cookbook. Recipes need to be either typed or printed with LEGIBLE handwriting. Please include all necessary information intended to make the recipe work, whether for the novice or the master chef!

Recipes should be placed in the gold box found atop the piano. Please indicate the title of the recipe and, if so desired, to whom it is attributed. We will include as much information in the published version as space permits.

Thank you for participating in this fundraiser! We have a little less than two years to complete raising the funds necessary to restore our pipe organ.

Pączki in Poland

In Poland, pączki are eaten on Fat Thursday or Tłusty Czwartek . The last six days of carnival season (karnawal) -- from Tłusty Cwartek to Shrove Tuesday -- are known as zapusty . Shrove Tuesday is known as Śledziówka or Herring Day when herring are eaten instead of pączki. Shrove Tuesday is also known as Ostatki , which literally means "lasts," and refers to the last day to party hearty before Lent begins. The start of Carnival season is usually on Twelfth Night or Epiphany, Jan. 6. The traditional Polish way to celebrate Carnival is with a kulig , a horse-drawn sleigh ride through the snow and a hearty outdoor meal like bigos cooked over an open fire. Things are changing, however, and barhopping is taking the place of kuligs.

According to Polish Blog by Transparent Language, Fat Thursday used to mark the beginning of Fat Week –- the period of great gluttony during which our ancestors would eat loads of lard (smalec) and bacon (bekon) washed down with vodka. Nowadays, Fat Thursday is associated especially with doughnuts or pączki.

Until the 16th century, the blog says, pączki were made with bread dough, filled with pork fat and fried in lard. Later, they evolved into a sweet pastry. Self-respecting bakeries in Poland never make their pączki in advance, nor do they use preservatives. The dough is made in the wee hours of the morning and are sold hot from the frying grease as soon as the doors open. Some home bakers fill a few pączki with almond paste instead of marmalade and encountering this filling is said to bring good luck. An old Polish proverb states, "If you don't eat at least one doughnut on Shrove Thursday, you will no longer be successful in life."

Historia Gorzkich Żali

W życiu Kościoła oprócz nabożeństw ściśle liturgicznych są jeszcze nabożeństwa paraliturgiczne. Mają one charakter prywatny i nieobowiązkowy, ale znaczący dla życia religijnego. Należą do nich: Droga Krzyżowa, procesje, litanie, Godzinki, nabożeństwa majowe, czerwcowe, październikowe oraz Gorzkie żale.

Te ostatnie są nabożeństwem rdzennie polskim. Autor Gorzkich żali jest nieznany. Po raz pierwszy ogłosił je drukiem ks. Wawrzyniec Benik, opiekun Bractwa Św. Rocha przy kościele Św. Krzyża w Warszawie, w r. 1707 pt. Snopek Myrry. Mirra to pachnąca żywica w proszku, jeden z darów, jaki trzej królowie złożyli Bożemu Dzieciątku. Dar mirry był zapowiedzią męki i śmierci zbawczej Chrystusa.

Do odprawiania Gorzkich żalów przygotowywano w okresie Wielkiego Postu specjalnie kościół i ołtarz główny. Odprawiano je po Sumie lub Nieszporach. Po skończonym nabożeństwie głoszono kazanie, a potem odbywała się procesja ze świecami. Stolica Apostolska nie tylko pozwoliła na odprawianie Gorzkich żalów, ale także udzieliła odpustów cząstkowych lub zupełnych.

O popularności Gorzkich żalów w całej Polsce niech świadczy fakt, że w przeciągu zaledwie pół wieku ukazało się przynajmniej piętnaście wydań, co na ówczesne czasy było bardzo dużym osiągnięciem. Dokonano też przekładów na języki: litewski, francuski, niemiecki, angielski i inne.

W połowie XIX wieku nabożeństwo to znane było już na całym terytorium dawnej Rzeczypospolitej. W Księdze Protokołów Bractwa św. Rocha czytamy: „Nie masz bowiem kościoła, gdzie tylko język polski zasięga, aby odprawiane nie było nabożeństwo Gorzkich żali”. Nabożeństwo to znane też było wśród polonii w Brazylii, Ameryce Północnej, Londynie czy Turkiestanie: „Gorzkie żale śpiewane są tam w Wielkim Poście w niedziele i święta - przed Sumą” (Kronika rodzinna, Warszawa 1903).

Początkowo Gorzkie żale śpiewano w kościele Świętego Krzyża w Warszawie przez cały rok. Ostatecznie przyjął się zwyczaj odprawiania Gorzkich żalów tylko w okresie Wielkiego Postu. Dziś przy ich odprawianiu stosowana jest podwójna praktyka: śpiewa się albo wszystkie trzy części razem w jedną niedzielę lub po jednej części w ciągu trzech kolejno po sobie następujących niedziel. Prócz tego przyjął się zwyczaj śpiewania Gorzkich żalów także w Wielki Piątek przy Bożym Grobie.

O Gorzkich żalach powiedziano, że „nie mają sobie równych w świecie”. Nic więc dziwnego, że wiele osób przybywających z zagranicy urzeczonych jest tym nabożeństwem. Achille Ratti, późniejszy papież Pius XI, pełniąc w Warszawie po I wojnie światowej obowiązki nuncjusza apostolskiego, bardzo często uczęszczał do kościoła Świętego Krzyża, gdzie uczestniczył w nabożeństwie Gorzkich żalów.

Biorąc czynny udział w nabożeństwie Gorzkich żalów, których melodia nigdy nie uległa zasadniczej zmianie, mamy świadomość, że jest to melodia żalu i skruchy, która mękę Chrystusa stara się wyrazić w konkretnych formach przemawiających do każdego serca i każdej duszy ludzkiej.

Jeszcze raz Bóg zapłać wszystkim Rodzinom za zaproszenie na tradycyjną polską „kolędę”: – błogosławieństwo domu, wspólną modlitwę oraz serdeczne przyjęcie.

Dzisiejsza Msza św. o godz. 10^{00} msza święta jest ofiarowana o błogosławieństwo Boże, opiekę Matki Bożej, zdrowie i potrzebne łaski w Nowym Roku dla Rodzin z okazji spotkania kolędowego. Bóg zapłać za życzliwość i otwarte serce. Niech Bóg Wam błogosławi w każdym dniu!
